WHY IS IT SO?

BY FATHER BYAN, Some find work where some find rest. And so the weary world goes on; I sometimes wonder which is best; The answer comes when life is gone. Some eyes sleep when some eyes wake,

Some hearts beat where some hearts break; I often wonder why 'tis so. Some wills faint where some wills fight-Some love the tent and some the field-I often wonder who are right-The ones who strive, or those who yield. Some hands rold where other hands

Are lifted bravely in the strife;

And so thro' ages and thro' lands

And so the dreary night-hours go.

Move on the two extremes of life. Some feet halt where some feet tread, In tireless march, a thorney way; Some struggle on where some have fied: Some seek when others shun the fray. Some swords rust where others clash, Some fall back where some move on, Some flags furl where others flash Until the battle has been won.

Some sleep on while others keep The vigils of the true and brave They will not rest till roses creep Around their name, above a grave.
