The Editor of the Old Fashion (Hounsborough) says "now the most correct caterpillar. Take these while the caterpillars are small, and the whole family at home. You will find plenty if you take the trouble to examine the trees."

SAD AFFAIR - Three children of John Nixey, went out one day last week, to gather myrtle, but never returned. They were seen by myrtle, and ate of it. They were all seriously ill therefrom. The two oldest died on myrtle, and the youngest died on myrtle.

BIBLICAL - The wretch who murdered a shoemaker by the name of Kerr last winter, and whose trial for the crime has taken up several days of the present session of court at Greensburg, was found guilty of murder in the first degree on Monday last.

Boys are already beginning around here and holding up two fingers to each other. The latter means to go and freeze themselves to death in the creek. If they return to go home and swear they haven't been in swimming since last summer.

The churches yesterday were all very well attended. This may be ascribed to the fine weather or to the pious of the day. The weather occasionally has something to do with religion as well as with sewing.

KEYSTONE LIGHTNING ROD CO. - All persons engaged in building, having their buildings well protected, should have the best of rods erected. The undersigned have secured one of the finest Copper Rods ever introduced here at $1 per day when they are here and both are responsible and trustworthy. The public may rely upon satisfaction being given. All work done in the most neat and warranted.

ROBINS & FLOCK - The Gormantown Telegraph, which is a reliable authority, says: "We look forward to a great fruit crop this year, including apples, peaches, grapes, and small fruits. They could not promise better. Croakers may go ahead and enjoy themselves in content, but we all here to what we predict."

A GOOD way to protect fruit is to encase it over with whitening, mixed to the consistency of common paint in warm water. Rub the surface to be cleaned briskly, and wash with water. Green spots will, in this way, be instantly removed, as well as other marks, and the paint will retain its beauty and brilliancy until next year.

WALL PAPER, WINDOW SHADES - A large lot just received at Ames Stock's New Store, No. 3 Mammoth Block, Somerset, Pa.

The Cambria County children who were at the Cassville Soldiers' Orphan School have been taken to the Philadelphia Leaver county school.

Hovey BREWER - The house of James Hovey, in Fairport township, was destroyed by fire, on Wednesday afternoon the 13th inst. The fire caught from a spark from the house falling on the roof. Part of the house and goods were saved. Mr. Hovey's loss is about two thousand dollars, partially covered by insurance in the Westmoreland County. - Greensburg Herald.

CAUTION - Wm. Schrock is exclusive agent for the sale of the pump and celebrated Erie Wood Pumps, and any person or persons representing that they are selling such pumps are a fraud upon the public. All orders addressed to agent at Somerset will be promptly attended to. Every pump warranted.

EVERY State should have one. But it happened to a town in Kentucky that this writing claims to be honored by the citizenship of a lady who makes it her boast that she had but one new bonnet in forty years. Her husband had taken but one meal away from home in all that time; and yet she has health, wealth, and no physical disability of any sort.

TERMINAL REPORTS - James Derby, director of the Lepidopteran club works a short distance east of Latrobe, was fatally hurt on last Saturday. He was thrown into the air by a pump and landed in his hand, the pump and lamp and everything else falling on him. He was killed and his body will be sent to the morgue. He is still living, but little hope is held for his recovery. - Latrobe Independent.

THE tenth annual convention of the Pennsylvania State Lepidopteran Association will be held in the first Presbyterian church on Washington Avenue, in this city, on Saturday, the 10th, 11th, 12th and 13th inst. Entertainment will be provided for all delegates who will attend. - William Harbison, Secy. Harbison, one of before June first.

HENRY'S CARBON SALINE is so well known that it is only necessary to call attention to it. It requires a careful examination of the carbonic acid and other ingredients to produce the effect that may be relied upon. The genuine is only guaranteed. See that it bears the signature and property of James H. Henry, Proprietor, 101 North Second Street, Philadelphia, Pa. - J. H. Henry, Proprietor, 101 North Second Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

ABOUT NOTARIES PUBLIC - A bill has passed both branches of the Legislature which will amend the act relating to notaries in certain cases. It provides that where there is but one notary public in any county, he may, at any time, and at his own expense, be authorized to deputize to his aid in his district any deputy to be named by the notary. He is required to give the same amount of security, and to all intents and purposes his functions are those of a notary.

SOMEbody, who had evidently a level head, went long ago, that a man was building a house on a plot of land, or married a woman, told story of building his mission on earth. We are glad to see that the man who built the house, or married the woman, told story of building his mission on earth.
