FATHER when you go to the store ask for a bottle of Morrison & Bro's., Cough Syrup and Liniment, as no family can do without them. m112m

GEN. COFFROTH has commenced work on his new building opposite Mammoth Block. It will be two stories high, running from Main Cross street through to the alley, and will be fitted up for offices.

BRICK! BRICK!! BRICK!!!—at W. Davis & Bro's Works. Building Brick, Fire Brick, Pavement Brick, Circular, Wedge, and Cornice Brick.

THE GRASS.—The rains of last week started the grain in the ground and it looks hearty and fresh in this section. The prospects for a good crop we are informed are very encouraging.

COOK & BEERITS, No. 1, Hugus Block, are the only house in town that handles Amos Snow Flake Flour, the best in the market, but they claim to be the parties who handled and introduced it.

FOR whitewashing, or kalsomining in different shades, call on

C. L. HORNER, Painter.

A SCORE of tramps are strolling through this county—they want something to eat and something to wear; but it is not certain that they want to go to work to earn their living.

Books Stationery, Wall Paper, Window Shades, Shirts, Collars' Ties, Suspenders, Gloves, Socks, Handkerchief, &c., &c., a very full stock at very low prices at Amos Steck's New Store, Mammoth Block Somerset, Pa.

YOU whirlwind sedentary lives—Printers, Editors, Shoemakers, etc., will find a great relief for the Constipation from which you so often suffer by taking Simmon's Liver Regulator. It is a simple harmless vegetable compound, sure to relieve you, and can do no injury.

DON'T fail to call and see Jos. H. Pisel when in town, and see the largest, greatest variety and finest grades of Confectionaries and Groceries ever brought to Somerset. Mark well the place, at his new room opposite M. A. Sanner's Bank.

GREENSBURG boasts of having the oldest merchant in the State. Henry Welty is his name, and he has been in continuous business since 1814, and has occupied the same building since 1824.

YOU CAN MAKE IT PAY to examine Morrison's woolen goods in the Hill Hotel, Somerset, Tuesday of Court where his waggon may be found with a full stock of goods for sale of Somerset Co., wool and no shoddy.

HOLLIDAYSBURG's young ladies have displayed the "Dolly Varden," "Grecian Bend," "Kangaroo Limp," and other odd and eccentricities of fashion, and are now sported the "Straighten—up—Mary Jane—and—show—your—breast-pin" attitude, and they are delighted with it.

THE editor of the Golden (Colorado) Globe, in closing his first volume says: "If we have hurt any one's feelings or misrepresented the past year we're sorry, and if you will come around back of the office some night, we'll take it out of them and we'll speak."

A NUMBER of our young men who indulge in a great deal of light literature have formed a "Go West Club," for the purpose, as their name indicates, of emigrating to the western wilds. They propose traveling under the names of "Dr. Whitefeather," "Texas Jack," "Nick Wiffles," "Squint-Eyed Bob" and "Sich."

PERSONS ATTENDING COURT, Will do well to stop at Amos Steck's and see the style of Hats and Caps, Shirts, Collars, Neckties &c., of the latest style. Remember the place, three doors from the corner in the Mammoth Building, Somerset Pa.

ENDEAVOR, if possible, to keep a clean conscience and two or three clean shirts. Rise with the lark, but avoid larks in the evenings. Be above ground in all dwellings, and also on board in all your dealings. Love your neighbors as yourself, but don't have too many in the same house with you.

ON the 10th inst., eight hundred minnows of the salmon trout species were placed in the head waters of the Conemaugh river near Johnstown. They were from the hatching house in Lancaster county. Several hundred of the same species have been forwarded to Ebensburg and placed in the head waters of the Conemaugh, Chest and Blacklick creeks.

LARGE ADDITION.—Messrs. Snyder and Uhl have made large additions to their stock of Boots and Shoes for summer wear; also a large lot of Sole Leather.

MESSRS. RHOADS AND FLECK, of this place are agents for a very superior lightning rod and will during the coming season call on our many farmers who can rely on being fairly dealt with, as these gentlemen are both trustworthy and responsible.

IT will be remembered that a letter mailed at Londonderry, Ireland, and addressed to "Alexander Boggs, fifty miles east of Pittsburg, North America," was widely noticed in the press a few weeks ago. The owner, a resident of Indiana County, saw this item in a paper, and claimed, and has had delivered to him, the letter. Such is one of the many benefits of advertising.

WOOL WANTED.—Wm. S. Morgan wishes to remind the farmers of Somerset County that his goods are better and prices lower than ever before. Mr. J. J. Baldwin will, during the season, visit all old customers and as many new ones as possible. Highest prices paid for wool. P. O. Stanton's Mills, Pa.

A FRAUD.—A traveling agent is going about the county selling soap to clean kid gloves. He cleans the one he carries for the purpose, but no one who buys the soap can clean theirs with the worthless stuff, and many disgusted feminines have concluded that the dirt is laid on his glove very lightly so as to be rubbed off easily. Buy your, wares only of respectable home merchants and dealers.

FARMERS will please remember that Cook & Beerits have for sale

Small clover seed	$7 00 Bu.
Large " "	7 50
Ground Alumn Salt	2 00 Sk.
Ashton "	5 00
McKeesport "	3 00 Bbl

and will trade the same for oats and potatoes.

IN some countries frogs are used as barometers; the species employed for this purpose is the green tree frog. They are placed in tall glass bottles with little wooden ladders, to the top of which they always climb in fine weather, and descend at the approach of bad weather. This is a cheap and highly interesting weather glass where the green tree frog is to be procured in its natural state.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE. I keep always on hand, Binn's Justice, Dunlape's Forms, Graydon's Forms, and all kinds of Justice, Blanks, at the lowest prices, give me a call, three doors from the corner, Mammoth Block, Main Cross Street Somerset Pa.

Amos Steck.

THE State fish-hatching establishment near Marietta, in Lancaster county, is filled with living salmon and trout, hatched there from spawn brought from the Kennebec and the northern lakes. Fifty thousand salmon were put in the Susquehannah last fall, and several thousand trout were set loose in the Schuylkill. Mr. Norrison and Reading last year. Previously to the transfer of both this spring, there were 150,000 Kennebec salmon, and 100,000 lake trout in the State springs at Marietta.

CURIOUS FREAK OF A BIRD.—One night last week, a bird lit on the outside sill of the window of a lady's bed chamber and tapped with its bill on the glass. So distinct was the rap, the lady half frightened arose and went to the window. Seeing what her midnight visitor was, she attempted to scare it away, but the bird tapped again, as if to say "I want in." She hoisted the window and it flew in and perched itself upon the mantle and roosted there all night. In the morning the lady was awakened by its melodious warbling, after which it darted out of the window and flew away.

NOTICE.—The merchants of Somerset county and elsewhere, who have heretofore been buying goods from the house of Morgan & Co., No. 627 Chestnut Street Philadelphia, through Charles F. Uhl, recent salesman for the house, are respectfully solicited to continue their patronage as heretofore. The per centage of commission on all goods purchased by former customers of C. F. Uhl, will be given to Mrs. Ann E. Uhl, his wife. Mr. J. L. Speakman, of the house, will attend to all customers and fill all orders with promptness and dispatch.

SOLOMON UHL.

IN another place will be found a card from Mr. Solomon Uhl to the merchants of the county stating that the former customers of Morgan & Co., who purchased goods through Mr. C. F. Uhl, will be kindly waited on by one of the salesmen of the house, and that the commission will be appropriated to the support of Mrs. Uhl. Most of the people throughout the county are aware that some four weeks ago Mr. C. F. Uhl, without any reason or cause known to us, basely deserted his family and fled to parts unknown. Merchants can purchase goods in this way and aid in supporting a most worthy woman and several small children without any inconvenience or loss to themselves.

Messrs. Craddock & Co., 1032 Race St., Philadelphia—

Gentlemen—Please send me twelve bottles of Cannabis Indica, one each of Pills and Ointment, for a friend of mine who is not expected to live; and as your medicine cured me of Consumption some three years ago, I want him to try them. I gained fifteen pounds while taking the first three bottles, and I know it is just the thing for him.

Respectfully,

J. V. HULL.

Lawrenceburg, Anderson Co., Ky., Feb 10th, 1873.

IN Indianapolis, the other day, a three and a half year old child climbed through an attic window and walked along the edge of the roof, thirty-two feet from the ground the whole length of the house, and stood unconcerned and enjoying the prospect. She was seen by the maid of all work, who pleasantly called out, "Come down, I've something for you." "All yite," cried the little one, and she retraced her steps and disappeared through the attic window in safety.

THE Northern Border says that a graveyard near Bangor has a monument with the following inscriptions, the first verse of which was written by the wife before her death, and the second by the the husband after he had married again:

"Weep not for me, my dearest dear,
I am not dead, but sleeping here;
Repeat, my love, before you die,
For you must come and sleep with I."

"I will not weep, my dearest dear,
For I have got another wife;
I cannot come and sleep with thee,
For I must go and sleep with she."

DR. BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA, for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Cramps, Colic, Diarhœa, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, Sprains, Burns, Scalds, Bruises, Chilblains, Frost-bites, Soreness of the Joints, and all painful affections of the body, external and internal. For Colds, Sore throat, Quinzy, and diseases of the throat and mucous membrane, it is an invaluable remedy. John F Henry, Curran & Co., Proprietors, 8 and 9 College Place, New York.

A MEDICAL writer puts in an oar for the children who possess a "sweet tooth" in their head—and our recollection fails to remind us of a child who is not passionately fond of sugar, candy, bon bons, and such confections—in the following manner: "The craving of children for sweets is well known to be one of the most imperious of their appetites. It has reference, probably to that ceaseless activity which characterizes the age of childhood. It may be that sugar performs in their systems the part enacted by fatty substances in the bodies of adults. As it undergoes oxydation—is burnt up, circulating with the blood—it may be the source or the power which enables them to keep in motion from morning to night. Besides this, it is known that it renders easier and more perfect the digestion of the albuminous food upon which their growth depends. In respect to these offices it is, therefore, nearly essential to their well being. And yet how strong for generations has been the prejudice against sugar! Under what difficulties, and in the face of what discouragement and protests, have our children obtained the luxury!"

ABOUT SAVING.—There is, perhaps no one in the world more to be pitied than the poor rich man—the man who has got into the habit of saving until he saves from sheer delight in seeing his wealth increase, and counting every dollar of expenditure as though its loss was something that could never be repaired. Yet it is the duty of every poor man to save something. The possession of a few dollars often makes all the difference between happiness and misery, and no man, especially with a family dependent upon him, can be truly independent unless he has a few dollars reserved for the time of need. While extreme carelessness as to the expenditure of money will make a rich man poor, a wise economy will almost as certain make a poor man rich, or at least make him to a considerable extent independent of the caprices of employers and of the common vicissitudes of life. Nothing is more important to the poor man than the habit of saving something; his little hoard will soon begin to grow at a rate which will surprise and gratify him.

The saving banks of the State of New York contain over $200,000,000. This vast amount is owned by the moderately poor people. It has been earned in small amounts and deposited in sums of from ten cents to five hundred dollars.

Now that spring is fairly here, and cleaning up time is upon us, would it not be well to clean up the streets and alleys of the town, remove all the unsightly piles of rubbish and coal ashes from in front of our properties. The old adage that "cleanliness is next to godliness" is a true one, and applies as well to streets and other public thoroughfares as to persons and households. As we usually have a large number of visitors in the summer, who bring business to the town, would it not be well to add to the charms of our beautiful village that a still larger number yet may be attracted hither ward. Nothing tells more in favor of a town than its cleanliness, persons are often heard to remark, as if they were paying a place a decided compliment, that it is a neat, clean place, with a very small amount of labor we may gain in a pre-eminent degree this enviable reputation for our borough. We would suggest that the town authorities pass and enforce an ordinance compelling all persons to clean one-half of the street lying in front of their properties. It is earnestly hoped that this or some similar suggestion may meet with the approval of the officials, who we feel confident are willing to do all in their power towards the accomplishment of this much to be desired end.

ATTEND TO THE FIRST SYMPTOMS of consumption and that disease may be checked in its incipiency. Use immediately Dr. Wishart's Pine Tree Tar Cordial, a safe remedy in all diseases of the lungs.
