SEVEN TO EIGHT.

The Ides of March were drawing fast,
As through a Western village passed
A reeling form I know so well,
Whose voice rang clear as auction-bell—
In tones so sharp, so full of hate,
"I curse them all—seven to eight."

A bottle in his hand he grasped.
A New York Sun the other clasped,
And I heard him say, to ease his chagrin:
"I'm mighty good looking but can't come in:
I'm dreadful cold, and its awful late,
But I'm counted out—seven to eight."

"It's getting dark, guess I'll here repose,
I'm calling now by Cronin's nose,
His masthead's flying in the wind.
It cannot be that I am blind?
I wonder if things move here by fate,
I am going it blind—seven to eight.

And when the morning brought its bloom,
I saw him lying in grated room;
His face was marked with want and care,
And in his sleep I heard him swear:
"True virtue's dead," 'tis no use to prate,
"Dead as a Coon"—seven to eight.

THE ghost is still on the rampage.

THAT WAS a firm "solferino" voice at the concert Friday night.

TWO more large droves of horses were started from this place on Monday.

WE offer for sale Clover and Timothy seed, high and low, large and small.

As we expected. Here it is:

TO VICE PRESIDENT FERRY.

Count, brother, count with caire,
Count for the Presidential chaire,
Count the ballots faire and squaire,
Count out no true electaire,
Count in the presence of the secretaire,
Let him foot them up with caire,
There's enough but none to spaire,
Let the Demmys whoop and teaire,
Let them fume, and snort, and sweaire,
Stand your ground, we've got 'em faire,
They can't play the bull-dezaire,
We'll have Hayes and Bill Wheelaire.

THE concerts given by the Somerset Silver Cornet Band, under the direction of Prof. I. J. Heffley, were a decided success, and were largely attended. The most pleasant feature of these concerts was the vocal music. Some of the songs rendered by the young ladies were unusually fine, "Johnny Sonecher," the "A B C Duet," and the "New Church Organ," elicited continued applause. The music by the Cornet Band was a surprise to everybody, the boys playing so much better than they did a few months ago. This band is improving rapidly, and Mr. Heffley is to be complimented on his success as a teacher.

False Impression.

It is generally supposed by a certain class of citizens, who are not practical or experimented, that Dyspepsia can not invariably be cured, but we are pleased to say that GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER has ever, to our knowledge, failed to cure Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint in all its forms, such as Sour Stomach, Costiveness, Sick Headache, palpitation of the Heart, low spirits, &c., &c. Out of 30 000 dozen bottles sold last year, not a single failure was reported, but thousands of complimentary letters received from Druggists of wonderful cures. Three doses will relieve any case. Try it. Sample Bottles 10 cents. Regular Size 75 cents. For sale by G. W. BENFORD.

HOW A TRAMP PAID FOR HIS LODGING.—Sunday night a forlorn and hungry tramp appeared at the residence of Mr. John Leidig, at Wellersburg, Pa., about nine miles west of this city, and begged to be allowed to stay all night. Mr. Leidig was disposed to grant his request, but the "women folks"—always keener than the masculines—didn't like the looks of the tramp and fought hard against his being permitted to stay there. The wanderer, however, told such a pitiful tale and begged so hard for a corner to sleep in that they at last relented. Yesterday morning at breakfast time, Mrs. Leidig sent her husband to awake their guest, but the errand was a heatless one; the tramp had awakened himself some time during the night and disappeared. Of course the simpletons knew what that meant and began at once to look around to see "what was gone." They soon found out. It was $218 in greenbacks from a trunk in a room adjoining that given to the ungrateful tramp. Mr. Leidig did the best thing possible under the circumstances—rode to Cumberland and notified the police, and then instituted a little search of his own. Up to a late hour last night nothing had been heard of the tramp, but we shall not be surprised to hear of his capture as soon as he gets drunk, which will be as soon as he gets where they sell fire-water. — Cumberland Daily News, 20th inst.

A DISTRESSING OCCURRENCE.—About noon on Tuesday last our citizens were startled with the sad intelligence that Mrs. King, of this place had been frightfully burned. The rumor was at first thought to be false, but upon inquiry being made it proved to be, alas, too true. It seems that the unfortunate lady was engaged in domestic duties in the kitchen, and while attempting to put coal into the stove her apron took fire, which soon enveloped her person, and before assistance arrived her body was burned nearly to a crisp. She had been in delicate health for some years, and it is supposed when she realized her perilous condition, all efforts on her part to render herself any assistance, failed. When assistance arrived she was still living, and medical aid was immediately summoned, and everything that could be was done to relieve the suffering woman. She lingered until about eight o'clock in the evening, when death ensued. Mrs. King was in her 60th year, and was a native of Greensburg, where, during her many years, she always bore the highest respect and love of all who knew her. She was the consort of the late Dr. A. T. King, who, during his day, stood at the head of the medical profession. Her remains were interred in St. Clair cemetery on Saturday, and were followed to their last resting place by a vast multitude of relatives and friends. Deceased was a kind and loving mother, and leaves a family of five children—four of whom are at home, and the other, Dr. Wm. King, of West Fairfield, this county —who have the sympathy of all for the sad loss of one so near and dear to them.—Greensburg Democrat.

Mrs. King was a sister of Wm. Postlethwaite, Esq., and was well known by a number of the older people of our town.

Have You Tried It?

We refer to that most remarkable compound, which almost every one has tried, Dr. Morris' Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Horehound, for coughs, colds, blood spitting, weak lungs, croup, whooping cough, asthma, bronchitis, and all diseases of the lungs and throat. Probably no similar preparation ever before so quickly found its way into public favor as this. Its sale in our community is simply enormous. Those who have been disappointed in other so-called remedies, are especially invited to try this. Be sure to get the genuine Dr. Morris' Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Horehound. There are imitations in the market. Look out for them. Trial size 10 cents. Regular size, 50 cents and One Dollar.

For sale by G. W. Benford.

Also Agents for Prof. Parker's Pleasant Worm Syrup, which never fails. Pleasant to take, and requires no physic. Price 25 cents.

REMOVAL.—The long established, favorably and well-known, as well as first-class and reliable house of G. B. Harrett & Co. of Pittsburgh, whose name appears in our advertising columns nothing the business of the "Trade." Their present location at 68 Fifth Avenue, though central and suitable in many respects, must be exchanged, April 1st, for the larger and handsomer suite of rooms at 77 Fifth Avenue. The large and fast-increasing trade has necessitated this change, while it will enable them to make a much finer display of goods. Their stock is large and full, their salesmen obliging, while the firm are gentlemen as long and favorably known to the trade that it would be useless for us to speak of them more than to say. Try them and learn from experience what we have learned in the same way.
