SAYS the Williamsport Sun: "A letter received here this morning, from a young man of this city, now residing in Texas, says: "If you should have any inquiries in regard to Texas, dissuade anyone from coming, for the State is entirely overrun with young men seeking employment, and many have to work in hotels and restaurants, as waiters, for a living." Spendy Justice.—A rather novel was of administering justice was practiced the town of Uraina a short time ago. with young men seeking employment, and many have to work in hotels and restaurants, as waiters, for a living."

Storts upon the Sun do not visibly diminish its brilliancy, but spota, pimples or blotches upon the face, neck or arms reriously detract from female beauty. They may, however, be completely removed by the daily use of Glen's Sulphur Soap. Depot, Crittenton's No. 7, Sixth Avenue, N. Y. Hill's Hair and Whisker Dye, black or brown, 50c.

These beautiful vagaries fade from the mind
Though ever creating, still ever entembing.
They leave but the shadows of fancy behind Away with these visions so fair, but misgivi Away with illusions so fleeting and vain; Rude pictures they esem of the life we are liv Relinking the links in a mystical chain.

We live and we dream both in thought action.

We pencil the future in fanciful dyen;
Till life is retinged with a myth like refractio
Of hopes that deceive us, of joys we despise. The real we heed not, until unrelenting,
