THE result of the elections held in the States of Ohio, Indiana, and West Virginia on Tuesday last, show most conclusively that if the Republicans use their advantages wisely, during the ensuing three weeks, that their Presidential ticket will be elected.

In Ohio the Republicans have elected their State ticket by majorities ranging from 7,000 to 10,000, have secured both branches of the Legislature, and have gained five and perhaps seven members of Congress. In the present Congress the delegation stands, thirteen Democrats to seven Republicans. In the next it will be, twelve Republicans to eight Democrats. This is a most substantial victory and secures the State to HAYES in November by at least 20,000 majority.

In Indiana, although the result is not quit so conclusive, the Republicans have much the best of the fight. They have cut down the Democratic majority of 17,000 to less than 5,000, and although they fail to elect their candidate for Governor, they have carried both branches of the Legislature, and have made a gain of four members of Congress. In this Congress the Democrats have nine members and the Republicans four, in the next the delegation will stand precisely reversed, nine Republicans to four Democrats.

HENDRICKS was placed on the Democratic ticket solely for the purpose of securing Indiana, and last Tuesday's election, shows the popular heart against him, and that he cannot secure the State to the Democracy in November.

West Virginia is of course, hopelessly Democratic, and no well informed politician anticipated any other result. Sufficient returns have not yet been received to show the probable majority.

We sum up the results of last Tuesdays elections as decidely favorable to HAYES, and as strongly indicative of a Republican majority in the next Congress. Beyond all doubt the Republicans can win in November if the detemine to do it, and we think that the doubt still hovering around Indiana will be a greater incentive to work, than if we had carried that State by a decided majority and thus have virtually settled the Presidential contest last week.

Republicans! the first great battle has been fought, and the victory is ours. Hold the fort. Don't sleep on your arms. Three weeks more and then the coming victory.

$678 854 222 is what the Republican party have paid off of the National debt, and now the Democratic party want to pay the Solid South $2,505,622 476 for reble claims.

VOTE the whole Republican County ticket. Each name on it deserves a hearty support, and there is strength in a solid, united vote.

THE Democrats are howling in frantic delight over the month's reprieve from death which they received last week. Had they lost Indiana their fate was surely sealed. They escaped by the "skin of their teeth," and are shouting in mad glee over the postponement of their doom for a month.

Last year the Republicans carried Ohio by about five thousand majority, and now they have nearly doubled it. Last year the Democrats had Indiana by nearly eighteen thousand majority, and now they have lost more than two-thirds of it. Which is the uppermost dog in the fight?

IT is a significant and instructive fact that at the election in Indiana last week, the Republicans made gains at the "home" polls, of both HENDRICKS and "Blue Jeans" WILLIAMS. These Democratic Statesman evidently do not improve on close acquaintance.

THE Democratic majority in the House was reduced at least twenty, probably twenty-four at the elections of last week, and twenty-four changes of a similar character will give the House to the Republicans. Pennsylvania and New York alone, will furnish more than half of the necessary quota.

THE fact that HOLMAN, the picayune demagogue, and LANEUS the apostle of unlimited greenbacks, were both badly beaten for Congress by Republicans, shows that Indiana is not assuredly anchored safely to HENDRICKS, who was placed on the Presidential ticket solely to secure that soft-money State.

LAST year the Democrats had 42 majority on joint ballot in the Indiana Legislature. Now, the Republicans have 9 over both Democrats and Independents. Truly this is a stunning Democratic victory. The exchange of a Legislature, and Congressional delegation for a pair of old blue jean breeches, is enough to make any Democrat "holler."

THE vote polled in Cincinnati last week is seven thousand greater than that of last year, when the fierce contest was made between HAYES and ALLEN for Governor. It is clear, that this increase is largely fraudulent, and as the two Democratic Congressmen from that district are reported as elected; one by three hundred, and the other by less than one hundred majority, the Republicans on a contest, will doubtless be awarded the seats.

THE Democrats did a tremendous amount of lying previous to the Ohio and Indiana elections, over the results in Maine and Colorado. They published a bogus dispatch from Maine claiming a reduction of the Republican majority to 11,000, while they persistently asserted that Colorado had gone Democratic. Now that the lies no longer serve their purpose it is admitted that the Republicans carried Maine by over 15,000, and that Colorado has voted the same way. Ananias could'nt hold a candle to the average Democratic politician, about election times.

A DEMOCRATIC majority of less than five thousand in Indiana, this year, where in 1874 the same party had a majority of 17,202 the election of four Congressmen where they had nine, and the election in Ohio of eight Congressmen where they had thirteen, the doubling of the Republican majority in the latter State, and the loss of the Legislature in both States is what the Democracy are shouting over as "a glorious victory." The rope broke, and the half strangled criminal yells with delight, over the few additional moments he is spared.

Now boys! pull off your coats and to work for General "JAKE" CAMPBELL. Ohio and Indiana have shown you how to "lay out" Democratic Congressmen. Remember that the House of Representatives holds the purse of the Nation, and that the rebel Democracy are straining frantically to gain in Congress what they lost in the field. A Democratic majority in the next Congress means the payment of the millions of rebel claims now on file at Washington. A vote for CAMPBELL is a vote in favor of your own pocket. The man who fought the rebels in the field, will not vote to pay for the loss they brought upon themselves.

HERE is a couple of the little bills, of the many thousands now before the House, which General CAMPBELL will vote against when he takes his seat in the next Congress.

Mr. Buckner, (Dem.) of Missouri, introduced the following little bill to pay one of his constituents:

Be it enacted, etc., That there be paid to G. R. Wilfred Marshall, out of any money in the Treasury not appropriated, the sum of $31,169, in full compensation for the use and occupation of his lands during the late war by the United States troops, and for property belonging to him taken and used by said troops.

Mr. Hooker of Mississippi introduced the following:

Be it enacted etc., That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and is hereby authorized and directed to cause to be paid to Consider Parish, of Hinds county, in the State of Mississippi, or to his order, out of such moneys remaining in the Treasury of the United States as are not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $10,058, to compensate him in full for thirty-eight bales of cotton, one two-horse wagon, one six-horse wagon, one large ox wagon, two large trunks, two suits of male clothing, six linen shirts, a quantity of male underclothing, etc., etc., stored on the premises of said Consider Parish, on the Tallahatchie River, in the then county of Sunflower (now Ledbet), by the Sixth Mississippi, then and there taken by and the same appropriated to the uses, purposes, and benefit of the United States.

Every TAXpayer in Somerset County who is anxious to pay his share of these, and thousands of similar claims, can express his desire, by voting against General CAMPBELL.

HERE is a piece of information taken from the Congressional Record of last session which largely interests the loyal people of the country. It shows definitely the Southern claims now before Congress:

The total sum proposed to be appropriated is $400,000 more than our entire National debt! and amounts to $2,503,622,386. The classification is as follows: Rebuilding levees on the Mississippi river, $5,250,000; rebuilding bridges in West Virginia, $200,000; refund of cotton tax $68,072,000; supplies used or destroyed, $1,205,163,000; use and occupation of property, $1,205,163; return of proceeds of captured property $9,000,000; refund and remission of direct tax, $5,153,886; disloyal mail contractors, $350,000; disloyal claimants, under the repeal of section 3240 of the Revised Statutes, $500,000 private relief bills, $4,770,500.

The mind can hardly grasp the atrocity of the proposition to pay this enormous sum to the beaten rebels, but the claims have been introduced and are now pending. That they will be forced through, if a Democratic President and a Democratic Congress is elected, admits of no doubt.

AWFUL EXPLOSION.

Bursting of the Boilers of a Rolling Mill.

Terrible Loss of Life.

PITTSBURG, PA., October 12.—At 8:45 o'clock this morning a terrible explosion occurred at Zug & Co.'s mills, corner of Thirteenth and Etna streets, which was attended with great loss of life. The boilers in the nail mill exploded, and that building and more than half of the rolling mill were demolished. A large number of employees were at work, and it is impossible to tell how many are buried in the ruins. The greatest excitement prevails. The buildings caught fire and the flames have not yet been extinguished. So far ten bodies have been taken from the ruins.

At the time of the explosion there were employed in the nailing department one hundred and fifty men and boys. The explosion literally tore the building to pieces. The roof was raised, and in falling it fortunately rested on the nail machines, enabling most of the workmen to crawl out and escape before the fire from the furnace caught the mass of the wreck. Owing to the excitement and confusion it is impossible to give an exact number of the killed and wounded The following is as near as can be obtained:

Killed, 19, wounded 22.

The scene on the outside in the vicinity of the works for a considerable distance were of the wildest and most heartrending character. The news of the explosion spread like wildfire through the city, and in a short time the people began to gather from all parts. Men, women and children who had relatives and friends in the establishment rushed frantically forward, and a scene of the wildest confusion followed. The police, with ropes extended across the streets, kept the surging crowd from interfering with the successful work of the fireman and their apparatus. The Chief of Police, with a large body of patrolmen, were kept busy in keeping back the crowd and assisting in carrying out the wounded and killed from under the debris.

The office of the works, on the corner of Etna street, opposite the mill where the explosion occurred, was considerably used up. The building was improvised into a temporary hospital, where the dead and wounded were carried. A large number of surgeons were promptly on the ground. The causes which led to this frightful calamity are as yet enveloped in mystery. The boilers were in charge of a careful engineer, and had been duly inspected before the works resumed operation some time ago.

LATER—3 P. M.—Three more have died from their injuries, and five others will doubtless die.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

Burning of a Steamboat on the Mississippi.

BATON ROUGE, October 10.—The steamboat Southern Belle was burned about 2 o'clock this morning two miles above Plaquemine, on the west bank of the river. The boat and cargo were totally destroyed, and several lives were lost.

The steamer Bertha took some of the passengers to New Orleans, while others returned here on the steamer Katie. Great credit is accorded the engineer and pilot Herbert for their efforts to land the boat during the burning.

NEW ORLEANS, October 11.—Many lives were lost by the burning of the steamboat Southern Belle. Among those known lost are Wm. Von Phul, Mr. Drose, Miss Fannie O'Conner, and another lady, all of Baton Rouge; Mr. Franks, of Port Hudson; Mr. Lingom; also Franks, an employee, and the steward and his crew. It is supposed that nearly all of those who were sleeping in the after part of the boat were burned to death, as after the fire had got fairly underway it was almost impossible to get at the bow of the boat, the only way of escape to the shore. The cargo consisted of from 500 to 800 bales of cotton. The boat was new, valued at $45,000, and insured for $30,000 mostly in New Orleans companies. Mr. E. Herbert, the pilot, held the bow of the boat against the bank until all who could had escaped. He then leaped from the pilot house to the lower deck, and was badly injured.

THE ELECTIONS.

Ohio Carried by the Republicans by a Majority of 10,000.

Twelve of the Twenty Congressmen elected are Republicans.

Indiana goes Democratic by a Meager Majority.

Healthy Gains in the Election of Members of Congress.

Every Indication That the State Will Go for Hayes and Wheeler in November.

Only Meager Returns from West Virginia.

OHIO.

COLUMBUS, October 12.—The Republican State Central Committee revised their returns, and now estimate Barnes' majority at 6,767. The fifty-two counties reported on Boynton, for Supreme Judge, indicate that the majority on the balance of the State ticket will reach 10,000. The Republicans have reversed the delegation in Congress probably, but this may not be absolutely certain. The Democrats claim that Van Vorhes is beaten in the Fifteenth district by W. W. Poston This is very wide of the Republican information, which gives Van Vorhes several hundred majority. The Democratic claims give them nine members, but probably they will have but seven. They expected to defeat Foster, and made great efforts, but he gained more than one hundred on his majority of two years ago. General J. D. Cox, defeats Hurd, which is a cause of great rejoicing. The districts which the Republicans have reclaimed are certainly the Third, Ninth, Eleventh, Seventeenth and Twentieth. The majorities cannot be given. The Democrats have elected the following Congressmen: Saylor, in the First district: Banning in the Second; Rice in the Fifth; Dickey in the Seventh; Ewing in the Twelfth; Southard in the Thirteenth; Finley in the Fourteenth. The Republicans have elected the following Congressmen: Gardiner in the Third district; Howard in the Fourth; Cox in the Sixth; Keifer in the Eighth; Jones in the Ninth; Foster in the Tenth; Neal in the Eleventh; Van Vorhes in the Fifteenth; Danford in the Sixteenth; McKinley in the Seventeenth; Monroe in the Eighteenth; Garfield in the Nineteenth, and Townsend in the Twentieth. The Republicans gain five Congressmen.

INDIANA.

INDIANAPOLIS, October 13.—We have returns from 89 counties, which give a net Democratic majority of 4,578. The same counties in 1872 gave a net Democratic majority of 845. The three counties to hear from gave Hendricks 303 majority.

INDIANAPOLIS, October 13.—Ninety-two counties, all of which are official except three or four, give Williams 4,719 majority. The counties not heard from are Perry and Spencer, which gave a Democratic majority in 1872 of 178. The Democrats claim this will be increased 400 or 500.

The following is the official and estimated majorities on the Congressional ticket: First District, Fuller, Democrat, (estimated) 1,500; Second, Cobb, Democrat, (estimated) 5,100; Fourth, Sexton, Republican, (official) 317; Fifth, Brown, Republican, (estimated) 1,600; Sixth, Robinson, Republican, (official) 302; Seventh, Hanna, Republican, (estimated) 1,600; Eighth, Hunter, Republican, (official) 1,080; Ninth, White, Republican, (official) 1,272; Tenth, Calkins, Republican, (official) 1,350; Eleventh, Evans, Republican, (estimated) 1,200; Twelfth, Hamilton, Democrat, (estimated) 6,400; Thirteenth, Baker, Republican, 2,300.

WEST VIRGINIA.

WHEELING, October 13.—Ohio county gives a Democratic majority of 189 on the vote for Governor.

Returns from the interior of the State still come in slowly. They generally show increased Democratic majorities, The State will probably go 12,000 Democratic Triple Murder in Maine.

BOSTON, October 14.—News of a probable triple murder has just been received from Buck-port, Maine. The victims are an aged man, named Trim, his daughter Mrs. Thayer, and her little girl. Trim's house and buildings were burned last night. His charred remains were found in the debris of the carriage house. A bloody trail was found leading from the house to the rear of the barn, and it is supposed that Mrs. Thayer and her daughter were murdered and the bodies dragged to the barn, though they have not been found. Mrs. Thayer was known to have eight hundred dollars in the house, and plunder is supposed to have been the incentive.

Later.—The community is intensely excited, and this morning turned out en masse to investigate and secure the murderer. Blood stains found on the road, a broken comb, some hair and other indications pointed to a struggle at that point, and by blood spots the trail was followed to the barn. During the afternoon the charred remains of Mrs Thayer were taken from the debris of the barn. The body of the child has not been discovered, though it is believed she was also murdered. She had been visiting a neighbor, and started home at 8 P. M. Since then nothing has been heard of her. The body of the old man was first found in the ruins of the carriage house. The murder was undoubtedly deliberately planned and the building burned with the expectation of concealment. The citizens scoured the country, and late this afternoon arrested at Hampden, Frank Lambers, against whom, it is said, the evidence is very strong. The feeling against him is intense, and it is thought probable he will be lynched before morning, capital punishment having been abolished in this State.

A Fatal Fight.

FORT RICHMOND, PA., October 14.—A sanguinary conflict between a number of tramps and drunken miners occurred this morning near Shamokin, in the Northumberland coal region. The fight lasted several hours, and resulted in the death of three participants—Nick Taylor, Joe Lardner and Geo. Goudy. The two former were tramps, and the latter a miner, who was until recently employed at one of the collieries of the Mineral Run Mining and Railroad Company at Sunbury. Some strikers from one of the mines in the district were also engaged in the riot. One of these John Dugar, otherwise known as "Big Bully," was thrown over an embankment along the Shamokin branch of the Northern Central railroad, and instantly killed by a passing train. Dugan was literally cut to pieces, the whole train of ninety heavily loaded coal cars passing over him. After the fight some of the party went to another part of the region near the Schuylkill county border, and committed numerous acts of violence.
