New moon.

Nutting time.

Eggs are scarce.

The days grow shorter.

The streets are very muddy.

Parsley are done for this year.

Winter apples are not abundant.

Revise the temperature meetings.

Guard against fire these windy nights.

Beautiful weather for young ducks last week.

Sulphur fed to sheep will keep away the ticks.

Send us the local news of your neighborhood.

You can buy six rushes at G. R. Parker's for 25 cents.

Our rooster refuses to crow over the news from Ohio.

See first and fourth pages for interesting reading matter.

It is now said that turnips are a sure cure for hog cholera.

The winter term of our public schools opened on Monday last.

The largest lot of trimmed hats in town can be seen at G. R. Parker's.

Our town is, we believe, now clear of any case of diphtheria.

Since the late is over election day will be the next big day in Somerset.

A large quantity of chestnuts are being shipped east from this place.

Chestnuts are selling at seventy-five cents per bushel in Johnstown.

Long, slender canopies will again be in vogue for fall and winter.

Mr. Curtis Grove has completed his new frame building on Union street.

Has anyone any idea of the number of crows we will have this winter?

The small boy is commencing to count the days that must elapse till hallow eve.

But grape juice in your apple butter an't it will much improve the flavor of it.

Mr. F. K. Colborn, one of our soldier boys, has been made clerk of Company A.

Mr. E. E. Patton who has been east buying goods returned home on Monday last.

For want of space we are obliged to omit an interesting communication from Confluence.

It is said that the most shiftless thing in the world is a Vassar College student taking a bath.

Jack Frost is the most exquisite as well as the most expert limner that ever painted a forest.

Dr. Sadler, Oculist and Aurist. No. 256 Penn Ave., Pittsburgh, Pa. Eye, Ear, Throat and Catarrh Specialties.

"Didn't she return your love?" "Yes, she did, she said she didn't want it. That's what's killing me."

The girls say there is too much collar and too little young man to the present style of dress back way.

Within a period of two weeks twenty-seven children died of diphtheria in two townships in Clearfield county.

In order to give the poor tramp a chance to get his winter clothes, hang your coat on the hall rack and leave the front door open.

It was not Jacob J. Walker, as we stated last week, but his son Josiah, who dislocated his shoulder by falling from a scaffold.

Business is looking up, and our merchants who want to catch their share of it will do well to fling their advertisements to the breeze.

The political campaign promises to be a quiet one. It is less than a month until election day, and we have not had a political speech yet.

Mr. T. J. Picking is having built on his lot back of Baer's block, a large frame building which he proposes to use as a livery stable when completed.

We understand that a colored minstrel troupe from Cumberland propose giving an "entertainment in this place some time during the coming week."

Communications for publication in this paper must be handed in by Saturday morning. Any communications received after that time will be allowed to remain over until the following week.

Country repository will soon be sending in the proceedings of the philosophical, philanthropic, agricultural, political literary societies of the county for publishing.

The premium list of the Agricultural Society tell us they will have the list of premiums awarded at the late fair ready for publication by next week.

The young man with a linen duster and straw hat never realizes the comfort that is derived from a warm stove these cool days, until he has made a fiery goods box sweat by sitting on it.

Confidence is truly the most beautiful of human attributes; yet we never knew a woman to hear of the birth of a young couple's first child without asking the date of their marriage.

If any merchant in the town thinks advertisements are never read, let him advertise to give away a calico dress. Let some one try the experiment. It don't cost you a cent for the advertisement.

The health journals now say that we must sleep with our heads toward the north, in order to be healthy. By and by a man will need the services of a civil engineer when he sleeps in a triangle bed.

There is just one thing about it. The lady who insists on carrying a good share of her dress in her hand has got to keep her shoes tied up, or let everybody know that she sett home in a hurry.

We understand that the County Commissioners have at last decided to plant to a row of young maple trees around the jail and Court-house yards in place of the the old locusts that have been there for the past few years.

We are sorry that we offended so many of the fair ones by our notice of the Superintendent last week. We didn't know that the gentleman was such a pet among the ladies or we would have been more sparing in our remarks.

In passing through the village of Gebharts the other day, I was very much surprised to see such a large crowd of people, and upon making inquiry as to the cause I was informed that Walter and Troxal had received their fall stock of Goods.

You will find at Morgan's Factory the largest and best assorted stock of woolen goods in Somerset county. Also the best quality and lowest prices to be found any where. Their goods are all shrunk in finishing, and will wash up less than any other woolen goods you can buy.

And now the city fathers are having Union street macadamized. This is the third street they have macadamized this summer. If they keep on a little longer in the good work, Somerset will be able to boast of as good streets as any town in the State.

Last Thursday night was the smutkrieg, dinsus, rahnoo, cohfoo, cohfoo! dreadful if—the darkest night we have had this year, yet not one of the street lamps were lighted. Why were things mussly Yepser? You must be governed by the weather in future and notby the almanac.

Cloaks, Cloaks, Cloaks. I have a larger assortment of ladies' cloaks than ever before, and the finest goods in the market, which I will sell for less money than the cloth can be bought for. Ladies' if you want a cloak of the latest style, call at G. R. Parker's.

There are twelve persons invmacked within the brick and iron structure below the court house, commonly called a jail. They are charged with various crimes and some of them are awaiting the action of the next grand jury.

Reader: I defy any competition to compare with my stock of ladies' coats, in quality, style and price. I have without any exceptions, the largest and best stock of ladies' coats ever brought to this place. Call and see them at Geo. R. Parker's.

Let sportsmen prepare for blazing away at game of the wild pigeon variety. Eastern exchanges notice that numerous flocks of these birds are flying southward, and it is likely there will be an ample sufficiency of them in the woods near town, ere many days.

The pic-nic season is about closed, and jelly cake will have a rest. Social evening parties have commenced to ripen, and a large crop may be expected this fall and winter. Apple-butter boilings will necessarily be scarce, but we would suggest the propriety of corn huskings.

The Commission, consisting of the Governor, Attorney General and Superintendent of Public Instruction, to distribute the money appropriated to the State Normal School, have recently, out of the $175,000 undistributed, agreed to give $25,000 to the State Normal School at California, Washington county.

Dr. Hall says cold bed chambers impair health, and invite fatal diseases. He asserts that it is even safer to sleep in bad air all night with a temperature over fifty, than in pure air with a temperature under forty. The bad air may sicken you, but cannot kill you; while the cold air can and does kill very often.

As the hunting season has now set in sensible farmers and others residing in the rural districts had better keep an eye on their poultry. Half the amateur hunters who stalk through the country with half a dozen dogs at their heels and double barreled fowling pieces in their hands, can hardly tell a real bird from a guinea hen.

LADIES DON'T DO IT.—Don't go around in that old, rough, ragged, ripped, rusty, dirty, dusty, dingy, dilapidated, despised, torn, threadbare, treacherous, faded, frowsy, foul, fumbled, fashionless, frittinglets, foolish coat when you can purchase a new one devoid of any of the above objections for very little money. Call and see them at George R. Parker's.

If the law compels civilians to pay taxes that all the children of the State may be educated and adorn society, why should not the law compel these children to attend the school and thus protect the taxpayer from the annoyance of being enjoined from their impudence and profane blackguardism during school hours.

Mr Arthur Love gave another of his very interesting entertainments in the Court-house last Tuesday evening, and as we predicted, it far surpassed the former entertainment given by that gentleman. Mr. Love presented Miss Carrie Schrock, she having sold the greatest number of tickets for the entertainment, with a large sized and very handsomely bound album.

At different places in the State, postmasters have decided to give no mail matter to school children. This is becoming a necessity, as the call of school children at the postoffice is getting to be an unendurable bore, for most of them make it a point to call at the institution every time they go to and from school. Judging from the number of children that flock into the postoffice, the postmaster will be the gainer of patience and time, if he would adopt the above.

A good domestic Sulphur bath can be instantly prepared by taking a cake of Glenn's Sulphur Soap into the bath tub. Such an experiment will, using a slang phrase, "knock the spots off" any victim of cutaneous blemishes. Sold by all Druggists 25 cents.

Hill's Hair and Whisker Dye, black or brown, 50 cts.

Depot, Crimmins's No. 7 Sixth Avenue, New York.

DR. VAN DYKE'S SULPHUR SOAP.—Dr. Van Dyke, whose life long specialty, and world wide reputation for curing skin diseases, has embarrassed for years to combine an external treatment. He has accomplished this desirable result in the preparation of his compound "Sulphur Soap," the merits of which are spoken of by thousands. It is highly recommended to all our readers. Price 25 cents, by mail, 35 cents a box; 6 cakes 60 cents, by mail, 75 cents. Office 50 N. 5th street. Wholesale Depot, 400 N. 2d street Philadelphia, Pa. Sold by all Druggists.

NO FAILURE KNOWN.—There are no cases on record where Dr. Morris' Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Horehound has failed to give satisfaction. On the other hand, wherever it has been used by our people, it never fails, giving quicker relief, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, and consumption, they are enthusiastic in its praise. Containing no opium or other dangerous drug, it may be administered to the most delicate infant without danger, and is safe to all, under to all conditions of health. This is an important announcement, and the suffering are advised to heed it. Trial size 10 cents; large sizes 50 cents and One Dollar.

For sale by G. W. Bonford.

Also Agents for Prof. Parker's Pleasant Worm Syrup, which never fails, is sure death to worms, pleasant to take, and requires no physic.

Price 25cts. Try it.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—On Friday last a farmer from Jenner township, whose name we have not learned, delivering fruit through town was compelled to cross the gutter at the mouth of the alley between the residences of Wm. H. Picking and F. M. Keiser, and in so doing broke an axle of his wagon, and was himself thrown out, resulting in a sprained wrist and a badly cut head. It is high time the authorities had to their dangerous place fixed up, or they may be drawn into payment of damages enough to pave three or four squares of street.

THE WEATHER.—Sunday and Monday were two of the loveliest days that ever blessed our misty mountain tops. They discounted Ceylon's spicy breezes, and the atmosphere of the vale of Cashmere would appear murky in comparison. We doubt if ever such weather was experienced this side of the Delectable mountains. The heart, on having its lungs inflated with the spirit-producing, breath giving fluid, saw all things with optimistic eyes—the bodies were larger, the men more intellectual and commanding, the ladies entirely pulchritudinous. There is every prospect for this (Monday) evening that the delightful weather will continue for some days. Oh, if we could have had such at the Fair!

THE JAIL.—On Thursday last a man and woman from the southern part of the county were committed to jail, charged with living together as husband and wife without the sanction of a marriage ceremony. On the same day a young man was sent up for F. and T. The girl in the case is only fourteen years of age. On Friday evening Constable I. J. Baer, of Greenville, lodged in the prison three citizens of that township, charged with the larceny of two kegs and two jars of butter, the property of Levi Cason. The names of the parties charged with the offence are Franklin Cason, Nicholas Deatley and George Bittner. It is said that a portion of the stolen property was found in possession of the men named.

ASTONISHING SUCCESS.—It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor dying consumptive at least to try one bottle, as 40,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your Druggist about it. Sample bottles to try sent at 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. Sold by G. W. Bonford.

G. R. Parker has just opened a full line of the latest novelties in dry goods and notions. Great bargains will be given in black and colored alpacas which have been carefully selected with regard to color and durability of wear. Black silks in great variety, and at very low prices. Also a big lot of black and colored cashmeres which are guaranteed to give entire satisfaction. A variety of plaid dress goods, shawls, ladies' coats, etc. Also special bargains in ladies' under vests, gentlemen's underwear, drawers and shirts; a large variety of ladies' gents' and and children's hosiery, silk pocket handkerchiefs, linen pocket handkerchiefs, neckties, collars, cuffs, felt skirts, satchels, trunks, and an immense lot of notions which will be sold at the extremely low price of 6 for 25 cents. Also the largest and finest lot of ladies' trimmed hats and ladies' cloaks ever offered for sale in this place.

THE SEASON OF INTERMITTENTS.—All rheumatic complaints, in other words, all disorders generated by unwholesome exhalations from the earth or water, are prevalent this season. In every section subject to the visitation of fever and ague, or other forms of intermittent disease, the causes which produce the maladies are now actively at work. This, therefore, is a period of the year when the inhabitants of such localities should prepare their systems to meet the unwholesome conditions of the atmosphere by a course of tonic and alterative treatment. Foremost among the invigorants, recommended by time and experience as a means of fortifying the system against all endemic and epidemic maladies, stands Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. By a timely use of the Bitters, the feeblest resident of an unhealthy soil may escape the sickness which, without the aid of this potent ally of nature, will be apt to overtake the strongest.

SOUTHAMPTON, PA., Oct. 11, 1877.

On the evening of the 29th of September, 1877, a series of meetings were commenced at the Finch church, Southampton township, Somerset county, Pa., by the Rev. W. A. Reisinger of New Bridgeport, Bedford county, Pa., which continued over the first Sunday of October. During the week there was good attendance, and on Sunday there was gathered together a large audience from far and near.

The Rev. Reisinger, taking for his text "It is Finished, and He bowed His head and gave up the ghost," showed that Christ was the true Messiah, and that they that trust in Him have a sure foundation.

The discourse was very impressive, and in most all parts of the congregation were seen tears of joy. After the discourse the administration of the Lord's supper was another scene of joy, such as never was witnessed at this place. Many testified to this fact.

AN OBSERVER.

CHURCH DEDICATION.—According to previous arrangements the new Methodist Episcopal church of this place was dedicated to the service of Almighty God on Sunday Oct. 14, 1877. Long before the hour appointed for the dedicatory ceremonies the church was filled to overflowing with an eager, expectant mass of worshippers. So great was the crowd that many were disappointed in getting seats and had to return home or seek some other place of worship. The church was tastily decorated with flowers, and on the wall in the chancel, back of the pulpit, were neatly formed letters worked in evergreens, as follows: "Offer unto God thanksgiving and pay thy vows unto the Most High." The dedicatory services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Fleming, of Pittsburgh. After services a collection was made to pay the debt of the church, amounting to about $2,400. The amount desired, with the exception of about $350, was subscribed, and we understand that that amount was made up during the evening meeting. The congregation deserves great credit for their energetic efforts in building such a fine church, and to a large number of those dollars upon to contribute were persons who had lost their houses either by the fire of '72 or '74. We understand that the builder and his able helpers gave and gave thousand and helping hands, and the church stands on the north-east corner of Turkeyfoot and Pearse streets, and is a very handsome one story brick edifice. The builders were not given to following any one style of architecture but endeavored to combine the several different kinds. The building is so complete in all its arrangements and every one thing is in such perfect keeping with another; so well are colors and designs blended; so graceful is the entire uniformity, that it is beyond the power of our pen to describe the effect, but suffice it to say that the congregation can congratulate themselves on having one of the neatest and handsomest little churches in the western part of the State.

BUTLER has made great reductions in prices of Hardware. You can buy goods just as cheap from him as you can buy them in the city. He buys his goods from the manufacturer, and in large quantities, and therefore buys them at the very lowest prices, and is determined now to sell goods at a very low price. Call and see him and get his prices. His stock is very complete, including Building Hardware, Paint and Glass, Oils, Varnishes, and Wooden Pumps. Again we say, call and see Blymyer, and buy your hardware from him and you will save money.

CURE FOR DIPHTHERIA.—A correspondent of a Victorian paper gives the following cure for diphtheria, as practiced by Dr. Field, of England, and without going into details, we will give the prescription: Put a teaspoonful of flour of brimstone into a wine glass of water, and stir it with your finger, not with a spoon, as sulphur does not readily amalgamate with water. When well mixed, let the patient gargle it. Brimstone kills every species of fungus in man and beast in a few minutes. Instead of spitting out the gargle, he recommends swallowing it. When the fungus is too nearly closed to allow gargling, blow the sulphate through a quill into the throat, and when the fungus shrinks up, then gargle. If the patient cannot gargle, take a live coal, put it on a shovel, and sprinkle a spoonful or two of the brimstone at a time upon it. Let the sufferer hold his head over it and inhale it, and the fungus will die. Fumigating a room with sulphur has often cured the most violent cold in the head, chest, etc., and is recommended in cases of consumption and asthma.

NEW LEXINGTON ITEMS.—We learn that Mr. Hemminger has just about completed his new barn.

Mr. Griffith is doing a large business at the blacksmith trade; he is about to send for a large amount of iron and steel.

The old tannery of this town does not run as rapidly as it did, but we think it will freshen up by spring.

We learn that our most enterprising clerk of this place is not doing so well in the dry goods line, as his mind is directed to other business. This gentleman purchased a new buggy a few weeks ago. On his arrival at this place, Pap Schrock, a very pious old man, stepping into the street to see the nice buggy, happened to touch one of the curtains when the gentleman cried out, "Don't touch it, you will soil it." Also a small boy running up to the buggy took hold of one of the wheels when he was instantly requested to leave go, this boy, forgetting his orders, touched it a second and third time, when he was caught by the arm and most seriously whipped. But this is not all, for we think that man don't know that Aunt Cassie got the first ride in it. We are afraid that young man is cheated out of many a ride, for we can see the beautiful carriage going through the streets by moonlight. We must stop for this time, wishing to give you more items as soon as we cross over the ridge.

Respectfully Yours,
VALLEY CORRESPONDENT.

DIED.

KNEPPER.—Near Dixon, Ill., Sept. 19, 1877, Mrs. Margaret Knepper, aged 58 years, 6 months and 6 days.

The subject of the above notice was the wife of Jonathan Knepper, Esq., who is well known to the citizens of Somerset county, having held the office of Sheriff from 1847 to 1850 and afterwards served a term of years as Associate Judge.

She moved with her husband and family to Illinois about 14 years ago, where they lived till 1875, when they moved to Nebraska. She spent the last year of her life very pleasantly among her numerous friends in Pennsylvania, and while on her homeward road death came and summoned her to her long home. She was a consistent member of the Methodist church and died as she lived, a zealous Christian and believer in Christ.

BURKHART.—Somerset, Pa., Thursday, October 11, 1877, at 12 p. m., Mrs Rebecca Lawson, wife of John Burkhart aged 65 years, 4 months and 21 days.
