

The Committee on Elections of the National House of Representatives has only seven cases of contested seats, as far as heard from, to act upon.

The Republican State Convention of Wisconsin, on Tuesday of last week, declared its preference for Mr. Blaine as our next Presidential candidate.

The State Legislature has been in session about seven weeks and has only passed finally about three bills, and one of them was for the purpose of enabling the members to draw their own pay.

EX-SENATOR HARLAN has written a letter in which he notes with great satisfaction the wonderful development of the freedmen, saying that during the past ten years no other equal number of people anywhere on the earth's surface have made such rapid advancement in knowledge, in civilization, and refinement, and in the acquisition of the means of domestic happiness and comfort.

HAMILTON'S exposure is bearing fruit. One Charles Wilson, a New Hampshire Democrat and clerk in the Treasury Department at Washington, was imprudent enough to express his approval of the assassination of President Lincoln.

The Democratic National Committee for the nomination of candidates for President and Vice President, has been called to meet at St. Louis on the 27th day of June next.

The Democratic Convention of Centre county has instructed its delegates to the National Convention to urge the nomination of Andrew G. Curtis for Vice President.

It looks as if the Centennial exhibition was going to attract a great many European visitors to this country during the coming summer.

THE DEMOCRATIC hard and soft money journals are killing each other most vigorously, and the prospect of the two factions assisting in their National Convention appears to be probable.

A correspondent writing from Harrisburg conveys the following intelligence of the sentiment of the Democracy touching the propriety of a short session.

AN enterprising individual has offered the Centennial Board of Finance the sum of fifty thousand dollars for the privilege of sweeping out the exhibition buildings, guaranteeing to pay all his help and keep the sixty odd acres of flooring in the building perfectly cleaned.

THE pendency of the Babcock trial has been filled with rumors of a disagreement in the Cabinet, and the press was daily laden with allegations that the President was going to dismiss Secretary Britton because of his vigorous prosecution of the whiskey thieves.

he permitted the prosecution to proceed. There is no doubt that a most determined effort was made to breed a breach between these officials by the thieves and their friends, hoping that if Britton could be driven from the Cabinet, they might thereby escape the penalty of their crimes, and so perpetrate these rumors invented and published, that a portion of the public was almost persuaded that they were true.

ANOTHER week gone, and the Democracy are no nearer harmonizing on the financial question than at the opening of Congress, three months since.

A New Hampshire editor asks, "Will the Democratic vote think? No. He will not. And that's what's the matter. Whenever a voter becomes independent enough to think he ceases to continue a Democratic voter."

THE trial of General Babcock was ended at St. Louis on Thursday last by an acquittal, the jury having unanimously agreed upon a verdict of "not guilty" after an absence of a few minutes. This was what every unprejudiced and fair-minded man anticipated.

At the outset Judge Dillon said that in all the propositions he had made he had the confidence of his associate on the bench, Judge Treat. He explained to the jury the importance of the case, and the reasons which had made it necessary to keep them so isolated.

THE first question required little attention as the arguments of counsel on both sides seemed to accept the existence of the conspiracy, and the second question, the connection of the defendant with the conspiracy, was then taken up.

THE government alleged as the only motive that of pecuniary gain. The evidence of Everett, who mailed the letter in which he thought Joyce paid $200,000, and the evidence of Magill, who testified taking from the letter box a similar letter, and returning it to Joyce, were considered, and the question of credibility was left to the jury.

THE charge having been read, the jury retired a few minutes past one o'clock.

AT twenty-five minutes past three the jury returned a verdict that they had agreed upon a verdict, and they were immediately returned to the court room.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—Upon the receipt of telegrams this afternoon announcing the acquittal of Gen. Babcock, President Grant, through his Secretary, Mr. Fish, sent a general hand-shaking, however, and Gen. Babcock crossed over to the jury and most heartily and feelingly shook the hand of each jurymen and thanked them for their verdict.

all others, will be controlled by an untried South. They are more than enough, and when they select they will own him, for they will select no man who is not in their hands. Should they succeed, during the term of four years of office, the man they select can manipulate the Supreme Court by retaining members and appointing others, and thus a decision that the Thirteenth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments were not constitutional. Then it follows that if the slaves were illegally made citizens, it was to be sure, they were illegally made to be citizens, they can vote no longer. These are some of the perils of the times, and it is the business of the people to know it, and to be prepared to meet it.

THE House met at 11 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Supplementary act to regulate the appointment of a special detective officer in any of the several counties of the Commonwealth. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

HARRISBURG. PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

SENATE. HARRISBURG, Feb. 21, 1876. The Senate met at half-past seven this evening. Lieutenant Governor Latta in the Chair. Bills on first reading occupied the evening, after which the Senate adjourned until tomorrow.

HOUSE. The House met at 7:30 P. M. The report of the Board on the State Lunatic Asylum was read. Letters, petitions, memorials, remonstrances, etc., were read and properly referred, as usual.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

State the power to appoint commissioners, with authority to take depositions. Bills on Third Reading—Relative to costs in criminal cases. Amended and laid over.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

At the revival services in the Methodist Episcopal Church, Mount Holly, on Wednesday evening, a most interesting and profitable meeting was held.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

At the revival services in the Methodist Episcopal Church, Mount Holly, on Wednesday evening, a most interesting and profitable meeting was held.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

At the revival services in the Methodist Episcopal Church, Mount Holly, on Wednesday evening, a most interesting and profitable meeting was held.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

At the revival services in the Methodist Episcopal Church, Mount Holly, on Wednesday evening, a most interesting and profitable meeting was held.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

At the revival services in the Methodist Episcopal Church, Mount Holly, on Wednesday evening, a most interesting and profitable meeting was held.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.

THE House met at 10 A. M. Bills on Third Reading—Act to regulate the publication of accounts and financial statements of corporations and individuals. Passed finally.