Mr. PERSHING is the Democratic nominee for Governor of Pennsylvania...

It was loudly announced at Erie that this was to be an aggressive campaign on the part of the Democracy...

That able and highly conservative journal, the Baltimore American, speaking of the canvass in this State, says:

The professed "hard money" Democracy is endeavoring to make a question in Pennsylvania...

It is most remarkable how suddenly the Democracy have discovered the good qualities of Governor Hartrant...

Why this sudden marvelous change of tone? Is it because the discovery of the honesty and worth of Hartrant has just been made?

That the ancient copperheads and sympathizers with the late rebellion, who now have control of and are running the Democratic party in Ohio and Pennsylvania...

It is the pledged faith of the Government that alone gives credit and value to our currency...

The Democratic State Convention of New York which assembled at Syracuse on Thursday last, gave the rag baby of their Ohio and Pennsylvania brothers a stinging slap in the face...
