OVER in the rural village of Meyersdale they have appointed a board of health, who come out in a address to the denizens under the startling and soul harrowing heading of "why will ye die?"

A match game of base ball was played between the "Mechanics" and "Glades" on the grounds of the latter on Saturday last. At the end of the 9th inning the game stood, Glades 27 "Mechanics 11.

IT may be of interest to state, during this hot weather, that if a man wears a few green leaves in his hat, and takes care that whiskey don't tangle his feet, he will be almost entirely exempt from sunstroke.

HERE is a Japanese receipt for keeping meat fresh in hot weather: "Place it in a clean porcelain bowl and pour very hot water over it so as to cover it. Then pour oil upon the water. The air is thus quite excluded and the meat is preserved.

THE Normal School at this place opened on Monday last. The school had a very fair beginning and will be very large. A competent assistant will be employed. Good board can be had at a low figure. Teachers should come in at once.

WE would request those of our patrons who attend the August term of court, to call around and settle their accounts. We do not purpose running a newspaper for instance or for fun, as a number of our subscribers appear to think we do.

PISCATORIALLY-inclined people are warned that fishing for catfish cannot be pursued just now unless by violation of the fish law of the State. Cats can be caught and killed, however, without any possibility of the law setting up any interference.

A BRAKEMAN fell out of a car on the Pittsburgh, Washington & Baltimore R. R. in this county, the potato bugs have made a clean sweep, not a vine or leaf is to be seen, in fact, so close have they eaten the vines that a casual observer would never suspect that the fields had ever been planted.

MESSRS. SHOAFF & FLECK request us to say that they have no nine men employed in selling their Lightning Rod, neither do they sell the Munson Rod. They claim to sell a superior rod known as the T. T. Kinsey. Parties selling the Munson rod and representing themselves as in the employ of Rhoads & Fleck are, therefore, impostors, and the public is cautioned accordingly.

THE Bedford Daily Gazette, published by the Gazette publishing company, put in an appearance at our office last week. It is, or rather was, a spicy little paper, and the management deserve, and we hope received, a great deal of encouragement for such a display of their enterprise and energy. It was issued for the week commencing July 27th, or during the stay of the Duquesne Greys.

WILLIAM WILSON brought to our office this morning a very curious specimen of the worm creation. Blue, green and yellow were the colors it sported, and a cord net of four ruby stars ornamented his head, while seventy-one white stars were judiciously distributed over the body. It was curious to gaze upon, and we believe it was a "loyal" citizen, judging from the number of honorable stars it bore upon its person.—Cumberland News.

KEYSTONE LIGHTNING ROD CO.—All persons desirous of having their buildings well protected, should have the best of rods erected. The undersigned have secured one of the finest Copper Rods ever introduced here. As they are at home here and both are responsible and trustworthy, the public may rely upon satisfaction being given. All work done in the best manner and warranted.

RHOADS & FLECK.

WE would suggest to the blonde young lady, who was rushing so frantically up Fort Street, in order to get a first glimpse of the Duquesne Greys, that flowing locks on that occasion would have served her purpose better than the coiffure she adopted, for though night caps are an comfortable articles of the toilet they can scarcely be ranked among the ornamental. No doubt however it was a clear case of absence of mind and when we consider the cause, it is not so much to be wondered at.—Bedford Gazette.

R. I. H. DARBS, the celebrated Photographer, No. 46 Sixth street, Pittsburgh, has introduced an entirely new picture called Portrait Glace, is much more beautiful than the Porcelain picture, perfectly durable, and much cheaper. One of the most important requisites in getting a good picture is to have a good and natural position, and in giving such Mr. Dabbs excels any one we know, and that is likely the reason of his doing the largest business of the kind in the city.

A Card from Morgan's Factory

I find that Mr. Baldwin, being a stranger in some parts of the county, has, on his first round missed some of my old customers, I hope they will notify me by mail or through their neighbors whose he has been, so that all may be visited on his second round which will be made as fast as possible. Our stock is still full, prices reasonable and all goods warranted.

Knowing that Somerset County is well supplied with Stores, Horse I do not call for ign merchandise, we peddle only goods that we make.

THE doctors intimate that these cold nights and warm days are provocative of sickness. But still a cool night is admirably adapted for comfortable sleeping.

THE Bedford Daily Gazette reports that about four thousand persons visited Bedford on Thursday to witness the dress parade of the Duquesne Greys.

WE had the pleasure of taking Prof. Charles Trent of 106 Adams street Allegheny, by the hand one day of last week. The Prof. is an old employe and graduate of the HERALD office, and we are always glad to welcome him back to his old haunts. He is on a visit to his friends and relatives at this place.

THE second game of a series of three, between the "Grangers" of Bedford and the "Glades" of this place will be played on the grounds of the "Glades" on Friday. The wish of the "Glades" is that the Bedford boys may have as pleasant a time on the return as the Somerset boys did on the first game.

THE prospectus for a new paper to be published in the town of Irwin, in our neighboring county of Westmoreland, and to be known as the Irwin Herald, is out. C. E. Meade will be editor and proprietor. It will be a strictly local paper. Charlie is an easy and graceful writer and has the ability to make his paper a success. Our best wishes to the new enterprise.

A veritable Indian arrow-head was found by Mr. David Jones, on his farm a short distance west of town, one day last week. Several other relics of a similar description have from time to time been picked up in the same neighborhood, showing that in the long ago, before the foot of the white man pressed the sod, these hills and valleys were the stamping-grounds of the aborigines.

THE shadow of Frank Cowan's broad brim fell like a blight o'er the inhabitants of our peaceful village on Wednesday last. We have been visited by fire, potato bugs and drouth. In the name of heaven had not our people been sufficiently punished for their transgressions, that this fell calamity must o'er take us. Frank, however is a pleasant gentleman and publishes one of the best papers in Pennsylvania. Devoted almost exclusively to the coke, coal, iron and scientific interests of the country as a class journal it is not excelled.

EACH day and generation has its important question or questions. For instance, for a number of years the question of the revolution of the sun was the all important one, subsequently it became a matter of general interest to know who had struck William Patterson, a much mooted question that was never settled until the capture of the Virginian by the Spanlards. Later, there was an insatiate desire to know "where the wood-bine twineth." This, we are happy to say, has been finally settled, at "Fashion Barn" a splendid specimen can be seen twining its graceful folds about a wire.

THE following is an excellent recipe for canning green corn. Please publish and favor many readers:

Dissolve 20cts. of tartaric acid in one pint of water. Of this solution use one tablespoonful to every pint of corn, while the corn is at boiling heat. When opened for use add one teaspoonful of soda to every three pints of corn. Some fruit has been poisoned by being put up in leaded tin, instead of bright tin, cans. Always buy bright cans, as those made of inferior stock and having a dull sealing wax that was heated before: it is poisonous.

QUITE a large party of the denizens picnicked to Whitehouse on last Thursday. It was composed principally of visitors though there was a goodly sprinkling of Somersetters with the party, they returned at an early hour Friday morning reporting a pleasant time and all parties charmed with our mountain scenery. The HERALD regrets exceedingly that it was unable to have a reporter present, nothing but the unavoidable absence of a part of our force prevented.

IT is by no means necessary to indulge in extravagance in order to be well and tastefully dressed. There is a return to styles which, in many respects, afford simple toilets still in accordance with fashionable requirements, and which, indeed, are apt to be considered more distinguished from their very simplicity.

The latest styles in sleeveless jackets are striped velvet and late, black or yellowish white; and the latter beaded with "white" jet, and alternated with bands of pale blue or pink velvet. The former all black and beaded with black jets.—From Demorest's Monthly August.

THE FAIR.—Our Agricultural Society met last week and fixed upon september 23rd 24th 25th as the time for holding the next fair, and appointed a committee to revise the premium list and a committee to determine upon the admission fee, and to devise some method for the prevention of the petty fraud practiced by some in stealing into the grounds without payment of their fees.

We understand that every effort within the power of the officers will be made to make this the best fair ever held in the county, and we advise our friends throughout the county to get ready.

A LITTLE daughter of James Barnett, of Menallen tp., Fayette county, was found hanging lifeless to a window in Hugh Johnson's residence on the Thursday of last week. The child attempted to climb out the window, when the sick that kept it boisted was knocked out, and the sash fell upon her neck, breaking it and pinning her body fast till found several hours afterwards by members of the family. The little girl was about ten years of age. There were no grown persons in the house at the time. The mother has become insane over the result of the accident. Two children have been drowned and one smothered for the same family.

THIS being the season of the year when a great many persons are engaged in gathering berries, and consequently, it often happens that some are bitten by snakes. For the benefit of such we give Dr. Cornell's remedy for a snake bite: "Take one table-spoonful of gunpowder and salt, and the yellow of an egg, and mix so as to make a plaster; place on a cloth and apply to the wound, letting it extend an inch on all sides of the wound. As the poison is drawn the plaster will have a sticking qualities, and when full will fall off. Apply a new plaster until it sticks, which is a sure evidence that the poison is all out."

This, it is said, will cure a snake bite on either human being or beast. Cut this out.

JUST after the spring election, looking over the list of borough officers, we tossed our cap in hair and sang "Hallelujah!" but it appears that our rejoicings were too soon. Had our short dream of borough prosperity was not to be, that the intelligentia has not yet dawned, and per consequence we cannot as yet get a set of borough officials that will rigidly enforce the ordinance relative to levin pavements. There is one place on Main Cross street particularly, that is distressing to all pedestrians, and many a belated individual, as he trips on a loose plank and goes ankle deep into mud, is heard to wish the authorities in a place where wooden pavements never are.

INTELLIGENCE was received here on Saturday that two horses had been stolen from Mr. John Meyers of Mt. Pleasant Westmoreland county, and that twenty-five dollars would be paid for the return of the animals and the apprehension of the thief. The only description given is "that one is a large brown mare, and the other a light bay horse. The mare has a tail similar to the candel appendage of a mule, while the horse has a white face and one white leg.

Speaking of this subject the Johnstown Tribune sensibly says: "Our farmers should be fully convinced by this time that a thoroughly organized band of horse thieves are now operating in this portion of the State, as at least a score of horses have been stolen in adjoining counties within the past few weeks. It would be well for them to call meetings and organize a vigilance committee to keep a constant watch for the rascally scalawags, and so prohibit by the purpose of summary punishment a class of property that in a few hours time can be placed far beyond the reach of organized pursuit. Every suspicious character to be found in the rural districts and more particularly after night-fall, should be compelled to give a satisfactory report of himself, and the traveling of any person or persons over country roads during seven o'clock at night until the member of the committee is satisfied that the night-rider is pursuing his legitimate business that requires traveling by night. We hope that this thieving gang may be speedily broken up, and the out laws brought to justice.

BROTHER Hoffman of the Democrat, having become tired of moving from house to house, intends "fitting up a mansion" on his lot on Union street adjoining Printing House Row. The ground was staked off on Monday, work will be commenced immediately.

ABOUT BITTERS.—At certain periods of life a tonic is a necessity; but there is danger in using stimulants that injure the organs of digestion while giving temporary relief. To obviate this, and present to the public a tonic free from ALCOHOLIC POISON, Dr. Greene prepared the OXYGENATED BITTERS, a sure cure for DYSPEPSIA and all kindred complaints. Sold everywhere. JOHN F. HENRY, CURRAN & Co., proprietors, 8 and 9 College Place, New York.

AN old lady who died a few days ago in the north-eastern part of this county, demanded while on her death-bed that two of her sons, who owed her a certain sum of money each, should pay their indebtedness, inasmuch as she expected to die and wished to apply the money to liquidate her funeral expenses. With this request one of the sons, it is said, not only declined to comply, but when his brother was in the act of handing over the amount due from him, he grasped the money and positively refused to return it. Subsequently at the funeral, as if to add insult to injury, the grasping son helped to fill up his mother's grave in the church-yard a proceeding never before dreamed of in our philosophy.

THIS is the season when the tomato, one of the most delicious of all the vegetables, naturally begins to find its way into our markets and thence upon our tables. As various assertions have been made by men of the school of Dio Lewis regarding the bad effects of eating tomatoes, and as few persons are doubtless influenced by those assertions, it is well to state what medical properties are claimed for the tomato by a physician of celebrity, viz:

1. That the tomato is one of the most powerful aperients of the materia medica, and that in all those affections of the liver, and organs where calomel is indispensable it is probably the most effective and least harmful remedial agent known to the profession.

2. That a chemical extract pill can be obtained from it which will altogether supersede the use of calomel in the cure of diseases.

3. That he has successfully treated diarrhœa with this article alone.

4. That when used as an article of diet, it is almost a sovereign remedy for dyspepsia and indigestion.

5. That the citizen in ordinary life should make use of it either raw, cooked, or in the form of catsup, with their daily food, as it is a most healthy article.

THE Philadelphia Ledger which is considered good authority on all financial questions, has a hopeful view of the business outlook, and thinks we are very near hard pan. It says:

While business is confessed a good deal depressed there is an encouraging outlook. The spring future has a hopeful aspect. The crop prospect brightens as the season advances, and the indications now are that we shall have the largest grain crop on record. The arrearage of cotton is smaller than last year, according to the best reports, but altogether the appearances are that the crop, while smaller than last year, will be a good one for the average. As to railroad property the net profits have within a month or two shown a considerable increase. For the expired part of 1874 the leading roads have done less business, but having done it at less expense, show materially increased profits, as compared with corresponding time in 1873, during which year the receipts were the largest on record, and, taking mileage into consideration, especially so. Since the panic the roads have been reducing their floating debt, and its volume, like that of private indebtedness, is now, if not much smaller than to start. In fact, in every department we are nearer hard-pan than since the outbreak of the war.

HOOVERSVILLE, July 27th '74.

ED. HERALD:—I thought I would write and give the readers of the HERALD a few notes from Hooversville.

Hooversville is situated on Stonycreek fifteen miles northeast of Johnstown, and about five miles north of Stoystown, with a population of one hundred and eight, of which number twenty-three are voters, of which two are mill wrights, two blacksmiths, two millers, two carpenters, two merchants, shoe-makers, machinists, etc., in fact, we have all the different tradesmen that country towns can usually boast of. Among the industries of the place are numbered a steam tannery and a planing mill. Hammer Bro's. are making improvements on their mill by putting in Turbine wheels and running it with belting. They put in a new dam last summer. When completed they will have one of the finest mills in the county. The grain is all harvested. There is a good crop of wheat considering the winter and the drought, corn looks well and it is expected that there will be a large yield; potatoes are poor, the people have been fighting the bugs on all sides but they are still in the land. Oats and Barley are poor, fruit but half a crop and hay very short and thin.

THE following items are taken from the Valley Independent.

Some of our citizens residing on Main street are agitating the question of paving their gutters with cobble-stones; we hope this matter will be attended to, not by a few, but by all the residents along the streets that have thus far been macadamized. The river is very low now, and the stones can be handled very easily, but the matter should be attended to soon. If our borough authorities would take the matter in hand and lend some little assistance we have no doubt this much desired improvement would soon be accomplished.

Mr. H. Farnsworth of Vinton, Benton county, Iowa, agent for the sale of a stump extractor, had his leg broken in two places, above the ankle, on Wednesday of last week, on the farm of Daniel Yutz, Brownsville township. In operating the machine three long pieces of timber, connected by rings at the top are made to form a tripod; during the attempt to remove a stump one of the rings broke, permitting a leg of this tripod to fall, which struck Mr. F., with the result as stated above. The sufferer was taken to Mr. Yutzy's residence where he is now lying. Medical attendance was called in and the patient is doing well as could be expected.

Mr. Lewis Werner, while engaged in chopping last Thursday sunk an ax deep into his left foot almost severing the great and second toes from the foot—and entirely severing two arteries—which caused profuse hemorrhage; all efforts to stop the blood were resorted to, but failed, Dr. Brown was sent for in haste, and by the time he arrived the patient had lost between 10 and 12 lbs of blood which caused him to be very weak. Dr. B. arrested the hemorrhage, dressed the wound and left him in good spirits—we have since learned from the Dr. that he is getting along very well.

On Friday of last week Mr. Elijah Wagner of Salisbury met, with a sad accident while engaged in gathering cherries. It appears that Mr. Wagner had placed a ladder against a limb of the tree, which he supposed sound, but which broke off after he had ascended nearly to the top, hurling him violently to the ground with such force as to break his right leg, near the hip. Mr. W., is quite an aged man, but his physicians and friends claim he will come through all right. At last accounts he was doing exceedingly well.

Passing Items.

Prof. Trent will teach the Ursina Normal School for a term of 10 weeks, commencing August 3rd.

The county bridge, crossing Laurel Hill creek has been demolished by Mr. Juda, who has the contract for building a new one. We hope he will endeavor to get the new one up soon.

Mr. James Albright formerly of Lavansville has made quite an improvement on his property.

Prof. I. J. Miller, will teach the Normal school at Confluence.

Playing base ball and getting eyes or hands banged up, seems to be quite a gratification to some of our sports.

The work on the new M. E. this church has been progressing rapidly, under the supervision of the pastor, Rev. Wesley Davis.

Mr. David Mountain, an old and much respected citizen, fell from the top of a new building at M. J. Kinsinger's in Addison tp., a few days ago. He died in a few hours.

WE find the following letter from Somerset in the Cumberland News of recent date:

LETTER FROM SOMERSET.—Ed. News. Our town is filled to overflowing with strangers—Maryland, West Virginia, Louisiana, Ohio, and other States represented. Among those here I note the Rev. Clark and family, and Mr. A. Clark, Mrs. V. E. White and family, Miss Lib Greer, and Jas. Neill, Esq., of Wheeling; Mr. and Mrs. Schnebly, and Miss Coffroth of Baltimore; Major Eyster, Mrs. Ira R. McVey, of Pittsburgh, and the Misses Gephart of Dayton, Ohio. In fact so many that a list would take up too much of your space. Suffice it to say that the hotels are filled, as well as the private houses. Somerset never appeared so gay and well filled. Gayeties are the order of the day—and night. Night before last the young gentlemen gave a dance at the Somerset House, which was well attended and enjoyed by all who participated. The dancing was kept up until 3 A. M. The gentlemen had intended getting music from Pittsburgh, but some disappointment made it necessary to fall back on the town musicians.

This morning a large party of ladies and gentlemen went to "Break Neck Rocks," to pass the day in the woods and inspecting the rocks. Among the questions first asked by a Somersetter to a stranger is, "Have you been to Break Neck?"—these Rocks being to us what the narrows are to Cumberlanders. Whilst speaking of the rocks it will not be out of place to give a short description of them, the derivation of the name, etc.

"Break Neck Rocks" are about one mile south of town, on "Huckleberry Ridge." About the year 1814, a German physician named Harnain, on his way from Cumberland to Somerset on the old road, riding a blind horse, was benighted, and as is supposed, his horse took a "blind path," and walked straight over the rocks. The hight of the rocks is not more than fifteen or twenty feet, but that fall was too much for man and beast to withstand. Some days after, as Gen. Ross and another gentleman were hunting rattlesnake, they came across the body of Harnain, as also that of his horse, with their necks broken. The remains of Dr. Harnain, were buried near where found and the rocks have from that time been known as "Break Neck," rocks.

"White Horse" is another one of "the places to go." Is some fifteen miles from town, on one of the spurs of the Allegheny Mountains. From this point, a magnificent view is presented, extending for miles in every direction. A large party go to "White Horse," on Tuesday, of which party, your correspondent will be one. We propose spending the day and sojourning by moonlight.

Mr. Brandt is progressing finely with his new hotel. The bricklayers are now pushing the walls with a vim. The hotel occupies the site of the Ross House, on the corner of Main and "Turkey foot" streets, at the Diamond. The house is 72 feet long and 60 feet wide. It will contain fifty-one rooms, and there will be a bridge run over to the third story of an adjoining house, and there take in thirteen rooms, which, together with the ground floor, gives an aggregate of between eighty and ninety rooms. The house is to be four stories high, built in modern style, with bath rooms, barber shop, etc., and it is hoped will accommodate the large number of persons that come each year kept away on account of their being no place to stay. Mr. Brandt expects to have the house finished by next April, or in time for the summer season. If he succeeds in procuring a good landlord, a man who "knows how to keep hotel," there is no question about the success of the enterprise.

New houses are going up in every direction and if building is kept up next year as it has been this, and the few "burnt districts" replaced by the same style of houses, you must not think me too enthusiastic in saying we will have one of the handsomest little towns in Pennsylvania.

The weather is charming. There are no warm nights here, and mosquitos are unknown. The only trouble as to sleep is that one wants to sleep too much. Rev. C. who on account of sultry weather at Wheeling could not enjoy sleep, says he "feels like sleeping all the time," and can hardly get enough then. The strangers are all delighted with Somerset, its people and climate.

MARRIED.

BAKER—GIESY—On the 28th of July, at the house of Abraham Long, by Rev. A. E. Traxal, Mr. Jeremiah Baker and Miss Mary Anna Giesy, both of Milford.

DIED.

PHILLIPPI—On the 24th of July 1874, Mr. Francis Phillippi of Milford tp., aged 71 years, 10 months and 2 days.

Tribute of Respect.

The committee appointed to draft resolutions in regard to the death of Ella Flick, a member of the Ft. John's Reformed Sunday School, New Centerville, Pa., Respectfully report the following,

WHEREAS it has pleased Almighty God in His all-wise providence to call to her everlasting home, Ella Flick, an earnest and esteemed member of our school; and whereas it is befitting that we should give expression to our feelings in regard to this dispensation of Divine Providence, therefore, be it

Resolved, That although deeply sorrowful that one so young and so devoted should be made the victim of death, yet we bow in humble submission to the loving will of God.

Resolved, That we extend our christian sympathy to those to whom the departed sister was nearest and dearest.

Resolved, That we find our consolation in this bereavement in the blessed fact that, the deceased had faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and was a member of His Church.

Resolved, That a copy of this action be presented to the afflicted family, and that the county papers be furnished with copies for publication, also that a copy be recorded in the minute book of the Sunday School.

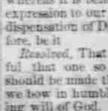
Centaur Liniment.



There is no pain which the Centaur Liniment will not relieve, no swelling they will not subdue, and no lameness which they will not cure. This is strong language, but it is true. They have produced more cures of rheumatism, neuralgia, lockjaw palsy, sprains, swellings, caked breasts, scalds, burns, salt-rheum, ear-ache, &c., upon the human race, and of strains, spavin, galls, &c., upon animals in one year than have all other pretended remedies since the world began. They are unquestionable, and all healing poly sellers. Cripples throw away their crutches, the lame walk, poisoned wounds and ungoverned hemmes, and the wounded are healed without a scar. It is no humbug. The recipe is published around each bottle. They sell as no article ever before sold, and they sell because it does just what they pretend to do. Those who now suffer from rheumatism, pain or swelling deserve to suffer if they will not use Centaur Liniment. More than 1,000 certificates of remarkable cures, including from Tufts, Gunsby, Hostetters, gout, running humors, &c., have been received. We will send a pamphlet containing testimonials, the recipe, &c., gratis, to any one requesting it. One bottle of the yellow wrapper Centaur Liniment is worth one hundred dollars for spavined or wounded horses and mules, or for screw worm in sheep.—Stock owners should remember this. Beware of counterfeits. "White wrapper for family use." Yellow wrapper for animals. Sold by all Druggists. 50c per bottle; large bottles $1 00. J. B. ROSE & CO., 36 Broadway, New York.

CASTORIA is more than a substitute for Castor Oil. It is the only safe article in existence which is certain to assimilate the food, regulate the bowels, cure wind colic and produce natural sleep. It contains neither minerals, morphine or alcohol, and is pleasant to take. Children need not cry and teachers may rest. aug12
