In fact, it was a rattling good speech, clear, strong and convincing, and his Somerset county constituents made up their minds that a man who had such clear views and who had such a consistent record was just the man who ought to go tack to Congress. We don't want to make any rash statements, but if Somerset coun- ty -does not give "honest old Jake" as large a majority as she did two years ago, we will be badly disappointed. Generals Hoyt and Campbell confined their remarks to the financial question, and although the crowd listened to, applauded and appre- ciated their efforts, it wanted something on local politics, and from a home man. "Koontz !" "Koontz !" came from all quarters of the house, and with it came our neighbor, fresh as a daisy, for another round with the hosts of Democracy. His idea that the Democratic party would only go out of existence with original sin was approved and applauded to the echo; but there were other "fish to fry," and at- ter devoting a few minutes to his old ene- mies, he read the following letter, written by an ex-Associate Judge, who was elect- ed to office by the Republican party and who only commenced to cry when that party refused to put any more pap in his spoon: IEE LETTER.
