SOMERSET, PA., WEDNESDAY, MAY 3, 1876.

Like a bell of blossom ringing "Yes " Clear and childish, shrill and sweet, Floating to the porch's shadow, With the fainter full of feet, Comes the answer softly backward, Bidding tender watcher wait. While the Baby Queen outruns her,

"Only going to the gate." Through the mosnlight, warm and scenied, Love to Beauty breather his sigh, Linguing, to leave reluctant, Loth to speak the low good-bye. Then the same low echo answers, Waiting love of older date, And the maiden whispers backward,

"Only going to the gate."

BY STREET, LYNN.

On these gates along our pathway, What they bur, outside and in! With the vague outlook beyond them, Over ways we have not been, How they stand before, behind us; Toll-gates some, with price to pay : Spring gates some, that shu: forever Cloud gates some, that melt away ! Just across their stender weavings Troth-biight happy hands have crossed;

Or its keys in night shade lost. Ower lanches, softly falling. Good by prayers have dropped like dew; Little gateways, softly shutting. Yet have cut a love in two. So we pass them going upward On our journey, one by one, To the distant shining wicket Where each traveler goes alone;

Yet its locks have rusted ruddy,

Where the friends who journey with us Strangely falter, stop and wait : Futher, mother, child or lover, "Only going to the gate." BARBARA'S ESCAPE
