THE Fulton County Republican have nominated Dr. S. E. Duffield, for Congress; Lieut. James Pott, for Senator, and J. B. Alexander, for Assembly.

At the Pennsylvania Democratic Convention a resolution was passed in favor of a reduction in the number of office holders. This is evidence that they do not expect to carry the State. The Democratic party in power were never known to abolish an office.

A SAVAGE Mississippi Democratic organ, in recommending the formation of White Leagues in every district of the State, declares: "This lead is ours, by right and by inheritance, and we must, we will control it, even at the expense of oceans of blood and millions of lives."

GEORGE O. EVANS, who managed to swindle Pennsylvania out of a handsome sum in the collection of war claims, is to remain in jail. His counsel made an earnest effort before the Supreme Court to have him released under the insolvent laws, but it has proved a failure.

SEANOR SCHURZ has developed his hand in Missouri, in the shape of a "People's Movement," the ostensible object of which is to reform and purify existing parties, but having for its real purpose the return of Schurz to the United States Senate. It is not looked upon as a promising success.

Says the Worcester Spy: "Whatever may have been the error of some Republicans, their party is yet the only hope of those who desire to see the financial difficulties of the country surmounted and questions of this character settled in conformity with the principles of an enlightened public policy."

It now turns out that at the Constitutional election in Ohio the "no license" clause was carried by a considerable majority. The whiskey men construe this to mean that no license shall be granted, and therefore all who please are free to sell liquors, while the temperance people insist that no license can be granted, and therefore absolute prohibition is to be the rule.

THE official Treasury statement of the public debt for August, shows a reduction of the debt during that month of $1,696,760; of which the Treasury (including $21,141,200 in coin certificates), $71,073,228.

It is now known that the administration still adheres to its policy of relieving the people by a gradual monthly reduction of the debt, enabling them from year to year to reduce taxation.

OUR NEW YORK LETTER.

New York, September 8-1874. Go where you will in New York, you will see strong, stalwart men, clothed in a blue uniform, and armed with an exceedingly serviceable club, each with a silver badge on which is inscribed "Police." These men are the "cops" and "Charlies." The great majority of them speak the sweetest of English, and are, notwithstanding, a rule good, fair men, who conscientiously and bravely perform the duty assigned them.

Some facts as to the cost of keeping the metropolis in order may be of interest to your readers. To properly police this city requires an army of 5,500 men, besides a number required to officer them. There are forty captains, besides inspectors, and an additional force of detectives, whose business is the hunting down of criminals and the finding out of the means of their escape. They require more shrewdness than ordinary mortals are supposed to be gifted with. To support this force requires the neat sum of $3,000,000 annually.

Each man on the force has a certain territory which is his special business to protect and care for. It is his business to see that no rows or riots occur in his beat, that drunken men are kept from disturbing the peace of the neighborhood, that no unruly or disorderly crowds congregated in violation of the peace, that doors are securely locked, and, in short, that law and order is observed. Each policeman is compelled to stay on his beat six hours; then he sleeps six, and is on six more, that is, twelve of the twenty-four hours he is walking up and down, keeping his eye on everybody and everything. Is there a fight? The poor policeman grasps his faithful locust and sails in. He tears apart the combatants, puts them under arrest, disperses the crowd, and then the character of having his own brains knocked out, by that terrible class of outlaws whose highest pleasure it is to kill or maim one of the honest class who stand between them and their crimes. Does he see a suspicious looking person about a building? It is his duty to watch him, catch him if he commits an act which the law takes cognizance of, and to get him into safe keeping. Is there a child lost? It is his duty to find it, and, by passing the word and description it is generally found away from it. This is the general guardian, but for whom the police would be delivered over to the horde of soulless scoundrels who infest it, and would be a place which no peacefully disposed man would live in for a minute. And for this service, for the risk of being run over by the head, and shot or stabbed any minute, he gets the magnificent sum of $80 per month, with no pension if he be maimed in the discharge of his duty.

When you come to New York, and feel like crossing an inefficient police think of the work they have to do, and the miserable pay they get, and withhold your maledictions. TILTON-BEECHER. Forgive me for writing this leading article to him the fact that the air is full of Tilton and the earth of Beecher. Elizabeth Moulton, Susan B. Anthony, and all the rest of them are revolving in everybody's mind like the bits of colored glass in a kaleidoscope, and you can see them from it. There is something so interesting in wickedness that one must dwell on it.

Since I wrote you last Monday has made his statement, and, presto, public opinion, which is about as steady as the wind, has shifted to the Tilton quarter, and to-day he is injured man and Beecher is injured. To-day ninety per cent. of the people of New York are satisfied of Beecher's guilt in the matter. Moulton asserts, in the strongest possible way that both Beecher and Mrs. Tilton confessed to him the fact that they had been guilty of adultery—that the famous letter to Tilton referred to in this article and nothing else, that it had been discussed by them times without number. On this statement public opinion veered to Tilton and against Beecher, and to-day a great writer and speaker is on the top wave. But this is not all. Tilton and Moulton are making a supplemental statement, which they propose to publish in a week or two. It is to him the fact that he asserted will clinch the matter as to leave no loophole for Beecher to escape. It is said that Tilton and Moulton have not exhausted their magazines of ammunition in the shape of letters, and any means by which they have stock on hand sufficient to sink their enemies. That something of the kind is feared by Mr. Beecher's friends is evident from the fact that since Moulton's statement appeared they have melted down wonderfully. Nevertheless, they keep a good front on it, and aver that the legal investigation which Tilton has commenced will completely flatten him out, and leave the pastor in better shape than ever. Let the whole world hold its breath and wait. In the meantime,

HENRY C. BOWEN, the proprietor of the Independent, has got into it. The Brooklyn Argus has been accused from a Western man that he had stated that his late wife had, on her death-bed, confessed to a criminal intimacy with Beecher, and that Bowen accepted from Beecher a sum of money in settlement of the matter. Nevertheless, they keep a good front on it, and aver that the legal investigation which Tilton has commenced will completely flatten him out, and leave the pastor in better shape than ever. Let the whole world hold its breath and wait. In the meantime,

CHILDREN'S CHARITY.—St. Jago's Guild. One of the curious sights of city life nowadays is the sailing of the Floating Hospital of St. John's Guild, on its excursions for mothers and sick children. No one who has never tried to raise children in a crowded city, even with command of unlimited means, knows what unwearying care it demands, and the children of the poor seem literally born to die.

MEMPHIS, September 3.—A despatch from Tusculum says that a Cherokee, Alabama, yesterday, young Rodgers, was shot and killed by John McKaskey, a son of the Circuit Court clerk at Tusculum.

THE COUSHATTA MASSACRE.

New Orleans, September 8.—Governor Kellogg has issued a proclamation placing a reward of $5,000 on the heads of all persons implicated in the Coushatta affair, and accompanying his proclamation by the following statement: Having felt it my duty to issue my proclamation offering a large reward for the apprehension and conviction of the murderers in the Coushatta outrage, and to the end that the law-abiding citizens of the State may fully comprehend the magnitude of the crime committed, and be induced to render more active assistance to the officers of the law, I deem it proper to make the following statement. These facts are gathered from the reliable information received at the Executive Department on or about the 28th of August a body of persons belonging to a semi-literary organization, known as the White League of Louisiana, assembled in the town of Coushatta, parish of Red River, in this State, for the purpose of compelling by force of arms the State officers of that parish to resign their positions. These men were officers of good character, most of them largely interested in planting and mercantile pursuits. They held their positions with the full consent of an admittedly large majority of the legal voters of the parish, this being a heavy Republican parish, as admitted by their own admission, and the only known objection to them was that they were of Republican principles. Frank Edgerton, the duly qualified Sheriff of the parish, in strict compliance with the law of the State and of the United States, summoned the posse comitatus of citizens, white and colored, to assist him in protecting the parish officers in the exercise of their undoubted rights and duties from threatened unlawful violence of the White League. His posse, consisting of fifty-five men, were overpowered by a superior force assembled from adjacent parishes, and finally, after several colored and white men had been killed, surrendered themselves as prisoners, with the explicit guarantee that their lives would be spared if they would leave the parish and go to some other place. The White League would agree to leave the parish and those holding office would resign their positions.

These stipulations, although unlawfully exacted, were complied with. A part of the Republican officers of the parish, and a few military men for the night. The following named persons were amongst those who surrendered and resigned: Homer J. Twitcheil, planter and Tax Collector of Red River Parish, and Deputy United States Postmaster, in charge of the office of Coushatta, La. A. J. Powell, Sheriff of the parish, and M. C. Williams, merchant, and Justice of the Peace.

On the following morning, Saturday August 30, these persons were bound together, two by two, and conducted by an armed guard to the Mechanics Block, over the Parish line of Red River, within the boundaries of Bossier Parish, about forty miles east of the Texas line. There they were set upon and deliberately murdered in cold blood. On the night preceding the murder a body of military men, the White League of Caddo Parish, mounted and armed, left the City of Shreveport, and were seen riding in the direction of the place where the murder was subsequently committed. Their bodies were burned where they fell, in request of any formality whatever. (Signed) WM. J. KELLOGG, Governor.

The Outrages in the South.

WASHINGTON, September 3.—The following letter was received here today: NEW BRANCH, September 2.—Gen. W. W. Belknap, Secretary War, The recent atrocities in the South, particularly in Louisiana, Alabama and South Carolina, show a disregard for law, civil rights and personal protection that ought not to be tolerated in any civilized country. I look at the matter as a matter of life and property there will receive no protection and the local authorities become powerless. Under such circumstances it is the duty of the government to give all its aid for the protection of life and the civil rights legally authorized.

To this end I wish you would consult with the Attorney General, who is well informed as to the localities already committed and the outrages which are being perpetrated, and so order troops to be sent in case of necessity. All proceedings for the protection of the South will be under the Law Department of the Government and will be directed by the Attorney General in accordance with the provisions of the enforcement act.

No instruction need therefore be given the troops ordered into the southern States, except as they may be transmitted from time to time on advice from the attorney general or other circumstances which may determine hereafter. Yours truly, U. S. GRANT.

The Black Hills.

CHICAGO, September 3.—Lieut. Gen. Sheridan to-day sent the following order by telegraph to Brig. Gen. Alfred A. Terry, at St. Paul, Minn.: "Should the companies you are organizing at Sioux City and Yankton, on the Sioux Indian reservation, be largely composed of the force at your command, you are to burn the wagon trains, destroy the outfit, and attack the leaders, containing them in the nearest military post in the Indian country, and should you be unable to reach the interior, you are to send such a force of cavalry in pursuit as will accomplish the purposes above named. Should Congress open up the country for settlement by extending the treaty of 1851 to the Black Hills, it will give a valuable support to the element of the Black Hills. A duplicate copy of these instructions has been sent to the Gen. commanding the Department of the Platte. (Signed) F. H. SHERRIDAN, Lieut. General.

The Evans Case.

HARRISBURG, September 8.—In the case of the Evans case, decided this afternoon by a full bench of the Court refused to grant the discharge of Evans on two grounds—first, that the insolvent law of Pennsylvania did not extend to debts due the Government; and second, if it did, it did not extend to the discharge of a debt that he received the money as the agent of the State.
