OUR friend and patron, Mr. Frank Countryman, recently acquired 500 acres for $5000. Mr. Jacob Baker was the purchaser.

THE Queen of England, it appears, has ordered that the royal yacht, the Centennial, by the royal family, and any members thereof, shall be of course naturally and necessarily in attendance on the memory of George III.

THE old lady's idea of a gun "dangerous without lock, stock or barrel," would be modified by a sight of a gun presented to Samuel W. Wright, of Addison, by a young friend.

ONE of the heralds staff dropped in the other evening on a party goodly and cheerful, one another sharp things about going, "Sally River" and the other about coming down.

THE poor fellow always with you, who is engaged in teaching at the office of the Herald, even in the winter, is yielding a ready answer.

THERE was a taffy pulling at the night, John Emly, who is walking along under the silent stars, a fact which might have been attributed to their great attraction.

THE young man, Robert and John Gumbel, are across state street, by Burgess Smith, John Weil and J. E. Coleman, and are now in jail.
