

JOHN HILL PROPRIETOR The proprietor is prepared to accommodate guests in the most comfortable and satisfactory manner. The traveling public and permanent boarders for-nished with the best of housi accommodations.-The tables will continue to the furnished with the best the market affords. Large and commodions stabiling stached. jan12 abloD ins after you like." "Not you," said Joey Rance. "It convulsively with both hands, and "Not you," said Joey Rance. "It convulsively with both hands, and in't in you." "Ain't it?" said Bill, tightening is belt, and then— "My good man," says Parson, "I so did Parson, who just then came "A few moments later, and I was BAER'S BLOCK A CALL. Also, a well selected stock of Glassware; Stoneware, Woodenware, Brushes al kinds, and sin't in you. DIAMOND HOTEL. his belt, and then-STATIONERY his belt, and then— "My good man," says Parson, "I couldn't thick of allowing it." Ysu see, ours was a splendid spire, standing altogether, one hun-dred and seventy feet six inches high; and as it says in the old history, was When doing your STOYSTOWN PA. Which we will sell as chesp as the chespest. SAMUEL CUSTER, Proprietor. Please cals, examine our goods of all inds, and be satisfied from your own judgment. This popular and well known house is at all in a descirable stopping place for the traveling tolic. Table and Scouts formedias. Good sta-irz. Hacks leave daily for Johnstown and SHOPPING Don't forget where we stay-MAIN CROSS Street, Somerset, Pa. Cetther 17