

The press of Somerset county was represented by the senior editor of the Herald at the Greenway fair last week.

TIME TABLES.

Table with columns for Baltimore & Ohio R.R. and East & West. Lists train numbers, destinations, and times.

The Express train leaves Philadelphia at 10:15 P. M. arriving at Camden at 11:30 P. M.

Through Mail and Express trains daily. Accommodation train and Patuxent Express daily, except Sunday.

On and after May 14th, 1877, trains will run as follows: On and after May 14th, 1877, trains will run as follows:

Table with columns for Baltimore & Ohio R.R. and East & West. Lists train numbers, destinations, and times.

On and after May 14th, 1877, trains will run as follows: On and after May 14th, 1877, trains will run as follows:

Table with columns for Baltimore & Ohio R.R. and East & West. Lists train numbers, destinations, and times.

On and after May 14th, 1877, trains will run as follows: On and after May 14th, 1877, trains will run as follows:

Table with columns for Baltimore & Ohio R.R. and East & West. Lists train numbers, destinations, and times.

On and after May 14th, 1877, trains will run as follows: On and after May 14th, 1877, trains will run as follows:

Table with columns for Baltimore & Ohio R.R. and East & West. Lists train numbers, destinations, and times.

On and after May 14th, 1877, trains will run as follows: On and after May 14th, 1877, trains will run as follows:

Table with columns for Baltimore & Ohio R.R. and East & West. Lists train numbers, destinations, and times.

On and after May 14th, 1877, trains will run as follows: On and after May 14th, 1877, trains will run as follows:

Table with columns for Baltimore & Ohio R.R. and East & West. Lists train numbers, destinations, and times.

On and after May 14th, 1877, trains will run as follows: On and after May 14th, 1877, trains will run as follows:

Table with columns for Baltimore & Ohio R.R. and East & West. Lists train numbers, destinations, and times.

On and after May 14th, 1877, trains will run as follows: On and after May 14th, 1877, trains will run as follows:

Table with columns for Baltimore & Ohio R.R. and East & West. Lists train numbers, destinations, and times.

On and after May 14th, 1877, trains will run as follows: On and after May 14th, 1877, trains will run as follows:

Table with columns for Baltimore & Ohio R.R. and East & West. Lists train numbers, destinations, and times.

On and after May 14th, 1877, trains will run as follows: On and after May 14th, 1877, trains will run as follows:

Table with columns for Baltimore & Ohio R.R. and East & West. Lists train numbers, destinations, and times.

On and after May 14th, 1877, trains will run as follows: On and after May 14th, 1877, trains will run as follows:

Table with columns for Baltimore & Ohio R.R. and East & West. Lists train numbers, destinations, and times.

On and after May 14th, 1877, trains will run as follows: On and after May 14th, 1877, trains will run as follows:

Table with columns for Baltimore & Ohio R.R. and East & West. Lists train numbers, destinations, and times.

The following officers were elected in Somerset Lodge, No. 28, I. O. O. F., Monday, Sept. 24, 1877.

Officers of the Agricultural Society will please accept the thanks of the printer for complimentary tickets received.

The next term of the Huntington county court is set for the 10th inst. of the next protracted session ever held.

Our churches were not so very well attended on Sunday last, and it wasn't so warm either.

A Democratic candidate for office in Washington county held the other day of last week. It is the first case of the kind on record.

Those who urged the hot weather as an excuse for not attending church, must now skinned around for some more plausible pretext.

At the Teachers' examination last week some sixty-eight teachers were examined, over half of them receiving first-class certificates.

Persons visiting the fair who may be in need of Dry Goods, notions, etc., will find at George R. Parker's a large and complete stock.

The working man's Cambria county last week nominated Henry West for Prosecution, and J. C. Easly for District Attorney.

Young men who voted on age last year should pay a State and County tax on or before Friday next in order to secure a vote this year.

Dr. Brubaker has completed the new stone pavement in front of his residence. It is now the best and handsomest pavement in the burg.

Andreas Wolfing, Cambria county, is terribly afflicted with diptheria, seven families having lost between members and have sixteen ill.

Policeman Stedley, who was struck and badly injured by a horse, is able to go to work, and is recovering from his injuries.

It may be interesting to clergymen to know that the crop of young chickens is large, and they will have a good supply of their legendary favorites.

A lay delegate to the Methodist Conference at Johnston was swindled into extra dollars' worth of groceries for three ten dollar counterfeit notes.

There is a new painting in Paris entitled "Joseph sold into slavery." It may not have later news in Paris from Gen. Howard than we have here.

The crowd of noisy boys that were congregated at Spens' corner at a late hour on Saturday night remained as very noisy and unruly.

We don't know on religion. We hail a never laid to rest, but we do hate to see a young man put a coffin, with eyes worn, in the collection box.

The rates charged telegraphing have been reduced, and when it comes to eat forty cents to send a message twenty-five cents is now charged.

"Around the world in thirty-six hours or the Sleeping Detective" is the name of a new novel, and it is a very interesting story that will appear in this paper shortly.

Almost every day we hear of some one's children being robbed. Couldn't the Home Guard be reorganized and a stop put to these depredations?

Bridal chemists and night-robes are now made of open lace work, held together in front by delicate bows of lace, at intervals of a few inches from the throat.

The grape vines in the yards of Gen. W. H. Keeney and Mr. Ed. Scott are being entirely stripped of their fruit by a party of thieves, one night of last week.

The Baltimore & Ohio Express Co. have reduced their rates on butter. Through cars are run regular, Somerset at 10:30 A. M., arriving at Baltimore the same night.

A liar is one of the most despicable creatures on earth. And when, to his lying, he adds slander, he becomes an enemy to society worthy only of extermination.

The fair is in full blast. The Fairing. Let her fly. Indian Summer last night. Prepare for "de shuckin' ob de corn". Pay your taxes by the 6th of October. Get naturalized by the 6th of October.

The men have gone with the roses. There is a great dearth of local matters. Man was made to mourn—let him mourn.

Heavier fannels are being hauled out and donned. That great epidemic, house cleaning, is about getting in.

Apple butter boilings will be few hereabouts this fall. The cock and p-son hunter is abroad these nights.

It will soon be time to put stores in their winter positions. Stories of big potatoes have commended to our exchanges.

A silver dollar is worth about ninety cents in gold.

The following officers were elected in Somerset Lodge, No. 28, I. O. O. F., Monday, Sept. 24, 1877.

Officers of the Agricultural Society will please accept the thanks of the printer for complimentary tickets received.

The next term of the Huntington county court is set for the 10th inst. of the next protracted session ever held.

Our churches were not so very well attended on Sunday last, and it wasn't so warm either.

A Democratic candidate for office in Washington county held the other day of last week. It is the first case of the kind on record.

Those who urged the hot weather as an excuse for not attending church, must now skinned around for some more plausible pretext.

At the Teachers' examination last week some sixty-eight teachers were examined, over half of them receiving first-class certificates.

Persons visiting the fair who may be in need of Dry Goods, notions, etc., will find at George R. Parker's a large and complete stock.

The working man's Cambria county last week nominated Henry West for Prosecution, and J. C. Easly for District Attorney.

Young men who voted on age last year should pay a State and County tax on or before Friday next in order to secure a vote this year.

Dr. Brubaker has completed the new stone pavement in front of his residence. It is now the best and handsomest pavement in the burg.

Andreas Wolfing, Cambria county, is terribly afflicted with diptheria, seven families having lost between members and have sixteen ill.

Policeman Stedley, who was struck and badly injured by a horse, is able to go to work, and is recovering from his injuries.

It may be interesting to clergymen to know that the crop of young chickens is large, and they will have a good supply of their legendary favorites.

A lay delegate to the Methodist Conference at Johnston was swindled into extra dollars' worth of groceries for three ten dollar counterfeit notes.

There is a new painting in Paris entitled "Joseph sold into slavery." It may not have later news in Paris from Gen. Howard than we have here.

The crowd of noisy boys that were congregated at Spens' corner at a late hour on Saturday night remained as very noisy and unruly.

We don't know on religion. We hail a never laid to rest, but we do hate to see a young man put a coffin, with eyes worn, in the collection box.

The rates charged telegraphing have been reduced, and when it comes to eat forty cents to send a message twenty-five cents is now charged.

"Around the world in thirty-six hours or the Sleeping Detective" is the name of a new novel, and it is a very interesting story that will appear in this paper shortly.

Almost every day we hear of some one's children being robbed. Couldn't the Home Guard be reorganized and a stop put to these depredations?

Bridal chemists and night-robes are now made of open lace work, held together in front by delicate bows of lace, at intervals of a few inches from the throat.

The grape vines in the yards of Gen. W. H. Keeney and Mr. Ed. Scott are being entirely stripped of their fruit by a party of thieves, one night of last week.

The Baltimore & Ohio Express Co. have reduced their rates on butter. Through cars are run regular, Somerset at 10:30 A. M., arriving at Baltimore the same night.

A liar is one of the most despicable creatures on earth. And when, to his lying, he adds slander, he becomes an enemy to society worthy only of extermination.

The fair is in full blast. The Fairing. Let her fly. Indian Summer last night. Prepare for "de shuckin' ob de corn". Pay your taxes by the 6th of October. Get naturalized by the 6th of October.

The men have gone with the roses. There is a great dearth of local matters. Man was made to mourn—let him mourn.

Heavier fannels are being hauled out and donned. That great epidemic, house cleaning, is about getting in.

Apple butter boilings will be few hereabouts this fall. The cock and p-son hunter is abroad these nights.

It will soon be time to put stores in their winter positions. Stories of big potatoes have commended to our exchanges.

A silver dollar is worth about ninety cents in gold.

The following officers were elected in Somerset Lodge, No. 28, I. O. O. F., Monday, Sept. 24, 1877.

Officers of the Agricultural Society will please accept the thanks of the printer for complimentary tickets received.

The next term of the Huntington county court is set for the 10th inst. of the next protracted session ever held.

Our churches were not so very well attended on Sunday last, and it wasn't so warm either.

A Democratic candidate for office in Washington county held the other day of last week. It is the first case of the kind on record.

Those who urged the hot weather as an excuse for not attending church, must now skinned around for some more plausible pretext.

At the Teachers' examination last week some sixty-eight teachers were examined, over half of them receiving first-class certificates.

Persons visiting the fair who may be in need of Dry Goods, notions, etc., will find at George R. Parker's a large and complete stock.

The working man's Cambria county last week nominated Henry West for Prosecution, and J. C. Easly for District Attorney.

Young men who voted on age last year should pay a State and County tax on or before Friday next in order to secure a vote this year.

Dr. Brubaker has completed the new stone pavement in front of his residence. It is now the best and handsomest pavement in the burg.

Andreas Wolfing, Cambria county, is terribly afflicted with diptheria, seven families having lost between members and have sixteen ill.

Policeman Stedley, who was struck and badly injured by a horse, is able to go to work, and is recovering from his injuries.

It may be interesting to clergymen to know that the crop of young chickens is large, and they will have a good supply of their legendary favorites.

A lay delegate to the Methodist Conference at Johnston was swindled into extra dollars' worth of groceries for three ten dollar counterfeit notes.

There is a new painting in Paris entitled "Joseph sold into slavery." It may not have later news in Paris from Gen. Howard than we have here.

The crowd of noisy boys that were congregated at Spens' corner at a late hour on Saturday night remained as very noisy and unruly.

We don't know on religion. We hail a never laid to rest, but we do hate to see a young man put a coffin, with eyes worn, in the collection box.

The rates charged telegraphing have been reduced, and when it comes to eat forty cents to send a message twenty-five cents is now charged.

"Around the world in thirty-six hours or the Sleeping Detective" is the name of a new novel, and it is a very interesting story that will appear in this paper shortly.

Almost every day we hear of some one's children being robbed. Couldn't the Home Guard be reorganized and a stop put to these depredations?

Bridal chemists and night-robes are now made of open lace work, held together in front by delicate bows of lace, at intervals of a few inches from the throat.

The grape vines in the yards of Gen. W. H. Keeney and Mr. Ed. Scott are being entirely stripped of their fruit by a party of thieves, one night of last week.

The Baltimore & Ohio Express Co. have reduced their rates on butter. Through cars are run regular, Somerset at 10:30 A. M., arriving at Baltimore the same night.

A liar is one of the most despicable creatures on earth. And when, to his lying, he adds slander, he becomes an enemy to society worthy only of extermination.

The fair is in full blast. The Fairing. Let her fly. Indian Summer last night. Prepare for "de shuckin' ob de corn". Pay your taxes by the 6th of October. Get naturalized by the 6th of October.

The men have gone with the roses. There is a great dearth of local matters. Man was made to mourn—let him mourn.

Heavier fannels are being hauled out and donned. That great epidemic, house cleaning, is about getting in.

Apple butter boilings will be few hereabouts this fall. The cock and p-son hunter is abroad these nights.

It will soon be time to put stores in their winter positions. Stories of big potatoes have commended to our exchanges.

A silver dollar is worth about ninety cents in gold.

The following officers were elected in Somerset Lodge, No. 28, I. O. O. F., Monday, Sept. 24, 1877.

Officers of the Agricultural Society will please accept the thanks of the printer for complimentary tickets received.

The next term of the Huntington county court is set for the 10th inst. of the next protracted session ever held.

Our churches were not so very well attended on Sunday last, and it wasn't so warm either.

A Democratic candidate for office in Washington county held the other day of last week. It is the first case of the kind on record.

Those who urged the hot weather as an excuse for not attending church, must now skinned around for some more plausible pretext.

At the Teachers' examination last week some sixty-eight teachers were examined, over half of them receiving first-class certificates.

Persons visiting the fair who may be in need of Dry Goods, notions, etc., will find at George R. Parker's a large and complete stock.

The working man's Cambria county last week nominated Henry West for Prosecution, and J. C. Easly for District Attorney.

Young men who voted on age last year should pay a State and County tax on or before Friday next in order to secure a vote this year.

Dr. Brubaker has completed the new stone pavement in front of his residence. It is now the best and handsomest pavement in the burg.

Andreas Wolfing, Cambria county, is terribly afflicted with diptheria, seven families having lost between members and have sixteen ill.

Policeman Stedley, who was struck and badly injured by a horse, is able to go to work, and is recovering from his injuries.

It may be interesting to clergymen to know that the crop of young chickens is large, and they will have a good supply of their legendary favorites.

A lay delegate to the Methodist Conference at Johnston was swindled into extra dollars' worth of groceries for three ten dollar counterfeit notes.

There is a new painting in Paris entitled "Joseph sold into slavery." It may not have later news in Paris from Gen. Howard than we have here.

The crowd of noisy boys that were congregated at Spens' corner at a late hour on Saturday night remained as very noisy and unruly.

We don't know on religion. We hail a never laid to rest, but we do hate to see a young man put a coffin, with eyes worn, in the collection box.

The rates charged telegraphing have been reduced, and when it comes to eat forty cents to send a message twenty-five cents is now charged.

"Around the world in thirty-six hours or the Sleeping Detective" is the name of a new novel, and it is a very interesting story that will appear in this paper shortly.

Almost every day we hear of some one's children being robbed. Couldn't the Home Guard be reorganized and a stop put to these depredations?

Bridal chemists and night-robes are now made of open lace work, held together in front by delicate bows of lace, at intervals of a few inches from the throat.

The grape vines in the yards of Gen. W. H. Keeney and Mr. Ed. Scott are being entirely stripped of their fruit by a party of thieves, one night of last week.

The Baltimore & Ohio Express Co. have reduced their rates on butter. Through cars are run regular, Somerset at 10:30 A. M., arriving at Baltimore the same night.

A liar is one of the most despicable creatures on earth. And when, to his lying, he adds slander, he becomes an enemy to society worthy only of extermination.

The fair is in full blast. The Fairing. Let her fly. Indian Summer last night. Prepare for "de shuckin' ob de corn". Pay your taxes by the 6th of October. Get naturalized by the 6th of October.

The men have gone with the roses. There is a great dearth of local matters. Man was made to mourn—let him mourn.

Heavier fannels are being hauled out and donned. That great epidemic, house cleaning, is about getting in.

Apple butter boilings will be few hereabouts this fall. The cock and p-son hunter is abroad these nights.

It will soon be time to put stores in their winter positions. Stories of big potatoes have commended to our exchanges.

A silver dollar is worth about ninety cents in gold.

The following officers were elected in Somerset Lodge, No. 28, I. O. O. F., Monday, Sept. 24, 1877.

Officers of the Agricultural Society will please accept the thanks of the printer for complimentary tickets received.

The next term of the Huntington county court is set for the 10th inst. of the next protracted session ever held.

Our churches were not so very well attended on Sunday last, and it wasn't so warm either.

A Democratic candidate for office in Washington county held the other day of last week. It is the first case of the kind on record.

Those who urged the hot weather as an excuse for not attending church, must now skinned around for some more plausible pretext.

At the Teachers' examination last week some sixty-eight teachers were examined, over half of them receiving first-class certificates.

Persons visiting the fair who may be in need of Dry Goods, notions, etc., will find at George R. Parker's a large and complete stock.

The working man's Cambria county last week nominated Henry West for Prosecution, and J. C. Easly for District Attorney.

Young men who voted on age last year should pay a State and County tax on or before Friday next in order to secure a vote this year.

Dr. Brubaker has completed the new stone pavement in front of his residence. It is now the best and handsomest pavement in the burg.

Andreas Wolfing, Cambria county, is terribly afflicted with diptheria, seven families having lost between members and have sixteen ill.

Policeman Stedley, who was struck and badly injured by a horse, is able to go to work, and is recovering from his injuries.

It may be interesting to clergymen to know that the crop of young chickens is large, and they will have a good supply of their legendary favorites.

A lay delegate to the Methodist Conference at Johnston was swindled into extra dollars' worth of groceries for three ten dollar counterfeit notes.

There is a new painting in Paris entitled "Joseph sold into slavery." It may not have later news in Paris from Gen. Howard than we have here.

The crowd of noisy boys that were congregated at Spens' corner at a late hour on Saturday night remained as very noisy and unruly.

We don't know on religion. We hail a never laid to rest, but we do hate to see a young man put a coffin, with eyes worn, in the collection box.

The rates charged telegraphing have been reduced, and when it comes to eat forty cents to send a message twenty-five cents is now charged.

"Around the world in thirty-six hours or the Sleeping Detective" is the name of a new novel, and it is a very interesting story that will appear in this paper shortly.

Almost every day we hear of some one's children being robbed. Couldn't the Home Guard be reorganized and a stop put to these depredations?

Bridal chemists and night-robes are now made of open lace work, held together in front by delicate bows of lace, at intervals of a few inches from the throat.

The grape vines in the yards of Gen. W. H. Keeney and Mr. Ed. Scott are being entirely stripped of their fruit by a party of thieves, one night of last week.

The Baltimore & Ohio Express Co. have reduced their rates on butter. Through cars are run regular, Somerset at 10:30 A. M., arriving at Baltimore the same night.

A liar is one of the most despicable creatures on earth. And when, to his lying, he adds slander, he becomes an enemy to society worthy only of extermination.

The fair is in full blast. The Fairing. Let her fly. Indian Summer last night. Prepare for "de shuckin' ob de corn". Pay your taxes by the 6th of October. Get naturalized by the 6th of October.

The men have gone with the roses. There is a great dearth of local matters. Man was made to mourn—let him mourn.

Heavier fannels are being hauled out and donned. That great epidemic, house cleaning, is about getting in.

Apple butter boilings will be few hereabouts this fall. The cock and p-son hunter is abroad these nights.

It will soon be time to put stores in their winter positions. Stories of big potatoes have commended to our exchanges.

A silver dollar is worth about ninety cents in gold.

The following officers were elected in Somerset Lodge, No. 28, I. O. O. F., Monday, Sept. 24, 1877.

Officers of the Agricultural Society will please accept the thanks of the printer for complimentary tickets received.

The next term of the Huntington county court is set for the 10th inst. of the next protracted session ever held.

Our churches were not so very well attended on Sunday last, and it wasn't so warm either.

A Democratic candidate for office in Washington county held the other day of last week. It is the first case of the kind on record.

Those who urged the hot weather as an excuse for not attending church, must now skinned around for some more plausible pretext.

At the Teachers' examination last week some sixty-eight teachers were examined, over half of them receiving first-class certificates.

Persons visiting the fair who may be in need of Dry Goods, notions, etc., will find at George R. Parker's a large and complete stock.

The working man's Cambria county last week nominated Henry West for Prosecution, and J. C. Easly for District Attorney.

Young men who voted on age last year should pay a State and County tax on or before Friday next in order to secure a vote this year.

Dr. Brubaker has completed the new stone pavement in front of his residence. It is now the best and handsomest pavement in the burg.

Andreas Wolfing, Cambria county, is terribly afflicted with diptheria, seven families having lost between members and have sixteen ill.

Policeman Stedley, who was struck and badly injured by a horse, is able to go to work, and is recovering from his injuries.