An Important Fact.

The voluntary testimony of thousands establishes beyond all doubt a fact of vital importance to the sick and debilitated, viz., that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is an absolute specific for remittent and intermittent fever, dyspepsia, constipation, biliousness, mental depression, sleeplessness, chronic diarrhœa, and all diseases of the stomach, liver and bowels. The unmedicated stimulants usually prescribed in these cases only aggravate the symptoms, instead of removing them. The Bitters, on the contrary, act as a corrective and invigorant, without producing the unpleasant and dangerous consequences of the old school practice. The action is mild and soothing to the irritated stomach and bowels, promoting digestion and preventing flatulence, nausea, headache and all intestinal irregularities. A wineglassful before meals greatly assists digestion.—The convalescent may use them with great benefit, as a means of restoring strength and cheerfulness.

THE pants of the period are wide and straight, with no spring over the ankle.—Exchange.

BUY New Goods for Cash at "Fashion Bazar."

THOSE who go forth into the woods and country lanes for the purpose of gathering the brilliant-hued leaves that are showered by the fall breezes, now term it "autumnal leaf parties."

CASH system commences Nov. 1st, next, at Mrs. Jas. B. Tredwell's!

EXAMINE your ticket carefully before voting it. The Democrats have circulated a large number of tickets which contain the names of all but one of the Republican candidates.

LOOK out for bogus tickets. The Democrats have flooded the county with them.

A boy was sent for a doctor, his mother being very ill, when, looking down the street, he saw a great crowd. Then came a struggle between duty and curiosity; but he finally started for the crowd, saying, The old lady's badly off but I know she wouldn't want me to miss that fight.

PAY Cash and buy goods cheap at Mrs. Jas. B. Tredwell's "Fashion Bazar."

SHEET music for nothing. Every visitor to the Pittsburgh Exposition who will present a copy of this notice at Sheib's music store, 70 Fifth avenue, will receive in exchange for it, a copy of the popular song, "A Letter in the Candle," or a nice piece of Piano or Organ music.

C. & G. Holdarbaum have received a very nice lot of Ladies Hats; very latest styles.

For Germantown Wool, knitting Yarns, Alexander and Jouvoin Kids, Ladies Berlin Gauntlets and Gloves, gent's riding and dress Gloves, fancy silk Handkerchiefs, ladies and gent's Neck Wear, plain and fancy Hose, Hamburg and Lace Edgings, jet, pearl, and silk Buttons, working Cottons, and all variety of Notions, "Royal Victoria Alpaces" call at

G. R. PARKER'S.

LADIES' sandals at 50 cents, to be had at Walter & Truxal's cheap store.

THE store of Mr. Sanner Wilson at Garrett, was entered by burglars on Friday night last. An entrance was effected by breaking a pane of glass in one of the windows. Mr. Wilson is minus a suit of clothes, an overcoat, all the change that was in the till, and a number of other articles. It is to be hoped that the thief will be captured and brought to speedy justice.

AFTER Nov. 1st, next, no goods sold on credit at "Fashion Bazar."

THE school house at Pocahontas, this county, was fired by some scamps on Friday night last. An apple butter boiling was being held at the house of Mr. I. J. Baer at the time and fortunately the fire was discovered by the persons assembled there in time to quench it before any great damage was done. There has been three school houses burned down in this township (Greenville) within the past few years, all like this being set afire.

A SPLENDID lot of new goods will soon arrive at Walter & Truxal's Cash and Produce Store.

WARTS are very troublesome and disfiguring. The following is a perfect cure, even of the largest, without leaving any scar. It is a Frenchman's prescription, and has been tested by the writer: Take a small piece of raw beef, steep it all night in vinegar, cut as much from it as will cover the wart, and put it on; if the excrescence is on the forehead, fasten it on with strips of sticking plaster. It may be removed in the day and put on every night. In one fortnight the wart will die and peel off. The same prescription will cure corns.

Horses boarded Cash only at "Boston Bazar," after Nov. 1st, next.

"CASH prices are the lowest Prices," is the motto of M'Farland, Collins & Co., Carpet Dealers, No. 101 Fifth avenue, Pittsburgh, for the fall of 1875. Cash from consumers is the economical, safe and satisfactory principle of trade, and works to the advantage of buyers and sellers alike. In buying from this house for cash, you do not have to contribute to pay other people's bad debts, which the paying customers of a house must do, in one way or another, where a general credit business is done.

SALT can be had at Gebhart's for $2 per barrel.

Caught and Caged.

The simple story is told by the Pittsburgh Telegraph thus: Mr. J. O. Allen is a Latrobe nursery man, and J. W. Anderson was his agent. Anderson was to be paid a percentage he sent in a large number of bogus orders, and punctually drew the percentage. In a short time Allen discovered the character of the orders, and about the same time received a penitent epistle from Anderson, enclosing a schedule of the bogus orders, and stating that he was going to the Black Hills, and that he would settle with Allen when he got rich. Allen was about to take his losses philosophically and abandon the case, when he heard that Anderson was yet in Pittsburgh. Accordingly he visited the city, secured the services of a detective. After receiving "plans and specifications" from the nursery man the detective sauntered out, and shortly met a six-footer, with bushy beard, No. 17 brogans, and otherwise answering the description. He cautiously moved up to the individual and asked him if his name was Holmes. "No," said the sharper, giving himself away, "my name is Anderson." "The very man I want," rejoined the officer, and the pair sauntered off to the Central Station, where the nursery agent was locked up to await developments.

Southampton Items.

The people of our township are in a terrible state of excitement on the subject of discovery. It has been ascertained that there are great quantities of minerals, such as nickel, iron ore, limestone, fireclay, coal, &c., and it is thought that there will be a large sale made ere long, for J. R. Brinham and Dr. Fechtig are expecting "the company" every day, and expect to make sale of the land in this part of the country.

We think pork will be very dear in this and adjoining States for there is a disease, something similar to the epizootic, among the hogs, sweeping them away wherever it goes, and it is feared there will be but few hogs survive it.

We are making preparations for a long and dreary winter, for it has already set in. We had a light snow on Saturday the 16th.

Crops look favorable this fall, although the summer crops were very poor.

One more word about the educational affairs of this neighborhood, and we will cease. The prospects for good schools are very poor in this place, for the directors are selling out the schools to the lowest bidder. They are paying from ten to twenty dollars per month to their teachers, and board can be had at from ten to twelve dollars per month.

HOFFMAN'S LETTER.

From time immemorial it has been the custom of churches to furnish departing brethren with letters of commendation, that strangers and others may take knowledge of the good standing of the ones who see fit to transfer their membership from one congregation or communion to another. We perceive that the Rev. Mr. Hoffman, rector of the Somerset branch of the Church of the New Dispensation, whereof the Right Rev. Petroleum V. Nasby is high priest, has not been forgetful to comply with the time-honored custom to which we refer. Our worthy townsman, A. J. Colborn, Esq., having for good and substantial reasons, known and approved of all except crazy inflationists, seen proper to take his membership out of the sect just mentioned, and connect himself with the great National Church called Republican, has received from the rector aforesaid a letter of recommendation, and so important did his dismissal appear in the eyes of the Reverend gentleman that he has even inserted this letter in his book of faith and discipline, which he publishes in weekly parts under the name of Somerset Democrat.

We sympathize with Mr. Hoffman in the great afflictions with which he and his brethren in political faith have been recently visited. Again the proverb has been verified that misfortunes never come singly.

The great apostasy in Ohio, the flood of wickedness that has overswept Iowa, Maine, Nebraska, New Mexico, North Carolina, Rhode Island, and New Hampshire, and the ominous cloud that overhangs Pennsylvania, are enough to make even hardened men shed oceans of tears.

Now to cap the climax of calamity, the wishiest member of Mr. Hoffman's political church in Somerset county seeks and obtains a letter of dismissal; if possible worse even than that, this recusant and departing brother goes out as a missionary for the opposite faith, which, embracing honest government, safe banking, and par currency, has always been accounted a vile heresy in the communion of the church of the New Dispensation whereof Nasby is high priest, and Hoffman an ever faithful and now lachrymose rector. No doubt as the latter weeps over the degeneracy and almost total depravity of these latter days, he feels as none but a pious, sensitive soul can.

"How tuffious and tasteless the hours."

OUTSIDER.

Republican Meetings.

Somerset County will come up to her Work.

We have received the following accounts of the Republican mass meetings held at the different points in the county:

CONFLUENCE, PA.
October 23, 1875.

A large and enthusiastic meeting was held in the school house at this place last night. The meeting was organized by the election of John A. Walker, President; T. S. Robinson and Thomas Kyler, Esqs., Vice Presidents; Thomas Beam and A. R. Humbert, Esqs., Secretaries. Addresses were made by Ed. B. Scull, A. J. Colborn, Esq., Hon W. H. Koontz and Hon. Ed. Scull. The school house was filled and order and harmony reigned. Confidence and surrounding country will do their duty on Tuesday next.

ELKLICK, PA.
October 22, 1875.

A Republican meeting was held here this afternoon in front of Daniel Barclays' hotel. Ed. B. Scull made the opening address, followed by A. J. Colborn, Esq. Mr. Colborn takes a strong position and gives ample and strong proof for his acting with the Republican party. His speech was listened to with marked attention by all. Hon. W. H. Koontz made the closing address. His explanation of the financial policy of the Republican party was such as could not fail to impress the most obtuse. F. J. Kooser and Ed. Scull, Esq., were present but did not speak. Elklick will come up to her work and give her usual handsome majority.

MEYERSDALE, PA.
October 23, 1875.

A very large Republican meeting was held here last night in Hocking's Hall. Quite a number of our prominent Democrats were in attendance. The organization was: S. D. Livengood, President; Michael Hady, W. S. Lichty, G. L. Beachly, John Berkley, Vice Presidents; and Dr. J. C. Yutzy, Secretary. Ed. B. Scull, the HERALD's local opened the meeting in a short address on the financial question. A. J. Colborn, a prominent Democrat for a number of years, following. Mr. Colborn made a lengthy and telling speech. Hon. W. H. Koontz then took the floor and made a forcible argument on the currency question. Meyersdale will give Hartranft a much larger vote on next Tuesday than she did three years ago. Ed. Scull and F. J. Kooser, Esqs., were present but owing to the lateness of the hour did not speak.

We annex the following from the Pittsburgh Commercial of Saturday:

GOOD NEWS FROM SOMERSET.

MEYERSDALE, PA.
October 22, 1875.

A large and enthusiastic meeting was held here this evening. Addresses were delivered by Hon. W. H. Koontz, Ed. Scull, Esq., and others. Mr. A. J. Colborn, a life long and prominent Democrat, also addressed the meeting, in which he refused to sustain the rag baby platform, and earnestly advocated Hartranft and hard money. Somerset county is aroused and ready for work.

SHANKSVILLE, PA.
October 25, 1875.

EDITOR HERALD.—A very large Republican meeting was held here on Saturday last. The Berlin Band was in attendance and discoursed sweet music. Speeches were made by Col. J. R. Edie, J. G. Ogle, E. M. Schrock, J. L. Pugh, and J. R. Scott, Esqs. Stonycreek will turn out on Tuesday next and roll up a tremendous majority for Hartranft.

MINERAL POINT, PA.
October 25, 1875.

EDITOR HERALD.—The first Republican meeting ever held in this place was held on Saturday last. John Critchfield, better known as "Grandpap Critchfield," acting as President. Dr. B. H. Fichtner, of Confluence made the opening speech. In his introductory Dr. Fichtner said that he had not tried to make a political speech for a number of years, and supposed he could not make one, but by the time he had finished the audience had concluded that he could make one and a good one at that. F. J. Kooser, Esq., Ed. B. Scull, and Hon. W. H. Koontz, also addressed the meeting. Old Milford will make a mighty effort to come up with such a majority as will astound the Democracy and surprise even Republicans.

A slight fire occurred at the residence of Mr. C. P. Heffley on Monday night by which a stand, some carpet and other articles were damaged. The fire was caused by the upseting of a coal oil lamp by one of Mr. H.'s children. Another argument in favor of gas.

KENNARD & OUDESLUYS sold the most Glades Butter last year, and obtained the best prices. They have the trade and facilities for doing the same again this year.

KENNARD & OUDESLUYS,

Baltimore.

HENRY NULL of Fairhope, this county, indulged in a good deal of whiskey on Saturday last, and laid down on the railroad track. After the express had passed they gathered up his fragments. A gentleman at Bridgeport kindly sends us a full account of the accident but we are compelled to put it into this condensed shape.

MARRIED.

MASON—MARTZ—Oct. 14, 1875, at the residence of brides parents, Fayette Co., Pa., by the Rev. W. A. Rimingor, Mr. Simon P. Mason, resident of Fayette Co., Pa., formerly of Somerset Co., Pa., to Miss Mary J. Martz, of Somerset Co., Penn'a.

RHOADS—CHORPENING.—On the 12th of October, by A. M. Whetstons, Jos. P. Rhoads to Miss Ellen M. Chorpening, both of Somerset Co, Pa.

BOYD—DAVIS.—On the 19th of Oct. by the same, John Boyd to Miss Susan Davis, all of Somerset.

MILLER—SAYLOR—On the 21st of Oct., 1875, by the Rev. A. M. Whetstone, Jeremiah Miller, to Miss Magdalene Saylor, all of Somerset County.

DIED.

SUSAN JOHNSON WEYAND has closed her companionship with man on earth for a higher and a nobler companionship with angels in heaven. Her career on earth was one of noble humility; her future will be that of a higher nobility. She lived the life of the righteous on earth, and her end was peace.

The subject of this notice was born in Berlin, in this county, on the 17th of April, 1808, and died in this borough on the 5th of October, 1875. From May, 1833, to the close of her life she lived in lawful wedlock and harmony with Daniel Weyand, her surviving husband. All through life her time was spent in doing good. In the family circle her example was ever wholesome and her virtues ever bright. Grace was manifest in all her actions, and as every tree is known by its fruit, hers is not of doubtful character. The graces which adorned her life live after her, to be seen and read in the clear light of day in various family circles radiating from the old homestead.

Sorrowing friends conveyed her body to the tomb to await the resurrection of the just.
