DAVID PAUL BROWN. O goard me through the shades of night, Savior and Lord; I humbly pray: arround and shield me with Thy might, And bless me through the coming day. Bless me in youth-bless me in years. And hind me in Thy bonds of love; spire my hopes-dispel my fears, And train the for the realize above. In all I do, and think, and, say. Direct an i counsel me, O Lord, ANE THE ALL STRATES Slooping or waking, night or day, Sortain me by Thy sovereign word GLENN'S And when I yield this fleeting breath, And ily to meet Thee face to face, SULPHUR SOAP. Preserve me from sternal death-StRI blees nis thro' redectsing grace. Bless parents, brothers, sisters-all In health and siekness-joy and grief-Whate'er betides-whate'er befall. Be Then their solace and reliet. Teach them and me how vain-how weak-How worthless nre these scenes below : Where mirth is mourning, pleasure pain; And proud rejolcing turns to woe. Let me, dear Lord, alone rejoice In prayer and grateful praise to Thee ; Subdue my heart, attune my volce, And mould me for sternity. "Tis not for a frail child of dust To breathe a wish before Thy throne : In Thee, in Thee alone I trust Then let Thy sacrod will be done. Make me but Thine-point out the road.
