"away" ... If Tilden were a thief or a perjurer the "circumstances would have been more generally known before now."

We know that the Dispatch is a "doubting Thomas." It scouted the Hamburg massacre until the proof was so overwhelming that it could no longer stand up against it.

The proof that brand Governor Tilden as a secessionist and traitor are gathering in volume and strength every day.

Mr. Thomas Field of New York-I am instructed, Mr. President, by the delegation representing Tammany Hall to present for the consideration of this convention an additional address and resolutions which were unanimously adopted by that delegation.

There was TILDEN as one of the Tammany delegation asking for a "peaceable separation" of the Union. That was all that the rebels of the South wanted.

There can be no more damning evidence than this, that he was a traitor to the Union in the day of its greatest peril, and the man who now votes for him with this secession record clinging to his skirts are voting that treason is not a crime.

The Cincinnati Enquirer (Dem.) is authority for the statement that GOVERNOR TILDEN has expended $20,000 for portraits for himself, to be scattered over the country as campaign arguments.

THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT ATTORNEY in Alabama has been instructed to bring suits for fraud and intimidation practiced during the late elections in Alabama.

get their property in the name of their wives, and propose to erect thereon such a cathedral as will make the Jewish Synagogue look small. It will cover an entire block, and will have everything known to ecclesiastical architecture that money can buy.

Speaking of religious denominations, the Catholics, who are by all odds the poorest of the denominations, can build the biggest churches and raise money the easiest.

San Francisco organized in one night a club of 1,500 Hayes invective, and the speakers at the meeting declared that in this campaign California would be the banner Republican State.

A young man named Powers, living in Lucas county, had a fever which he thought was the measles. The doctor treated the young man by filling him up to the eyes with whiskey.

Mark Twain has announced himself a Hayes man, and says he was won by the Governor's letter of acceptance. He was requested recently to attend a Tilden tea raising and "give notice."

All Democrats were not rebels, but all rebels were Democrats. The national debt was created in subjugation to rebellion.

The Tilden Committees have got their arrangements completed, and will commence operations at once. The States in which they are most active are Ohio and Indiana.

General Wade Hampton, the Democratic candidate for Governor of South Carolina, remarked in 1868: "I yield to none in devotion to that Lost Cause for which I fought."

Everybody agrees that Mr. YUTZY has represented us faithfully and satisfactorily in the Senate. He was always at his post. His record not only reflects credit upon himself but upon the party which he honored.

THE TRADES' UNIONS are being taxed to their utmost at this time, and their resources will be more severely tried as the season progresses.

John Jacob Astor, the son of William B. Astor, is arranging for a monument to his father, or rather the deceased Astor, which will have no parallel in this country.
