

THE "TEMPERANCE MEN" of this State are preparing for another crusade on the Legislature...

NEW ORLEANS is the power of armed revolutionists, and nothing but fear of Federal bayonets prevents her streets from being deluged with the blood of her Republican citizens...

OUR FIRST PAGE will be found the admirable message of Governor Harris, which we commend most heartily to our readers as a model state paper...

THE BOURN DEMOCRACY of Tennessee have just given an apt illustration of their idea of "reform" in the election of that notorious rebel and thief, ISHAM G. HARRIS to the U. S. Senate...

During the late Presidential canvass he was nominated as an elector at large, but owing to his peculiarly diabolical record he was compelled to withdraw his name...

On the 9th inst. the "wily" Democracy and the old copperhead element of the North, assembled in public meetings at Washington, Columbus, Indianapolis and several other points...

What a vast difference it makes as to whose ox is gored? It is commendable that Democrats should rise and declare their views, it is damnable effrontery for Republicans to do so...

As was manifest from the beginning, there will be no agreement between the conference committees of the two Houses in regard to the counting of the electoral vote.

The committee on part of the House was purposely constituted by Speaker Randall, as to preclude any agreement other than on basis that would concede Tilden's election.

But this is not all. It is further contended by these Democratic statesmen that the Senate has not the same power to object to the counting of the vote of a State, as is claimed for the House, or in other words, while the House may object to the counting of a vote, the Senate may not.

The Senate may well withdraw its portion of the committee and stand squarely on its constitutional and legal rights. The longer it tangles with such political knaves, the more outrageous their demands become.

more or less competent to pay. They have intrinsic value. But gold and silver coins are not only representatives of all forms of wealth, but they are also part of the aggregated wealth of the world...

The House Committees were appointed yesterday. Notwithstanding the outside talk that Mr. Hubbs and the other members of the committee would be left out in the cold, they were well provided for...

It is a remarkable fact that these periodic resolutions of retrenchment are always introduced by the outside members of the House...

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER. It has been rather a dull week in Washington. Its history is given in the title of a popular novel...

Two men have just been elected to the Senate of the United States for six years from the 4th of March 1871, by large majorities. James G. Blaine, of Maine, in his 47th year, and Isham G. Harris, of Tennessee, at least ten years older...

It is interesting to note that the Democratic and Independent journals and statesmen, over these peaceful assemblages of the people to declare their sentiments on public questions...

On the 10th inst. the Republicans of our State Legislature assembled themselves together, and declared their sentiments on the same public question, and mighty is the wrath of these same Democratic and Independent journals thereat.

What a vast difference it makes as to whose ox is gored? It is commendable that Democrats should rise and declare their views, it is damnable effrontery for Republicans to do so.

As was manifest from the beginning, there will be no agreement between the conference committees of the two Houses in regard to the counting of the electoral vote.

The committee on part of the House was purposely constituted by Speaker Randall, as to preclude any agreement other than on basis that would concede Tilden's election.

But this is not all. It is further contended by these Democratic statesmen that the Senate has not the same power to object to the counting of the vote of a State, as is claimed for the House, or in other words, while the House may object to the counting of a vote, the Senate may not.

The Senate may well withdraw its portion of the committee and stand squarely on its constitutional and legal rights. The longer it tangles with such political knaves, the more outrageous their demands become.

more or less competent to pay. They have intrinsic value. But gold and silver coins are not only representatives of all forms of wealth, but they are also part of the aggregated wealth of the world...

The House Committees were appointed yesterday. Notwithstanding the outside talk that Mr. Hubbs and the other members of the committee would be left out in the cold, they were well provided for...

It is a remarkable fact that these periodic resolutions of retrenchment are always introduced by the outside members of the House...

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER. It has been rather a dull week in Washington. Its history is given in the title of a popular novel...

Two men have just been elected to the Senate of the United States for six years from the 4th of March 1871, by large majorities. James G. Blaine, of Maine, in his 47th year, and Isham G. Harris, of Tennessee, at least ten years older...

It is interesting to note that the Democratic and Independent journals and statesmen, over these peaceful assemblages of the people to declare their sentiments on public questions...

On the 10th inst. the Republicans of our State Legislature assembled themselves together, and declared their sentiments on the same public question, and mighty is the wrath of these same Democratic and Independent journals thereat.

What a vast difference it makes as to whose ox is gored? It is commendable that Democrats should rise and declare their views, it is damnable effrontery for Republicans to do so.

As was manifest from the beginning, there will be no agreement between the conference committees of the two Houses in regard to the counting of the electoral vote.

The committee on part of the House was purposely constituted by Speaker Randall, as to preclude any agreement other than on basis that would concede Tilden's election.

But this is not all. It is further contended by these Democratic statesmen that the Senate has not the same power to object to the counting of the vote of a State, as is claimed for the House, or in other words, while the House may object to the counting of a vote, the Senate may not.

The Senate may well withdraw its portion of the committee and stand squarely on its constitutional and legal rights. The longer it tangles with such political knaves, the more outrageous their demands become.

more or less competent to pay. They have intrinsic value. But gold and silver coins are not only representatives of all forms of wealth, but they are also part of the aggregated wealth of the world...

The House Committees were appointed yesterday. Notwithstanding the outside talk that Mr. Hubbs and the other members of the committee would be left out in the cold, they were well provided for...

It is a remarkable fact that these periodic resolutions of retrenchment are always introduced by the outside members of the House...

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER. It has been rather a dull week in Washington. Its history is given in the title of a popular novel...

Two men have just been elected to the Senate of the United States for six years from the 4th of March 1871, by large majorities. James G. Blaine, of Maine, in his 47th year, and Isham G. Harris, of Tennessee, at least ten years older...

It is interesting to note that the Democratic and Independent journals and statesmen, over these peaceful assemblages of the people to declare their sentiments on public questions...

On the 10th inst. the Republicans of our State Legislature assembled themselves together, and declared their sentiments on the same public question, and mighty is the wrath of these same Democratic and Independent journals thereat.

What a vast difference it makes as to whose ox is gored? It is commendable that Democrats should rise and declare their views, it is damnable effrontery for Republicans to do so.

As was manifest from the beginning, there will be no agreement between the conference committees of the two Houses in regard to the counting of the electoral vote.

The committee on part of the House was purposely constituted by Speaker Randall, as to preclude any agreement other than on basis that would concede Tilden's election.

But this is not all. It is further contended by these Democratic statesmen that the Senate has not the same power to object to the counting of the vote of a State, as is claimed for the House, or in other words, while the House may object to the counting of a vote, the Senate may not.

The Senate may well withdraw its portion of the committee and stand squarely on its constitutional and legal rights. The longer it tangles with such political knaves, the more outrageous their demands become.

more or less competent to pay. They have intrinsic value. But gold and silver coins are not only representatives of all forms of wealth, but they are also part of the aggregated wealth of the world...

The House Committees were appointed yesterday. Notwithstanding the outside talk that Mr. Hubbs and the other members of the committee would be left out in the cold, they were well provided for...

It is a remarkable fact that these periodic resolutions of retrenchment are always introduced by the outside members of the House...

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER. It has been rather a dull week in Washington. Its history is given in the title of a popular novel...

Two men have just been elected to the Senate of the United States for six years from the 4th of March 1871, by large majorities. James G. Blaine, of Maine, in his 47th year, and Isham G. Harris, of Tennessee, at least ten years older...

It is interesting to note that the Democratic and Independent journals and statesmen, over these peaceful assemblages of the people to declare their sentiments on public questions...

On the 10th inst. the Republicans of our State Legislature assembled themselves together, and declared their sentiments on the same public question, and mighty is the wrath of these same Democratic and Independent journals thereat.

What a vast difference it makes as to whose ox is gored? It is commendable that Democrats should rise and declare their views, it is damnable effrontery for Republicans to do so.

As was manifest from the beginning, there will be no agreement between the conference committees of the two Houses in regard to the counting of the electoral vote.

The committee on part of the House was purposely constituted by Speaker Randall, as to preclude any agreement other than on basis that would concede Tilden's election.

But this is not all. It is further contended by these Democratic statesmen that the Senate has not the same power to object to the counting of the vote of a State, as is claimed for the House, or in other words, while the House may object to the counting of a vote, the Senate may not.

The Senate may well withdraw its portion of the committee and stand squarely on its constitutional and legal rights. The longer it tangles with such political knaves, the more outrageous their demands become.

STATE CAPITAL.

Proceedings of the Legislature. HARRISBURG, JANUARY 9, 1871. SENATE. The Senate was called to order at 7:30 p. m. Prayer was offered by Chaplain Holmes.

Also, a bill enabling married women to become corporate officers in corporations of the first class. By Mr. Jones, an act relating to Seventh Day Baptists, and providing for the execution of trusts by corporations.

By Mr. Lamon, an act prohibiting the use of fire and light on vessels where petroleum is stored for export. By Mr. Roebuck, a supplement to the act relating to the election of Aldermen and Justices.

By Mr. Greer, regulating the publication of legal notices. By Mr. McNeil, empowering the school boards of the State to cancel the bonds of the several districts in certain cases.

By Mr. Chapin, offering a resolution, which passed, that the sessions hereafter be held on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays from 11 until 1, and on Fridays from 10 until 12 noon, and on Mondays from 7:30 until 10 p. m.

By Mr. Jones, a further supplement to the act relating to Orphan's Courts passed March 29, 1852. Mr. Newmyer announced the Standing Committee. Among the bills pending on the calendar are the following: Constitutional Reform, Mr. Lawrence; Finance, Mr. McNeil; Judiciary, Mr. Butterfield; Erie; Corporations, Mr. Yutz; of Saner; Agricultural, Mr. Gilliland; Vice and Immorality, Mr. Wright; Mercer.

By Mr. Jones, a further supplement to the act relating to Orphan's Courts passed March 29, 1852. Mr. Newmyer announced the Standing Committee. Among the bills pending on the calendar are the following: Constitutional Reform, Mr. Lawrence; Finance, Mr. McNeil; Judiciary, Mr. Butterfield; Erie; Corporations, Mr. Yutz; of Saner; Agricultural, Mr. Gilliland; Vice and Immorality, Mr. Wright; Mercer.

By Mr. Jones, a further supplement to the act relating to Orphan's Courts passed March 29, 1852. Mr. Newmyer announced the Standing Committee. Among the bills pending on the calendar are the following: Constitutional Reform, Mr. Lawrence; Finance, Mr. McNeil; Judiciary, Mr. Butterfield; Erie; Corporations, Mr. Yutz; of Saner; Agricultural, Mr. Gilliland; Vice and Immorality, Mr. Wright; Mercer.

By Mr. Jones, a further supplement to the act relating to Orphan's Courts passed March 29, 1852. Mr. Newmyer announced the Standing Committee. Among the bills pending on the calendar are the following: Constitutional Reform, Mr. Lawrence; Finance, Mr. McNeil; Judiciary, Mr. Butterfield; Erie; Corporations, Mr. Yutz; of Saner; Agricultural, Mr. Gilliland; Vice and Immorality, Mr. Wright; Mercer.

By Mr. Jones, a further supplement to the act relating to Orphan's Courts passed March 29, 1852. Mr. Newmyer announced the Standing Committee. Among the bills pending on the calendar are the following: Constitutional Reform, Mr. Lawrence; Finance, Mr. McNeil; Judiciary, Mr. Butterfield; Erie; Corporations, Mr. Yutz; of Saner; Agricultural, Mr. Gilliland; Vice and Immorality, Mr. Wright; Mercer.

By Mr. Jones, a further supplement to the act relating to Orphan's Courts passed March 29, 1852. Mr. Newmyer announced the Standing Committee. Among the bills pending on the calendar are the following: Constitutional Reform, Mr. Lawrence; Finance, Mr. McNeil; Judiciary, Mr. Butterfield; Erie; Corporations, Mr. Yutz; of Saner; Agricultural, Mr. Gilliland; Vice and Immorality, Mr. Wright; Mercer.

By Mr. Jones, a further supplement to the act relating to Orphan's Courts passed March 29, 1852. Mr. Newmyer announced the Standing Committee. Among the bills pending on the calendar are the following: Constitutional Reform, Mr. Lawrence; Finance, Mr. McNeil; Judiciary, Mr. Butterfield; Erie; Corporations, Mr. Yutz; of Saner; Agricultural, Mr. Gilliland; Vice and Immorality, Mr. Wright; Mercer.

By Mr. Jones, a further supplement to the act relating to Orphan's Courts passed March 29, 1852. Mr. Newmyer announced the Standing Committee. Among the bills pending on the calendar are the following: Constitutional Reform, Mr. Lawrence; Finance, Mr. McNeil; Judiciary, Mr. Butterfield; Erie; Corporations, Mr. Yutz; of Saner; Agricultural, Mr. Gilliland; Vice and Immorality, Mr. Wright; Mercer.

By Mr. Jones, a further supplement to the act relating to Orphan's Courts passed March 29, 1852. Mr. Newmyer announced the Standing Committee. Among the bills pending on the calendar are the following: Constitutional Reform, Mr. Lawrence; Finance, Mr. McNeil; Judiciary, Mr. Butterfield; Erie; Corporations, Mr. Yutz; of Saner; Agricultural, Mr. Gilliland; Vice and Immorality, Mr. Wright; Mercer.

By Mr. Jones, a further supplement to the act relating to Orphan's Courts passed March 29, 1852. Mr. Newmyer announced the Standing Committee. Among the bills pending on the calendar are the following: Constitutional Reform, Mr. Lawrence; Finance, Mr. McNeil; Judiciary, Mr. Butterfield; Erie; Corporations, Mr. Yutz; of Saner; Agricultural, Mr. Gilliland; Vice and Immorality, Mr. Wright; Mercer.

By Mr. Jones, a further supplement to the act relating to Orphan's Courts passed March 29, 1852. Mr. Newmyer announced the Standing Committee. Among the bills pending on the calendar are the following: Constitutional Reform, Mr. Lawrence; Finance, Mr. McNeil; Judiciary, Mr. Butterfield; Erie; Corporations, Mr. Yutz; of Saner; Agricultural, Mr. Gilliland; Vice and Immorality, Mr. Wright; Mercer.

LOUISIANA.

A BLOODLESS REVOLUTION. Nicholls' White League Militia Take the Field. They seize the Supreme Court Rooms and Police Stations. Packard Still Holds the State House. Not a Shot Fired or a Blow Struck. The U. S. Troops Quiet Spectators.

NEW ORLEANS, JANUARY 9.—At 6 o'clock the members of the White League, which has been mustered in by the Nicholls government as militia, are assembling with arms at Lafayette Square with the avowed purpose of maintaining the Superior Court abolished by the Kellogg government.

At 8 o'clock (about 8:30 o'clock) the streets are filled with men hurrying to Lafayette Square, where orders are dashing about on horseback, presenting all the phases of an army on the eve of battle. Armed men are reported to the Sheriff, whose purpose, it is stated, is to take possession of the Supreme Court room, now in charge of the Metropolitan police, and install Nicholls' newly appointed judges of the Supreme Court.

At 11:30 o'clock the militia took possession of the Supreme Court building and installed the judges. All police stations are in the possession of the Nicholls government. Not a gun was fired, and no shots were heard. A reporter of the Picayune this morning visited General Angur, and ascertained that all the officers and men were under strict orders and prepared to take the streets in a moment.

At 11:30 Nicholls' militia took possession of the Supreme Court building and installed the judges. All police stations are in the possession of the Nicholls government. Not a gun was fired, and no shots were heard. A reporter of the Picayune this morning visited General Angur, and ascertained that all the officers and men were under strict orders and prepared to take the streets in a moment.

At 11:30 Nicholls' militia took possession of the Supreme Court building and installed the judges. All police stations are in the possession of the Nicholls government. Not a gun was fired, and no shots were heard. A reporter of the Picayune this morning visited General Angur, and ascertained that all the officers and men were under strict orders and prepared to take the streets in a moment.

At 11:30 Nicholls' militia took possession of the Supreme Court building and installed the judges. All police stations are in the possession of the Nicholls government. Not a gun was fired, and no shots were heard. A reporter of the Picayune this morning visited General Angur, and ascertained that all the officers and men were under strict orders and prepared to take the streets in a moment.

LOUISIANA.

A BLOODLESS REVOLUTION. Nicholls' White League Militia Take the Field. They seize the Supreme Court Rooms and Police Stations. Packard Still Holds the State House. Not a Shot Fired or a Blow Struck. The U. S. Troops Quiet Spectators.

NEW ORLEANS, JANUARY 9.—At 6 o'clock the members of the White League, which has been mustered in by the Nicholls government as militia, are assembling with arms at Lafayette Square with the avowed purpose of maintaining the Superior Court abolished by the Kellogg government.

At 8 o'clock (about 8:30 o'clock) the streets are filled with men hurrying to Lafayette Square, where orders are dashing about on horseback, presenting all the phases of an army on the eve of battle. Armed men are reported to the Sheriff, whose purpose, it is stated, is to take possession of the Supreme Court room, now in charge of the Metropolitan police, and install Nicholls' newly appointed judges of the Supreme Court.

At 11:30 o'clock the militia took possession of the Supreme Court building and installed the judges. All police stations are in the possession of the Nicholls government. Not a gun was fired, and no shots were heard. A reporter of the Picayune this morning visited General Angur, and ascertained that all the officers and men were under strict orders and prepared to take the streets in a moment.

At 11:30 Nicholls' militia took possession of the Supreme Court building and installed the judges. All police stations are in the possession of the Nicholls government. Not a gun was fired, and no shots were heard. A reporter of the Picayune this morning visited General Angur, and ascertained that all the officers and men were under strict orders and prepared to take the streets in a moment.

At 11:30 Nicholls' militia took possession of the Supreme Court building and installed the judges. All police stations are in the possession of the Nicholls government. Not a gun was fired, and no shots were heard. A reporter of the Picayune this morning visited General Angur, and ascertained that all the officers and men were under strict orders and prepared to take the streets in a moment.

At 11:30 Nicholls' militia took possession of the Supreme Court building and installed the judges. All police stations are in the possession of the Nicholls government. Not a gun was fired, and no shots were heard. A reporter of the Picayune this morning visited General Angur, and ascertained that all the officers and men were under strict orders and prepared to take the streets in a moment.

LOUISIANA.

A BLOODLESS REVOLUTION. Nicholls' White League Militia Take the Field. They seize the Supreme Court Rooms and Police Stations. Packard Still Holds the State House. Not a Shot Fired or a Blow Struck. The U. S. Troops Quiet Spectators.

NEW ORLEANS, JANUARY 9.—At 6 o'clock the members of the White League, which has been mustered in by the Nicholls government as militia, are assembling with arms at Lafayette Square with the avowed purpose of maintaining the Superior Court abolished by the Kellogg government.

At 8 o'clock (about 8:30 o'clock) the streets are filled with men hurrying to Lafayette Square, where orders are dashing about on horseback, presenting all the phases of an army on the eve of battle. Armed men are reported to the Sheriff, whose purpose, it is stated, is to take possession of the Supreme Court room, now in charge of the Metropolitan police, and install Nicholls' newly appointed judges of the Supreme Court.

At 11:30 o'clock the militia took possession of the Supreme Court building and installed the judges. All police stations are in the possession of the Nicholls government. Not a gun was fired, and no shots were heard. A reporter of the Picayune this morning visited General Angur, and ascertained that all the officers and men were under strict orders and prepared to take the streets in a moment.

At 11:30 Nicholls' militia took possession of the Supreme Court building and installed the judges. All police stations are in the possession of the Nicholls government. Not a gun was fired, and no shots were heard. A reporter of the Picayune this morning visited General Angur, and ascertained that all the officers and men were under strict orders and prepared to take the streets in a moment.

At 11:30 Nicholls' militia took possession of the Supreme Court building and installed the judges. All police stations are in the possession of the Nicholls government. Not a gun was fired, and no shots were heard. A reporter of the Picayune this morning visited General Angur, and ascertained that all the officers and men were under strict orders and prepared to take the streets in a moment.

At 11:30 Nicholls' militia took possession of the Supreme Court building and installed the judges. All police stations are in the possession of the Nicholls government. Not a gun was fired, and no shots were heard. A reporter of the Picayune this morning visited General Angur, and ascertained that all the officers and men were under strict orders and prepared to take the streets in a moment.