apt to have conceit enough to make up the deficiency...

The pictures were but delusions; the castles had dungeons beneath them...

I would have given all that I had rather than see his life thus broken; but I could do nothing. He came to me that night...

As I said before, I was Tom's best man; when they were married, and when they were christened...

And although the road to the north and south was deep, and the water crossed...

How deep were the waters crossed; how deep were the waters crossed...
