Our readers have not forgotten the trial and conviction of Marshal Bazaine. He was charged with having surrendered his army at Metz before he had exhausted all his resources in defending this strong citadel. The court before which he was tried found him guilty and sentenced him to death, but President MacMahon commuted the sentence to twenty years exile. Bazaine was sent to the Isle de Sainte Marguerite, on the Mediterranean coast of France, opposite Cannes. A cable dispatch reports that he has escaped from the island, and has taken passage for Italy.

SENATOR MORTON, in a speech at Torrington, on Friday evening, truly said that "all that is known of corruption in the Republican party has been shown by its own diligent self-examination, and the prompt exposure of every official delinquent who has been discovered. The Republican party has a grand history—it fought down treason and saved the Republic—but there is nothing more to its credit than its determined exposure of wrong within its own organization, and its promptness in originating and carrying out reform where necessary and practicable. With power in the hands of a party that is thus ready to correct the shortcomings of its own members, the interests of the people are safe."

We are constantly having accounts from the west and south of lynching affairs, and now this species of murder has broken out almost at our own door. On Thursday night last, at Martinsburg, West Virginia, an organized mob of about one hundred men broke open the jail doors, seized, carried away, and hung a negro man under sentence of death for rape and murder. No resistance was made by the citizens, and apparently no steps are being taken to arrest the offenders. Hanging a negro may be of no consequence in that community, but when this lawless spirit has had the encouragement of silence, and connivance on the part of the legal authorities, it may shortly see fit to select a white victim for the next sacrifice.

The prohibitionists met in State Convention in Harrisburg on Wednesday last, and placed in nomination a full State ticket for the coming election. The candidates placed in nomination are respectable gentlemen, but certainly no single delegate participating in their nominations, entertained the faintest hope of their election. What benefit, therefore, is to result to the temperance cause, we are unable to conjecture. This experiment has been tried time and again, and in many instances has led to the defeat of local candidates sound on the temperance question. The present local option law was a vast concession to the temperance sentiment of the State, and if the voters enlisted in "that cause would turn their attention towards the enforcement and maintenance of that law, they might effect something practical instead of wasting their energy on a movement from which the most ardent or the silliest of them can hope for no beneficial result. There is no danger to be apprehended to the Republican State ticket from the action of these zealots, the majority may be slightly decreased thereby, but defeat of our nominees—so to be selected to-day—can come only from the folly or unwisdom of our own party friends.

The first report of the fiscal officers of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, called for under the new Constitution, made its appearance on the 1st of August. The statement, which is full and satisfactory, is sworn to by the State Treasurer and Auditor General. We copy the recapitulation of the State Debt July 31, 1914.

Total July 31, 1914, $4,250,000.00. Total July 31, 1913, $4,250,000.00. Total July 31, 1912, $4,250,000.00. Total July 31, 1911, $4,250,000.00. Total July 31, 1910, $4,250,000.00. There is also attached a detailed statement of the surplus reserve fund, which amounts to $452,968.75, and also of the banking institutions ($25 in all) where this fund is deposited, without interest, at call, and the amount deposited in each institution. By the provisions of the eleventh section, Article 9, of the constitution, it is required that the State debt should be annually reduced in a sum not less than $250,000. This year the reduction of State indebtedness to July 31 amounts to over $800,000, and the reduction for the fiscal year will amount to fully $1,200,000. The money of the State, over and above the necessary reserve for the payment of the necessary expenses of the State, must be deposited in the Sinking Fund, and, according to the intention of the constitution, dare not be invested in any security, or loaned at interest, except it be in the bonds of the United States. Monthly statements must be published showing the amount of the reserve fund on hand, where the same is deposited, and how secured. The constitution does not call for any interest to be paid on this deposit.

VOTERS should remember that the duplicate lists of voters are now in the hands of the assessors, and subject to inspection free of charge by any person residing in an election district who shall desire to see the same. It is the duty of every citizen to see that his name is properly registered. After the 23rd day of September it will be too late. The law now requires assessments to be sixty days before the day of election. On the two secular days preceding the day for the return of the assessment lists the assessor is required to be at the voting place in his district from ten a. m. to three p. m., and from six p. m. to nine p. m. for the purpose of making corrections or adding new names, but it is not best to wait until the last day. Attend to it now.

The pending political campaign in the State is being fought on the "race issue." The old terrorism is being used, and but few white men will dare vote the Republican ticket and take the risk attendant upon a confession of sympathy with the "nigger party." We expect therefore to see the so-called Conservative—Democratic—white man's ticket successful in all or nearly all the Southern States, and that this end will be accomplished through the death of many of the leading colored politicians. For the last week the papers have been filled with details of alleged negro riots at the elections in Tennessee and Mississippi, and armed bodies of men have been hurried to different points to protect the whites from general massacre. And now it is admitted that there were no riots, and no murders except a negro, charged with being sane, on election day, was shot down by a high toned Democrat the next morning, and the Sheriff and his two brothers, attempting to arrest the assassin, were set upon by his friends and killed. Of course when negro voters are shot down for being sane, officers are murdered for attempting to execute the law, and citizens are "spotted" for voting the Republican ticket, there is not much hope for honest elections, and we therefore anticipate that through terror and bloodshed the "Democratic Conservative party" will triumph in nearly all the Southern States.

Many political prophets of 1872 had put down Massachusetts as one of the Democratic States of 1872. He would have been regarded as a fool. Nevertheless, there is some probability that the issue of the next gubernatorial election will be favorable to the Democratic candidate. The temperance people are in the view of the Republican candidate, and it seems as if they were determined to accomplish that result. They have already divided the Republican party of Illinois into discordant factions, and nothing better is to be hoped for in Massachusetts.

When Governor Washburn was elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Charles Sumner, Lieutenant Governor Talbot became Chief Executive of the State. He is a strong prohibitionist, and under his administration the stringent liquor law has been enforced with the utmost rigor. It may well be imagined that the Republicans who do not believe in prohibitory liquor laws are exceedingly hostile to his re-nomination. On the other hand the temperance party seems to be determined to force him upon the Republican State Convention, under the threat that if he is rejected a temperance candidate will be nominated, who, in view of the fact that "license" or "no license" is one of the issues of the campaign, would receive a heavy vote. On the other hand, if he is nominated the "license" party would be certain to vote against him.

The Republican managers are trying to get out of the dilemma by presenting the names of some of the most prominent men in Massachusetts as possible candidates; but no sooner are these honorable gentlemen "trod" (to use a slang phrase) than the temperance zealots forthwith interrogate him touching their views on "prohibition" and kindred questions, and it is not long before they are compelled to say whether they are for or against license.

The Hon. H. L. Pierce has been nominated by some of the newspapers, but the prohibitionists have been so pressing in their interrogatories that he will be likely to decline in advance. It seems to be conceded by the nominees in the event that the Republican candidate will secure the repeal of the prohibitory law, and this makes him an unacceptable candidate to one wing of the party. The Hon. Alexander H. Rice is another statesman who would win the Executive chair, but the captious system of catechizing adopted by the temperance people will be likely to frighten him off.

The Democrats have a very strong candidate in the person of ex Mayor Gaston, and he will most probably be the nominee in the event that the Republican candidate is compelled to take sides with the prohibitionists, or if the temperance party nominates a candidate, his election is quite within the range of possibility, strange as it may seem that Massachusetts should be carried by the Democrats. Baltimore American.

ROCHESTER, August 12.—It is estimated that 20,000 people witnessed the races to-day. Free for all race was called. It was announced that Goldsmith Maid would be driven to the race almost beyond the year. The beating her record of 2:15 at Buffalo. She was sent in the second heat and trotted a mile in 2:14. This extraordinary performance was received with the wildest enthusiasm.

OUR NEW YORK LETTER.

PARIS makes the fashions of the world, and in New York there is a struggle to outdo the fashion in climate and the peculiarities of the people, and distributes them through the United States and Canada. The lady of Washingtonville, in the State of Iowa, gets herself a really fashionable dress at a very moderate price, but she does not know or appreciate how much more the same dress costs her sister (by Eve) in New York when the fashion was first brought out.

The fashionable milliners and dress-makers of this city are enormous sums of money. The simplest bonnet on their stands, without ornaments, is marked not less than $20, and then the expense begins. The little French flower is put on at $3, and the milliner who asks $10 for a dress, and she who asks $20 for a dress, and she who asks $30 for a dress, and she who asks $40 for a dress, and she
