This is a pretty good record for one day. The Democrats all appear pleased. Now let us hear from the Republicans—Inter-Ocean.

Senator St. Clair of Indiana County has introduced a bill into the Senate to establish a new and uniform fee bill for officers of counties containing a population not exceeding one hundred and fifty thousand...

It will be grossly wrong to doubt that conciliation is a gem of rarest ray serene. Just how the thing works "way down South," may be gathered from the following excerpts from high Democratic authority...

Says the editor of that great organ of the Mississippi Democracy, The Southern States: When we have thus obtained the opportunity to make a candid statement...

When the repeal of the revolutionary amendments is sprung upon the country, it will catch up and carry the popular sentiment with it from Louisiana to Vermont...

From the land of those great and good Democrats, Wade Hampton and Hamburg Butler comes up a no less uncertain snout...

We require, and demand in the name of our mortified Sumpter Democrats and our justly indignant sister counties, a thorough reorganization of the County Executive Committee...

It may be that, speaking generally, "comparisons are odious," but there are exceptional cases when they become not only interesting but of value...

1. In the fall of 1877, President Rutherford B. Hayes, engaged in a Southern tour, addressed a number of Confederate audiences some speeches from which we extract the following: "You, here, mainly joined the Confederate side and fought bravely risked your lives, and in doing so, you were patriotic and patriotic men, anywhere, tall to respect the man who risks his life for his convictions..."

2. In the winter of 1864-5, President Abraham Lincoln sent for Mr. Noah Brooks, a newspaper correspondent, who had a warm place in his regards, and gave to him in his (Lincoln's) own hand writing, and over his own signature, the following story, requesting its immediate publication: "THE PRESIDENT'S LAST, SHORTEST, AND BEST SPEECH..."

An Essay Called For

In South Carolina "conciliation" does many things that deserve careful study. Some time since a Democratic meeting was held in Abbeville county to induce General McGowan for the office of Chief Justice...

That forty-four Republicans Legislators could find no one in the State worthy their votes, indicates a forbearance of material, or a sublimity of egotism that is as remarkable as the kind of pabulum on which the latter day Buckeye politician subsists...

Oh! Judge how could you? Now listen for the universal fact of the virtuous Democratic press—Depart from us you scoundrel liar, to perpetual torment, in the place prepared for you, bradley, and sick!

The coming November election in this State will be one of the most important held for many years, and will unquestionably draw out a full vote, which always insures a Republican victory...

Oh! Judge how could you? Now listen for the universal fact of the virtuous Democratic press—Depart from us you scoundrel liar, to perpetual torment, in the place prepared for you, bradley, and sick!

It is time that the shallow and lying pretense that President Hayes has no personal aims to serve in his appointments was dropped. The fact is patent that he is trying to create a party of his own, and to strengthen it by selections for official positions...
