There seems to be much distress prevailing among the laboring classes in Luzerne county, and other adjacent portions of the coal and iron regions. Nearly all the iron furnaces and foundries are either idle or working only on partial time, and this, together on partial time, and this, together on partial time, and this, together on possession of young New York.

There is prevailing among the laboring classes silver. What do you think of that? One man paying $2,000 for overmeats, cakes, bread, butter, and every other possible thing to eat, piled up before the doors of the charities—all the free gifts of citizens, and unsolicited, except by the usual announcements in the newspapers. There is some good in humanity yet.
