The greatest phenomenon that has yet appeared on the rostrum in Somerset county is in the person of Val Hay, Esq., poet, editor, orator, lawyer, farmer, and what not. In speaking he can cry whilst his audience is laughing, and laugh when the few who attend his meetings are looking glum and lugubrious. His reputation for truth (political) is not good, and the easy manner in which he turns from one opinion to another is evidenced by the quotations below. Now he is a Greenbacker, a Democrat, a supporter of the immaculate Coffroth. Then he sang as follows:

"Sing a song of Greenbacks,
Pockets full of trash,
Over head and ears in debt,
And out of ready cash:
Heaps of Tax Collectors,
As busy as a bee,
Ain't we in a pretty fix,
With Gold at sixty-three?"

Then he said:

"It was an act of premeditated and willful treachery, and as such, deserves unqualified denunciation at the hands of every honest Democrat in the land, and we are warranted in saying that the act will be indignantly repudiated by ninety-nine of every hundred Democrats in the District. By this act Mr. COFFROTH has forever forfeited the confidence of the Democracy, and we are now satisfied from his acts and declarations heretofore, from his political life, his votes in Congress etc., that corrupt motives prompted him to this last dark, damning act of infamy."

Felty, Felty, what have you done,
Defeated the great Alexander Hamilton!

Owing to the large amount of job work to be done in the HERALD office last week, the printing of the outside of both papers was delayed until Saturday. Saturday noon, as the foreman was lowering the "form" of the fourth page of the Democrat on the press bed, the bottom dropped out, "piing" every type in the entire "form." The day following a "pi" party was given by the proprietors of the Democrat in their composing room. The hands of both offices turned out to a man, and with the assistance of "Governor" Pile, the wreck was soon cleared, and every thing again placed in ship-shape order, thus enabling the Democrat to appear at its regular time, and in its usual neat, handsome and attractive manner. This was an unfortunate accident, and one that has never before happened to us since we have been in the printing business, but owing to the "forms" standing so long before they were used the "quoins" had dried out, thus rendering the "matter" loose and insecure.

ANOTHER GREENBACK DODGE.—The Berlin Bulletin has printed Mr. Moses Johns' name as one of the Greenback committee-men of Paint Tp. Now Mr. Johns is not only a Republican, but a Republican of the staunchest kind, and one who is actively engaged in furthering the interests of that party. He is an energetic young business man of Hillsboro, and he was instrumental in procuring the gratifying turnout which greeted the speakers at the Republican meeting held there last Friday evening. The indications are that Paint does not intend to lose her reputation as being the banner Republican township of the county. Long may she wave!

The weather this fall has been so favorable for finishing up all kinds of out-door work that there will hardly be an excuse for any voter not turning out to the election and doing his duty as a faithful citizen. However, our Republican friends should see to it that none neglect to turn out, urging upon the negligent the importance of the election this year, and the close relation of the issues involved with the prosperity and well-being of every citizen of our great Republic.

We are requested by Mr. John Kline to announce that he will not act as committee man for Somerset township north for the Greenback party. That the announcement of his name as such by the Berlin Bulletin was wholly unauthorized on his part, and that he will vote, as he always has done, the straight-out Republican ticket.

Let every Republican voter carefully examine his ticket before voting on next Tuesday. The county is being flooded with mixed and spurious tickets gotten up in such a manner that unless you closely examine them from the top name on to the last, you will, unwittingly, vote for men you have no desire to.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has decided that on and after the first day of November next all druggists, merchants and others who sell or offer for sale Hostetter's Bitters and other bitters of similar description, shall pay Internal Revenue tax as retail liquor dealers.

Quite a change in the temperature has been experienced in the past few days. Sunday night a heavy rain and wind storm set in. Monday morning the air was cold and bracing with an occasional skiff of snow, and thus it continued up to the time of going to press.

The following is a correction of the notice of communion service sent us last week by Rev. W. H. Bates, of Stoystown, Pa.:

Fires are becoming very comfortable these cool mornings and evenings, and the more fortunate have brought into service their overcoats. The season is getting too late for low-necked shoes, spotted stockings and bare arms.

On Monday of last week Dr. H. C. Reidl, of Shanksville, and our friend J. R. Walter, of this place, shot two very fine wild turkeys on the Allegheny Mountain. The Doctor's weighed fifteen pounds, Robert's nineteen.

The Evangelical Association of this place are at present doing a good work in the way of repairing their church building. The frame work is being handsomely painted, and the inside walls replastered and papered.

The Cumberland fair was a grand success. Over four thousand strangers were in the city on Thursday. Beecher failed to come to time. Hayes, Sherman and other members of the Cabinet were present.

The Republican State and County ticket should command the hearty support of the whole party in this county—the vote of every man professing to belong to the Republican organization.

It is the intention of the Meversdale Republicans to have a rousing old-fashioned political meeting at that place the night of the day before the election.

Alack, "you know, and I know," that after one week from to-day you will wish that you had never heard of Steadman, Barwind, or Kunhardt.

General W. H. Koontz is billed to speak at Pittsburgh, Allegheny and Beaver, besides several places in this county during the present week.

The sale of the real estate of William Critchfield, deceased, has been continued to Tuesday of Court, first week, at 1 o'clock.

We have been compelled to omit several interesting communications owing to their having reached us too late for publication.

The season of fairs is over, yet, strange to say, we have a young man in town who holds one every Saturday night.

Greensburg is afflicted with diphtheria and scarlet fever, many children having both diseases at once.

The season for killing deer has opened and will continue until the 10th day of December.

Eichelberger, the Greenback candidate for State Senator, in this district has withdrawn.

Won't "Johnny Boy" say "potatoes" just "once" to Coffroth before the election?

By this time next week the child will be named.

REPUBLICAN MEETINGS!

The following additional Republican meeting have been called since the publication of the last HERALD. O TEMPORA! O MORES!—It is almost enough to make one believe that the country is going to the dogs.

There was a Democratic mass meeting advertised for Hooversville on Tuesday afternoon, October 22, and, of course, there were orators on hand to enlighten the multitude, which, it was supposed, would assemble there.

Yes, there were orators in abundance, and a motley crew they were,
Both mongrel, puppy, whelp and hound,
And curs of low degree.

There was, inprimis, the "Honorable" Alexander Hamilton Coffroth, Democratic candidate for Congress; then there was Fred. Grof, candidate for State Senator; next was Valentine-long-tongued Greenback-orator Hay; and Josiah Mowry, Greenback candidate for Sheriff; Josiah Shafer, Greenback candidate for Prothonotary; James K. Beisecker, Greenback candidate for Register and Recorder; and last there was "Charley" Walker, candidate for Dixmont and Greenback orator at large. Just think of this circus being under one roof, and admission only—nothing. Oh, what a combination! How it should have drawn!

But, alas for human expectations. At Hooversville the crowd was so slim that the great twister, contortionist, and vaulter, the aforesaid A. H. Coffroth, refused to perform. So V. L. T. G. O. Hay entered the arena, and treated the audience to the spectacle of swallowing several tons of crow, among which was comprised the gulping of numerous utterances of great bitterness in regard to A. H. Coffroth, made by said V. L. T. etc. Hay when he was editor of the Somerset Democrat. This was an edifying exhibition, and tended to show the elasticity of the moral diaphragm, or conscience.

Thence the circus moved as a procession to Berkeyblle's school-house, in Shade township, where it had been advertised quite extensively for that evening, but finding no one there the tent was not pitched, and instead, it filed down through Hillsboro, on its way to Berkeyblle's school-house, in Paint township, where performance had also been advertised for Tuesday evening the 22nd. There a like fate awaited them. The school-house was as deserted as a street with a mad dog in it. There was positively no one present for them to hold forth to. They passed the night at a house near by. The next morning the inhabitants of Hillsboro discovered a procession solemnly wending its way down the road, across the bridge, and up through the town in the following order:

A. H. Coffroth, mounted, leading the van; Josiah Mowry, also mounted; Fred Grof, also mounted; Josiah Shafer, also mounted; James K. Beisecker, on foot; C. Walker, on foot; with V. L. T. G. O. Hay, the whipper-in, bringing up the rear, and constituting a kind of a lash.

It had rained the preceding night, and the tinsel and trappings of the er'wd looked disgustingly ugly. Taking it all in all, it was the sorriest looking sight ever witnessed by the inhabitants of Hillsboro, and had it not been a little premature would have passed for the funeral procession of the Democratic and Greenback parties.

LOST IN THE WOODS.—These are the days, it seems, when sermons come down smashed, and good in everything stalks abroad. Nature, in portioning out her favors, has given us all summers and springs, with occasionally a day or two, here and there, which are uncomfortable. The atmosphere is quivering, elastic, and delicious, and wins upon each sense strangely. You cannot contemplate the horizon too frequently, and the further you go into the woods the better you will like it. The falling of a leaf or the dropping of a twig utters a benediction, and things are not what they seem.

Resolved, That the "Hon." A. H. Coffroth candidate for Congress in this District, said some words similar to the above in the opening of his speech at Carrolltown last Wednesday evening. Strictly speaking, he is not a poetical man. He deals too extensively in figures for all that. These are his figures:

But, like Mr. Valentine Hay, his fellow-townsman, he can soar. He sometimes soars too high. "May that pond of Ben. Wertner's dry up," he said, "and eggs turn into grindstones, before I take back what I said in that 'Johnny Boy' letter." Nobody wants him to take that back. The fact that he is not only a falsifier, a receiver of stolen goods, a perjurer—in this, that he called on his Maker to strike him dead if he ever sold a Cadethship, the proof that was lying plainly and undeniably upon the evidence of Mr. William Lilley and others—and a bad man generally, is on record, and cannot be effaced.

Mr. Coffroth deliberately said in his speech that he is in favor of an issue of greenbacks big enough to give every non-laboring man an independent fortune, and that he will vote to repeal the Resumption Act. He would also demonetize or remonetize silver—demonetize it when he talks to one class of society, and remonetize it for the other. In one breath he would blow hot, and in the next cold. He would praise the Lord, and extend his hand to grasp the paw of the Devil.

This sort of tactics will not win. The independent yeomanry of Cambria County know too much to be fooled by a Demagogue. When Mr. Coffroth gets away out in the woods, and lies, and lies, and lies, he may do so with the understanding in his own mind that he may deceive, but in the end the truth will ultimately overtake him.

Carry the news throughout the county!—Johnstown Tribune.

OLD LETTERS ARE DANGEROUS THINGS.—The following letter, written by Mr. S. S. Forney, Greenback-Democratic candidate for County Treasurer, was handed us for publication, and may be possessed of some interest to our readers, particularly to our Dunkard brethren:

"BERLIN, PA., March 19, 1875.

JOSEPH BENDER, Esq.—Dear Sir:—I am a candidate for County Treasurer. I am a farmer, living in Brothersvalley township, and have no time to run over the county and electioneer like some of my opponents are doing.

Mr. Bender, I therefore ask you kindly not to promise to support any of my opponents till I get to see and talk with you also.

And in the mean time I want you to make it your business to inquire of people of Berlin or vicinity what kind of a man I am.

Mr. Bender I need a few good men in your part to work for me, and I have been informed that you are the principal man of Quemahoning township, so if you can do anything for me, and if afterwards an opportunity should be presented to reciprocate the favor I assure you that I shall return it. It is too early yet to do any canvassing, but it seems to me that my Somerset friends want to take the advantage of me in fixing the day for holding the primary election. They want to have it in the latter part of May, and I can't start out till after my spring crops are put out. So you see it would cut my time for canvassing very short, and I must therefore do some of my electioneering by letter writing, but by and by I will call around and see you and hope we can have a friendly talk together.

Mr. Bender, I was a volunteer during the late rebellion, so I think my opponent can't claim any thing over me in that line. But I want to tell you the whole truth, at present I belong to the Dunkard church, but I want you to understand that I am not conscientious. I know that the church did not do her duty during the war but don't blame me for that. I was in the army and now have an honorable discharge. I will enclose a stamp. Please write me, and tell me whether you think people in your parts will oppose me because I belong to the church that I do. Hoping to see you one day, when we will talk the matter over, I remain,

Yours Respectfully,
S. S. FORNEY,
Berlin, Penna.

EDITOR HERALD—Dear Sir:—I don't wish to take up much of your space, but simply want to say a few words to your readers in reply to the lies the preacher and publisher of the Berlin Bulletin published about me. According to the course he takes he must think he is sharper and smarter than the devil himself; but I think the preacher is mistaken, because, to deceive people, the devil mixed truth and lies, but the preacher and editor is so dumb that he tries to deceive the people with all lies. Every single word he uttered against me is a lie. I will agree, if his congregation will ever allow him to preach to them again, that he may tell them all these lies and if he can get one man, or even an old woman to believe them, then that is proof that they are greenbackers or greenhorns, which is all the same. I will further say to him, that with all the lies he can publish against me, his best friends will think more of me than they will of him. I am requested by the citizens of Davidsville to say that none of them ever wrote the letter about me which he published. It is an utter falsehood that I ever said that I was promised the nomination for Congress two years hence. I don't want it, and would not accept it if offered me. I will now close for the present, but if the preacher don't let me alone, I will then tell him what I think of a black sheep turning wolf. Yours very truly,

ISAAC KAUFMAN.

DAVIDSVILLE, PA., Oct. 26, 1878.

EDITOR HERALD.—Yesterday evening the Democratic-communistic-"flat money" sore-head-Republican-party held their appointed meeting. The audience numbered forty-five souls all told, half of whom were boys, from 5 to 16 years of age, and some few good Democrats and Republicans. The speaking was of the quality known as common to fair. Documents in defense of Coffroth's scaly record were freely circulated and it is amusing to notice the efforts of the Bourbons to keep from showing by their official expressions what an unwholesome and disgusting morsel it is to them. Mr. Turner the leader of the sore-heads says that the Democratic party of Somerset county is an organization of the past. Has the Democratic party died out, or have the sore-heads, and what is the price? is the problem for solution. A Mr. C. Walker who was among the orators and who delivered a harangue in favor of "flat" money, also made a further contribution to the evening's amusement by singing a song laudatory of the "flat Greenback, and the singing, like the oratory, was of as equally a poor quality. The filing of a saw, the squeak of a pig, and the melodious tones of a frog, all taking place at the same time, would contain less discord. But little enthusiasm was manifested.

At the conclusion of the entertainment, and as the audience rushed from the room, an effort was made to give three cheers for the cause. It was weak from the commencement, and the last one, which should have been the best, was by one voice, and that sounded as if produced by some one sick at the stomach—cause, no doubt, the record of the sorcheads. The physician will deliver his opinion on the 5th of November. Yours, etc.,

FEWZ.

WELLERSBURG, PA., Oct. 26, 1878.

IN MEMORIAM.—Resolutions of respect by Confluence M. E. Sabbath school.

To the officers, teachers and pupils of the M. E. Sunday-school of Confluence:

We, your committee, appointed to draft resolutions for this school, appropriate to the life and character of Jennie, daughter of Albert G. and Esther Black, whom it pleased Almighty God to call from time to eternity on the fifth inst., at the age of 20 years, 7 months and 1 day, submit the following:

Resolved, That in the death of Jennie Black, this Sunday-school has lost a highly respected and eminently useful and worthy member. Her untiring labors and unbounded zeal as a Sunday-school worker made her especially useful to the school, and we deeply deplore her untimely death. Her amiable disposition, her nobility of soul, and spotless purity of character, eminently qualified her for the noble work of faith and love in which she was so earnestly engaged. Her labor of love and charity was never grudgingly bestowed, but with a will and cheerfulness that made duty, no matter how laborious, a pleasure.

Though it was her lot to die while the dew of beauty and vigor of youth dwelt upon her brow, yet she was far advanced in a true Christian experience, and, in deeds of kindness and genuine benevolence, such as in the history of this school, will shine forth as a glittering gem, and crown her life with the memory of pleasing recollections.

Resolved, That we as a school do hereby express our deep sympathy for the family of which she once formed a part and her large circle of friends, whose lot it is to mourn her early death.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished the family, and that they also be published in the county papers.

CYNTHIA FRANTZ,
B. A. FICHTNER,
M. A. ROSS,
Committee.

EXTRA LIABILITY TO MALARIAL INFECTION.—Persons whose blood is thin, digestion weak, and liver sluggish, are extra liable to the attacks of malarial disease. The most trifling exposure may, under such conditions, infect a system which, if healty, would resist the miasmatic taint. The only way to secure immunity from malaria in localities where it is prevalent, is to tone and regulate the system by improving weakened digestion, enriching the blood, and giving a wholesome impetus to biliary secretion. These results are accomplished by nothing so effectively as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which long experience has proved to be the most reliable safeguard against fever and ague and kindred disorders, as well as the best remedy for them. The Bitters are, moreover, an excellent invigorant of the organs of urination, and an active depurent, eliminating from the blood those acrid impurities which originate rheumatic ailments.

ZANES CITY COLLEGE.—The attention of our readers is called to the advertisement in another column of this popular and successful business college. It is an institution which has stood the test of time, and is every where recognized as unsurpassed in the advantages it affords young men for acquiring a thorough practical business education.

HONEY.—Why it is the purest sweet in the world. It is, and has been, used in the healing art, to the satisfaction of thousands. Who can say ought of white, beautiful honey, gathered from the countless thousands of the splendid flowers that adorn our fields and gardens. HOREHOUND! What mother lives that is not acquainted with its virtues in banishing Coughs and Colds from the family; why, it is so well known that every candy shop would lose its custom unless horehound candy occupied a place, and the most prominent place in every show-case. TAR looks black, and ladies raise their skirts for fear of getting their clothes soiled, yet it is the vegetable production of the beautiful pine tree that grows in our southern forests, and by the aid of chemistry it is found to contain medicinal qualities universally admitted by physicians of the highest standing. Its preserving qualities are well understood by every ship owner; and when contagious, disease and death infect their vessels they fumigate the pointed ship from stem to stern with tar, thus removing the demon of disease and death, insuring the health and life of every passenger on board. HONEY, HOREHOUND AND TAR, combined together, aided by science and the highest chemical skill, form a remedy admitted by the most experienced physicians as the best, most certain and harmless preparation ever made for the radical and speedy cure of Coughs, Colds, Horseness, Influenza, and all Bronchial affections leading to Consumption, from which thousands are suffering. This valuable remedy is known as

HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR.

AN ASTONISHING FACT.—A large proportion of the American people are to day dying from the effects of Dyspepsia or disordered liver. The result of these diseases upon the masses of intelligent and valuable people is most alarming, making life actually a burden instead of a pleasant existence of enjoyment and usefulness as it ought to be. There is no good reason for this, if you will only throw aside prejudice and skepticism, take the advice of Druggists and your friends, and try one bottle of Green's August Flower. Your speedy relief is certain. Millions of battles of this medicine have been given away to try its virtues, with satisfactory results in every case. You can buy a sample bottle for 10 cents to try. Three doses will relieve the worst case. Positively sold by all Druggists on the Western Continent.
