The Shot-Gun Policy

MEMPHIS, Aug. 10.—Yesterday, at a meeting held in Apperson Grove, near Jones' Landing, Ark, a few miles above Memphis, William Beatty, Democratic Sheriff pro tem, appointed by Gov. Miller, and Ed. Lew-is, a former Sheriff of the county, with their friends, met and began the discussion of the issues which divided the people of the country. Lewis, who is the Republican nominee, was first to speak. After he had concluded, Major Earle mounted the stand and proposed to give the record of Lewis This the crowd of colored people who were present objected to, and Major Harle was forced to desist. He asked his friends to go with him to a hill near by, where he would speak without being interrapted. As Major Kurle was descending from the platform a pistol shot was fired. This was the signal for a rush by the white
