TO-DAY AND TO-MORROW.

BY GERRALD MASSEY. High hopes that burned like stars sublime Go down P the Heavens of Freedom;

And true hearts perish in the time We bitterliest need 'em! There's nothing left but sorrow.

But never sit we down and say. We walk the wilderness To-day. The Promised Land To-morrow

Our birds of song are silent now; There are no flewers blooming: Yet life is in the frozen bough, And Freedom's spring is coming ! And Freedom's tide comes up alway. Tho' we may stand in sorrow :

And our good Bark, agreened To-day, Shall float again To-morrow. Thro' all the long, dark night of years, The people's sry ascendeth. And earth is wet with blood and tears But our meck sufference endeth ! The few small pot forever ewey.

The many moll in serrow, The Powers of Hell are strong To-slay, But Christ shall rise To-merrow. The hearts brood o'er the Pant, our eyes With smilling future glisten!

For lo! our day bursts up the skies; Lean out your souls and listen! The world rolls Freedom's radient stay And sipons with her surrow; Reep heart who bear the Cross To-day Shall wear the crown To nurrow,

O, wouth! Hame corneit, still a sale, With energies immortal! To many a heaven of our desire. Our yearning opes a portal! And, the' Age wearies by the way, And hearts break in the farrow. We'll sow the golden grain Today,

The Harvest comes To morrow limited up heroic lives, and all Be like a sheathen sabre. Rendy to flash out at Gol's call. O. Chivalry of Labor! Triumph and Tolls are twins, and ave Low recomes the cloud of surrour a And 'tis the murryrdom To-day,
