Tom Vincent's watch chain

Tom Vincent's watch chain; but what was my astonishment to find, on a second look, that I knew him. Why, sir, he was one of the cussiest horse thieves that infested the woods...

Pennsylvania's Choice

The voice of Pennsylvania was spoken yesterday at Harrisburg, and uttered no uncertain sound. John F. Hartranft was not only named as the choice of the Keystone State at Cincinnati, but every evidence that earnest friendship and determined devotion could display was heaped upon him by the representatives of the party...

A Phenomenal Infant

James Martin Williams, a beautiful little boy residing with his parents in the city, has lately given evidences of powers of memory that astounded every one. He is not yet 4 years old, and only learned his letters a few months since.

The Burial of a Centennial Pioneer

It is strange that, in country places at this time, uneducated people are so ignorant of the history of their own country. A clergyman's duties obligate him to spend so large a portion of his time in the open air, that with a little trouble he can soon learn a great deal.

Transplanting a Twenty-Ton Elm

The Chicago Journal of a recent date says: "We have heretofore mentioned the fact of the centennial offering which Mr. P. S. Peterson, of the Rosehill Nursery, intends to make to the city of Chicago by transplanting a fine 100-year-old elm tree from the grounds of Jefferson in Washington Park, on the North Side."

A Strange Funeral Procession

The Denver News says: A strange funeral procession arrived at Santa Fe, one day last week. There were twenty freight wagons in the procession, and each wagon was a hearse, loaded with the remains of soldiers in the different stages of decay.

A Wicked Town Editor

The Burlington Huckleberry says: The editor of the Shell Rock News, in this State, has just encountered a storm of wrath from the community because of a published article in which he had a few words to say about the town of Shell Rock.

Water Sheridan was one of a New York gang of robbers

Water Sheridan was one of a New York gang of robbers, who have just come to trial. He has had a long career of crime, and has been about run up his career, reckoning on the usual average of a criminal's professional life. He is forty-five years of age, and has figured in criminal records for many years.

Under the shade of a black wounded bluff

Under the shade of a black wounded bluff, in the Blue Ridge mountains in Chester village, N. Y., the remains of the world-famous Hambletonian were buried on Tuesday. The body, which had been covered with the blankets and robes and other stable gear that the horse had worn at his death, was included in a hearse and was borne to the grave on a stoneboat that was dragged at the heels of horses.

There is in Detroit a young man 24 years of age

There is in Detroit a young man 24 years of age, a native of England, who has never eaten a particle of flesh meat in any form. He has never eaten fish, potatoes or any kind of garden vegetables. When he attained the age of 12 years his parents made an effort to force him to eat meat, fish, and vegetables, and failing to do so at home sent him to a boarding school. Here the authorities, under the advice of physicians, thought it would be better to let him take an interest in the number of petals appertaining to each flower, they began to understand their multiplication table, and reading came to him as if he had been taught to read by a fairy.

The following is an excellent plan of setting a post for a gate or fence

The following is an excellent plan of setting a post for a gate or fence firmly in the ground: When the post hole is dug, a flat stone is laid in the bottom, against the side upon which the strain upon the post causes it to lean. The stone receives the pressure, and having a larger surface than the post, is not apt to work into the earth at times when it may be wet and soft.

Why is a young lady like a bill of exchange?

Why is a young lady like a bill of exchange? Because she ought to be settled when she arrives at maturity. Dandies and many-goats never fail to pride themselves upon their kids.

Can you see me, dearest?

Can you see me, dearest? said a Chicago man to his dying wife. "Tell me, can you see me?" "No," she faintly whispered. "But I can smell your breath."

Every married woman is personally acquainted with a man who will sit right alongside of a stove and let the fire go out.

Every married woman is personally acquainted with a man who will sit right alongside of a stove and let the fire go out. Jones believes in policemen, and thinks they are all-square men. "At any rate," he says they are never roared.
