

GOVERNOR INGERSOLL, of Connecticut, has appointed ex-Governor English to fill the Senatorial seat vacated by the death of Mr. Ferry.

THE Centennial Committee on Opening Ceremonies have selected Wm. M. Everts as orator, and H. W. Longfellow as poet for the occasion.

AVERY, late chief clerk of the Internal Revenue department, has been convicted at St. Louis as a member of the Whisky ring.

THE Government sold the Philadelphia Navy Yard at public auction on Thursday last, and realized for it the sum of one million dollars.

THE attention of Senator Morton having been called to a despatch from Washington stating that he favored the repeal of the Specie Resumption act, he authorizes the statement that there is no truth whatever in the report.

FORTY-EIGHT of the Internal Revenue districts have just been abolished by order of Commissioner Pratt, acting in concurrence with the Secretary of the Treasury.

THE debt statement for November shows only a small decrease, the amount being $480,000. For the four preceding months the decrease was $10,291,000, or over two and one-quarter millions per month.

THE New York Tribune talks plainly to the Democracy about the money question, as follows: "The Republican party in its national convention has taken a creditable position on that question, even when it has erred on others.

THE New York Tribune, referring to the St. Louis whisky ring developments, says that "no attempt to fasten some stain of complicity upon the President himself is wholly unwarranted by the facts thus far disclosed.

THE first session of the forty-fourth Congress commenced on Monday last (6th). This will be the long session and will probably run into July.

mitted a freedom of movement which made his imprisonment merely formal. Accompanied by the Warden of the jail and an assistant, he has been in the habit of visiting his friends, taking his daily meals, and passing much of the time with his family at their house in Madison avenue.

THE death of Boss Tweed, the chief of the Tammany ring, has been the subject of much speculation. It is now generally believed that he died of a brain fever, which was the result of a long and arduous career.

or some such matter; but it is true nevertheless, and nothing keeps their hands down but the shadow of the gallows tree—a bounty tree for this locality. Now, here is a substantial fact: up to the time of the swift conviction and sentence of the prisoner, he was discovered, early last Friday morning, in time to prevent a great loss of property and probably of life.

I propose in future letters, to give some account of the dangerous careers of this city, with their attendant acts of living, including some curious facts, the result of my own observation. It seems a queer sort of thing that a man should carry on burglarious as a trade during a long life and die at last, only to be glorified as a saint.

There's a sweet little cherub that sits up aloft, To keep watch, for the life of poor Jack. So runs the stout old English sea-song of Thomas Dibden, but surely that attitudinizing wretched sailor is not the man who is so glorified as a saint.
