

Our representatives have been placed on the following committees by the Speaker of the House...

The Legislature of Nebraska has elected Hon. A. S. Paddock, a staunch Republican, to the U. S. Senate, in place of the blitherskite Tipton.

The new Democratic Mayor of the city of New York has selected as his secretary the late private secretary of his Excellency Jefferson Davis...

Is the U. S. Senate last week Mr. Logan made a sharp hit in reply to the fierce denunciations of Gen. Sheridan's despatch to the President...

Two years since Carl Schurz loaned himself to the Democrats, in their attempt to divide and overthrow the Republican party by running Horace Greeley for President...

Like the Irishman at Doonyclooney fair who, whenever he saw a head in it—so the Democrats by a similar ruse, whenever they spot a rebel...

The sub-Committee of Congress, that spent eight days in New Orleans, investigating the state of affairs in Louisiana, report that everything is lovely in that political Eden...

At last the agony is over, and William A. Wallace is elected to represent Pennsylvania in the United States Senate, for six years...

While Northern Democratic orators and journals are howling over the oppressions of the South, and the denial of their rights to the Southern people, it is a fact worthy of note...

Two classes of voters, the "moral reformers" and the "temperance reformers," both of whom gave their aid to the success of the Democracy last fall, are receiving their reward...

The attention of all our readers is invited to the message of the President on Louisiana affairs, published on our first page.

There has been much bitter denunciation of Grant and Sheridan's course in Louisiana by the Democrats, and much windy criticism of it by "great lawyers" like Wm. M. Everts...

Just now, while the Democrats are holding up their hands in affected horror over the action of General Emory in preventing a mob from assuming the functions of a Legislature in Louisiana...

The N. Y. Tribune has constituted itself a censor of our public men, and its "editor in chief"—Walter Reid—imagines himself a veritable Warwick.

While the members of the Legislature were in their respective halls waiting for the hour of session, to be called to order according to a previous adjournment...

At the close of the day, Mr. Logan made a sharp hit in reply to the fierce denunciations of Gen. Sheridan's despatch to the President...

The sub-Committee of Congress, that spent eight days in New Orleans, investigating the state of affairs in Louisiana, report that everything is lovely in that political Eden...

At last the agony is over, and William A. Wallace is elected to represent Pennsylvania in the United States Senate, for six years...

While Northern Democratic orators and journals are howling over the oppressions of the South, and the denial of their rights to the Southern people, it is a fact worthy of note...

Two classes of voters, the "moral reformers" and the "temperance reformers," both of whom gave their aid to the success of the Democracy last fall, are receiving their reward...

There has been much bitter denunciation of Grant and Sheridan's course in Louisiana by the Democrats, and much windy criticism of it by "great lawyers" like Wm. M. Everts...

Just now, while the Democrats are holding up their hands in affected horror over the action of General Emory in preventing a mob from assuming the functions of a Legislature in Louisiana...

The N. Y. Tribune has constituted itself a censor of our public men, and its "editor in chief"—Walter Reid—imagines himself a veritable Warwick.

While the members of the Legislature were in their respective halls waiting for the hour of session, to be called to order according to a previous adjournment...

At the close of the day, Mr. Logan made a sharp hit in reply to the fierce denunciations of Gen. Sheridan's despatch to the President...

The sub-Committee of Congress, that spent eight days in New Orleans, investigating the state of affairs in Louisiana, report that everything is lovely in that political Eden...

At last the agony is over, and William A. Wallace is elected to represent Pennsylvania in the United States Senate, for six years...

While Northern Democratic orators and journals are howling over the oppressions of the South, and the denial of their rights to the Southern people, it is a fact worthy of note...

Two classes of voters, the "moral reformers" and the "temperance reformers," both of whom gave their aid to the success of the Democracy last fall, are receiving their reward...

There has been much bitter denunciation of Grant and Sheridan's course in Louisiana by the Democrats, and much windy criticism of it by "great lawyers" like Wm. M. Everts...

Just now, while the Democrats are holding up their hands in affected horror over the action of General Emory in preventing a mob from assuming the functions of a Legislature in Louisiana...

The N. Y. Tribune has constituted itself a censor of our public men, and its "editor in chief"—Walter Reid—imagines himself a veritable Warwick.

While the members of the Legislature were in their respective halls waiting for the hour of session, to be called to order according to a previous adjournment...

At the close of the day, Mr. Logan made a sharp hit in reply to the fierce denunciations of Gen. Sheridan's despatch to the President...

The sub-Committee of Congress, that spent eight days in New Orleans, investigating the state of affairs in Louisiana, report that everything is lovely in that political Eden...

At last the agony is over, and William A. Wallace is elected to represent Pennsylvania in the United States Senate, for six years...

While Northern Democratic orators and journals are howling over the oppressions of the South, and the denial of their rights to the Southern people, it is a fact worthy of note...

Two classes of voters, the "moral reformers" and the "temperance reformers," both of whom gave their aid to the success of the Democracy last fall, are receiving their reward...

There has been much bitter denunciation of Grant and Sheridan's course in Louisiana by the Democrats, and much windy criticism of it by "great lawyers" like Wm. M. Everts...

Just now, while the Democrats are holding up their hands in affected horror over the action of General Emory in preventing a mob from assuming the functions of a Legislature in Louisiana...

The N. Y. Tribune has constituted itself a censor of our public men, and its "editor in chief"—Walter Reid—imagines himself a veritable Warwick.

While the members of the Legislature were in their respective halls waiting for the hour of session, to be called to order according to a previous adjournment...

At the close of the day, Mr. Logan made a sharp hit in reply to the fierce denunciations of Gen. Sheridan's despatch to the President...

The sub-Committee of Congress, that spent eight days in New Orleans, investigating the state of affairs in Louisiana, report that everything is lovely in that political Eden...

At last the agony is over, and William A. Wallace is elected to represent Pennsylvania in the United States Senate, for six years...

While Northern Democratic orators and journals are howling over the oppressions of the South, and the denial of their rights to the Southern people, it is a fact worthy of note...

Two classes of voters, the "moral reformers" and the "temperance reformers," both of whom gave their aid to the success of the Democracy last fall, are receiving their reward...

There has been much bitter denunciation of Grant and Sheridan's course in Louisiana by the Democrats, and much windy criticism of it by "great lawyers" like Wm. M. Everts...

Just now, while the Democrats are holding up their hands in affected horror over the action of General Emory in preventing a mob from assuming the functions of a Legislature in Louisiana...

The N. Y. Tribune has constituted itself a censor of our public men, and its "editor in chief"—Walter Reid—imagines himself a veritable Warwick.

While the members of the Legislature were in their respective halls waiting for the hour of session, to be called to order according to a previous adjournment...

At the close of the day, Mr. Logan made a sharp hit in reply to the fierce denunciations of Gen. Sheridan's despatch to the President...

The sub-Committee of Congress, that spent eight days in New Orleans, investigating the state of affairs in Louisiana, report that everything is lovely in that political Eden...

At last the agony is over, and William A. Wallace is elected to represent Pennsylvania in the United States Senate, for six years...

While Northern Democratic orators and journals are howling over the oppressions of the South, and the denial of their rights to the Southern people, it is a fact worthy of note...

Two classes of voters, the "moral reformers" and the "temperance reformers," both of whom gave their aid to the success of the Democracy last fall, are receiving their reward...

There has been much bitter denunciation of Grant and Sheridan's course in Louisiana by the Democrats, and much windy criticism of it by "great lawyers" like Wm. M. Everts...

Just now, while the Democrats are holding up their hands in affected horror over the action of General Emory in preventing a mob from assuming the functions of a Legislature in Louisiana...

The N. Y. Tribune has constituted itself a censor of our public men, and its "editor in chief"—Walter Reid—imagines himself a veritable Warwick.

While the members of the Legislature were in their respective halls waiting for the hour of session, to be called to order according to a previous adjournment...

At the close of the day, Mr. Logan made a sharp hit in reply to the fierce denunciations of Gen. Sheridan's despatch to the President...

The sub-Committee of Congress, that spent eight days in New Orleans, investigating the state of affairs in Louisiana, report that everything is lovely in that political Eden...

At last the agony is over, and William A. Wallace is elected to represent Pennsylvania in the United States Senate, for six years...

While Northern Democratic orators and journals are howling over the oppressions of the South, and the denial of their rights to the Southern people, it is a fact worthy of note...

Two classes of voters, the "moral reformers" and the "temperance reformers," both of whom gave their aid to the success of the Democracy last fall, are receiving their reward...

There has been much bitter denunciation of Grant and Sheridan's course in Louisiana by the Democrats, and much windy criticism of it by "great lawyers" like Wm. M. Everts...

Just now, while the Democrats are holding up their hands in affected horror over the action of General Emory in preventing a mob from assuming the functions of a Legislature in Louisiana...

The N. Y. Tribune has constituted itself a censor of our public men, and its "editor in chief"—Walter Reid—imagines himself a veritable Warwick.

While the members of the Legislature were in their respective halls waiting for the hour of session, to be called to order according to a previous adjournment...

At the close of the day, Mr. Logan made a sharp hit in reply to the fierce denunciations of Gen. Sheridan's despatch to the President...

The sub-Committee of Congress, that spent eight days in New Orleans, investigating the state of affairs in Louisiana, report that everything is lovely in that political Eden...

At last the agony is over, and William A. Wallace is elected to represent Pennsylvania in the United States Senate, for six years...

While Northern Democratic orators and journals are howling over the oppressions of the South, and the denial of their rights to the Southern people, it is a fact worthy of note...

Two classes of voters, the "moral reformers" and the "temperance reformers," both of whom gave their aid to the success of the Democracy last fall, are receiving their reward...

THE BALTIMORE DAILY AMERICAN. Weekly American. 1773-Over One Hundred Years Old. CIRCULATION OVER 35,000.

THE BALTIMORE AMERICAN. THE BALTIMORE DAILY AMERICAN. Weekly American. 1773-Over One Hundred Years Old. CIRCULATION OVER 35,000.

THE BALTIMORE AMERICAN. THE BALTIMORE DAILY AMERICAN. Weekly American. 1773-Over One Hundred Years Old. CIRCULATION OVER 35,000.

THE BALTIMORE AMERICAN. THE BALTIMORE DAILY AMERICAN. Weekly American. 1773-Over One Hundred Years Old. CIRCULATION OVER 35,000.

THE BALTIMORE AMERICAN. THE BALTIMORE DAILY AMERICAN. Weekly American. 1773-Over One Hundred Years Old. CIRCULATION OVER 35,000.

THE BALTIMORE AMERICAN. THE BALTIMORE DAILY AMERICAN. Weekly American. 1773-Over One Hundred Years Old. CIRCULATION OVER 35,000.

THE BALTIMORE AMERICAN. THE BALTIMORE DAILY AMERICAN. Weekly American. 1773-Over One Hundred Years Old. CIRCULATION OVER 35,000.

THE BALTIMORE AMERICAN. THE BALTIMORE DAILY AMERICAN. Weekly American. 1773-Over One Hundred Years Old. CIRCULATION OVER 35,000.

THE BALTIMORE AMERICAN. THE BALTIMORE DAILY AMERICAN. Weekly American. 1773-Over One Hundred Years Old. CIRCULATION OVER 35,000.

Chas. C. Fulton & Son, AMERICAN OFFICE, BALTIMORE, MD.