

NIGHT AND MORNING

It was a wild, windy night, and the light snow filled the air with fine, cutting particles—a night when a good fire and the society of a man's comfort and happiness were more than necessary.

had never seen the rich man, his business being principally by an agent. He had no doubt that his visitor was none other than Mr. Morgan.

Some Hints About Tree Planting. As it is now time to be planting trees, a few suggestions of mine may not come amiss.

A New Dodge. We have frequently had occasion to warn patentees against the persistent efforts of designing persons in all parts of the country to abstract money from their pockets under various pretexts.

A Sailor in Constantinople. The captain came down and called out that if I wanted to go up town to come along.
