

Another Indian war is among the probabilities of the near future.

What a gratifying sight it will be to see Jeff Davis drawing a pension from the United States Treasury...

Now Mr. President, a little more of the metal, that rang so truly in the ears of the Anti-Chinese bill...

The sale of the four per cent bonds already amount to over four millions of dollars.

The Democrats claim a majority of six over Republicans and Greenbackers in the next House...

The fact that the South is sold for the Democracy, is of little consequence, if care is taken to make the North solidly Republican.

Every election this year will have its influence on the campaign of 1880. There should therefore be no encouragement given to side issues or third parties.

The Potter Committee expended $30,000 in finding out that Tilden is such a poor old noodle that he didn't know that his nephew Polton...

It is clear that his barrel is not empty, as no sellers were barred, and therefore they are determined to have another whack at it.

We suppose that on the 18th inst. the country will witness the spectacle of Mr. A. A. Hall of the Second Florida district holding up his hand and being sworn in as a member of Congress...

The extra session of Congress has been forced because the Republicans refused to permit the last bar to fraud and chicanery to be swept from the statute books...

When during the war of the rebellion, every soldier by used to sing "We'll hang Jeff Davis on a sour apple tree" no sane man thought he would ever live to see the crime of this chief traitor condoned...

It is not without cause that the Democrats insist that there shall be no more Federal Supervisors. Under the advocacy of "free elections" they want to be assured that they may with impunity perpetrate the frauds which have again and again made New York a Democratic State...

We hope the President will positively refuse to trade or palter with these men. Let them attempt their building process if they please. Every day they maintain this attitude adds to the certainty of a solid North, which will soon sink the party responsible for the revolution beyond the reach of lead or plummet.

We are painfully aware that what was formerly held to be the well defined and separate duties of the Executive, Legislative, and Judicial branches of the Government, State and National—are becoming inextricably mixed and confused in the minds of latter day statesmen.

in our National Legislature we have the spectacle of the lower House trying to coerce the Executive into acquiescence in the repeal of a portion of the general election laws...

As the law now stands, the counties of Philadelphia and Allegheny are amenable for damages occasioned by reason of riots within their limits.

We pray the Republican Legislature of Pennsylvania not to make an ass of itself (financially) as did the Democratic Congress just adjourned.

We live in a world of changes, and no man knows what a day may bring forth. The pertinent inquiry of the hour is, will the Republican party quietly admit that all the costs of the late war were incurred in vain.

Little importance can be attached to the mild remonstrances of prominent Democrats against the Rev. Mr. Washburn's tactics of the majority in the late House of Representatives.

The railroad has a large and active lobby at Harrisburg, urging the passage of the bill appropriating four millions of dollars to pay it for alleged losses by the Pittsburgh riots...

It is contempered, may, determined on, to vote four millions to the Pennsylvania road to pay riot losses, to be followed—and justly so, if the precedent be established—by the payment of at least four millions more...

So far as it is possible now to judge, the worst elements of the party will be relatively stronger in the new House than in the one which inaugurated the contest.

It is evident that two of the three causes of difference between the parties were, on the side of the Democrats, clauy pretexts. All the solemn commonplaces in regard to the military power at elections, and the necessity of binding it by a specific provision in the Army Appropriation bill, are lumber.

It is not without cause that the Democrats insist that there shall be no more Federal Supervisors. Under the advocacy of "free elections" they want to be assured that they may with impunity perpetrate the frauds which have again and again made New York a Democratic State...

When during the war of the rebellion, every soldier by used to sing "We'll hang Jeff Davis on a sour apple tree" no sane man thought he would ever live to see the crime of this chief traitor condoned...

It is not without cause that the Democrats insist that there shall be no more Federal Supervisors. Under the advocacy of "free elections" they want to be assured that they may with impunity perpetrate the frauds which have again and again made New York a Democratic State...

We hope the President will positively refuse to trade or palter with these men. Let them attempt their building process if they please. Every day they maintain this attitude adds to the certainty of a solid North, which will soon sink the party responsible for the revolution beyond the reach of lead or plummet.

We are painfully aware that what was formerly held to be the well defined and separate duties of the Executive, Legislative, and Judicial branches of the Government, State and National—are becoming inextricably mixed and confused in the minds of latter day statesmen.

Thus the Brookhaven (Miss.) Lady.

er boasts that it was the "first to advocate his election to the United States Senate," and says: "Mississippi could not do itself a greater honor than to elect Mr. Davis. His patriotism his admirer; he is rich in honor; his life has been spent in serving his people."

As the law now stands, the counties of Philadelphia and Allegheny are amenable for damages occasioned by reason of riots within their limits.

We pray the Republican Legislature of Pennsylvania not to make an ass of itself (financially) as did the Democratic Congress just adjourned.

We live in a world of changes, and no man knows what a day may bring forth. The pertinent inquiry of the hour is, will the Republican party quietly admit that all the costs of the late war were incurred in vain.

Little importance can be attached to the mild remonstrances of prominent Democrats against the Rev. Mr. Washburn's tactics of the majority in the late House of Representatives.

The railroad has a large and active lobby at Harrisburg, urging the passage of the bill appropriating four millions of dollars to pay it for alleged losses by the Pittsburgh riots...

It is contempered, may, determined on, to vote four millions to the Pennsylvania road to pay riot losses, to be followed—and justly so, if the precedent be established—by the payment of at least four millions more...

So far as it is possible now to judge, the worst elements of the party will be relatively stronger in the new House than in the one which inaugurated the contest.

It is evident that two of the three causes of difference between the parties were, on the side of the Democrats, clauy pretexts. All the solemn commonplaces in regard to the military power at elections, and the necessity of binding it by a specific provision in the Army Appropriation bill, are lumber.

It is not without cause that the Democrats insist that there shall be no more Federal Supervisors. Under the advocacy of "free elections" they want to be assured that they may with impunity perpetrate the frauds which have again and again made New York a Democratic State...

When during the war of the rebellion, every soldier by used to sing "We'll hang Jeff Davis on a sour apple tree" no sane man thought he would ever live to see the crime of this chief traitor condoned...

It is not without cause that the Democrats insist that there shall be no more Federal Supervisors. Under the advocacy of "free elections" they want to be assured that they may with impunity perpetrate the frauds which have again and again made New York a Democratic State...

We hope the President will positively refuse to trade or palter with these men. Let them attempt their building process if they please. Every day they maintain this attitude adds to the certainty of a solid North, which will soon sink the party responsible for the revolution beyond the reach of lead or plummet.

We are painfully aware that what was formerly held to be the well defined and separate duties of the Executive, Legislative, and Judicial branches of the Government, State and National—are becoming inextricably mixed and confused in the minds of latter day statesmen.

Thus the Brookhaven (Miss.) Lady.

able to hope for deliverance by a special intercession of Providence as to those who have gone so far, the Democratic majority will be low their purpose to be thwarted by considerations of poverty or by constitutional scruples.

As the law now stands, the counties of Philadelphia and Allegheny are amenable for damages occasioned by reason of riots within their limits.

We pray the Republican Legislature of Pennsylvania not to make an ass of itself (financially) as did the Democratic Congress just adjourned.

We live in a world of changes, and no man knows what a day may bring forth. The pertinent inquiry of the hour is, will the Republican party quietly admit that all the costs of the late war were incurred in vain.

Little importance can be attached to the mild remonstrances of prominent Democrats against the Rev. Mr. Washburn's tactics of the majority in the late House of Representatives.

The railroad has a large and active lobby at Harrisburg, urging the passage of the bill appropriating four millions of dollars to pay it for alleged losses by the Pittsburgh riots...

It is contempered, may, determined on, to vote four millions to the Pennsylvania road to pay riot losses, to be followed—and justly so, if the precedent be established—by the payment of at least four millions more...

So far as it is possible now to judge, the worst elements of the party will be relatively stronger in the new House than in the one which inaugurated the contest.

It is evident that two of the three causes of difference between the parties were, on the side of the Democrats, clauy pretexts. All the solemn commonplaces in regard to the military power at elections, and the necessity of binding it by a specific provision in the Army Appropriation bill, are lumber.

It is not without cause that the Democrats insist that there shall be no more Federal Supervisors. Under the advocacy of "free elections" they want to be assured that they may with impunity perpetrate the frauds which have again and again made New York a Democratic State...

When during the war of the rebellion, every soldier by used to sing "We'll hang Jeff Davis on a sour apple tree" no sane man thought he would ever live to see the crime of this chief traitor condoned...

It is not without cause that the Democrats insist that there shall be no more Federal Supervisors. Under the advocacy of "free elections" they want to be assured that they may with impunity perpetrate the frauds which have again and again made New York a Democratic State...

We hope the President will positively refuse to trade or palter with these men. Let them attempt their building process if they please. Every day they maintain this attitude adds to the certainty of a solid North, which will soon sink the party responsible for the revolution beyond the reach of lead or plummet.

We are painfully aware that what was formerly held to be the well defined and separate duties of the Executive, Legislative, and Judicial branches of the Government, State and National—are becoming inextricably mixed and confused in the minds of latter day statesmen.

Thus the Brookhaven (Miss.) Lady.

PHILADELPHIA, March 8, 1878. DEAR HERALD.—The news of your Philadelphia just now is a cooling lecture, illustrated by pots and pans and the preparation in public of some of the other, with a running commentary to the effect, "The lady who gives those instructive lectures is English, and she dishes out her news to make us know the average American appetite."

As the law now stands, the counties of Philadelphia and Allegheny are amenable for damages occasioned by reason of riots within their limits.

We pray the Republican Legislature of Pennsylvania not to make an ass of itself (financially) as did the Democratic Congress just adjourned.

We live in a world of changes, and no man knows what a day may bring forth. The pertinent inquiry of the hour is, will the Republican party quietly admit that all the costs of the late war were incurred in vain.

Little importance can be attached to the mild remonstrances of prominent Democrats against the Rev. Mr. Washburn's tactics of the majority in the late House of Representatives.

The railroad has a large and active lobby at Harrisburg, urging the passage of the bill appropriating four millions of dollars to pay it for alleged losses by the Pittsburgh riots...

It is contempered, may, determined on, to vote four millions to the Pennsylvania road to pay riot losses, to be followed—and justly so, if the precedent be established—by the payment of at least four millions more...

So far as it is possible now to judge, the worst elements of the party will be relatively stronger in the new House than in the one which inaugurated the contest.

It is evident that two of the three causes of difference between the parties were, on the side of the Democrats, clauy pretexts. All the solemn commonplaces in regard to the military power at elections, and the necessity of binding it by a specific provision in the Army Appropriation bill, are lumber.

It is not without cause that the Democrats insist that there shall be no more Federal Supervisors. Under the advocacy of "free elections" they want to be assured that they may with impunity perpetrate the frauds which have again and again made New York a Democratic State...

When during the war of the rebellion, every soldier by used to sing "We'll hang Jeff Davis on a sour apple tree" no sane man thought he would ever live to see the crime of this chief traitor condoned...

It is not without cause that the Democrats insist that there shall be no more Federal Supervisors. Under the advocacy of "free elections" they want to be assured that they may with impunity perpetrate the frauds which have again and again made New York a Democratic State...

We hope the President will positively refuse to trade or palter with these men. Let them attempt their building process if they please. Every day they maintain this attitude adds to the certainty of a solid North, which will soon sink the party responsible for the revolution beyond the reach of lead or plummet.

We are painfully aware that what was formerly held to be the well defined and separate duties of the Executive, Legislative, and Judicial branches of the Government, State and National—are becoming inextricably mixed and confused in the minds of latter day statesmen.

Thus the Brookhaven (Miss.) Lady.

THE BLACK DEATH.

PRECAUTIONS AGAINST THE DREAD DISEASE.

A dispatch from Washington says the following circular was issued in that city yesterday: TREASURY DEPARTMENT.—OFFICE OF THE SURGEON GENERAL, UNITED STATES MARINE HOSPITAL SERVICE.

As the law now stands, the counties of Philadelphia and Allegheny are amenable for damages occasioned by reason of riots within their limits.

We pray the Republican Legislature of Pennsylvania not to make an ass of itself (financially) as did the Democratic Congress just adjourned.

We live in a world of changes, and no man knows what a day may bring forth. The pertinent inquiry of the hour is, will the Republican party quietly admit that all the costs of the late war were incurred in vain.

Little importance can be attached to the mild remonstrances of prominent Democrats against the Rev. Mr. Washburn's tactics of the majority in the late House of Representatives.

The railroad has a large and active lobby at Harrisburg, urging the passage of the bill appropriating four millions of dollars to pay it for alleged losses by the Pittsburgh riots...

It is contempered, may, determined on, to vote four millions to the Pennsylvania road to pay riot losses, to be followed—and justly so, if the precedent be established—by the payment of at least four millions more...

So far as it is possible now to judge, the worst elements of the party will be relatively stronger in the new House than in the one which inaugurated the contest.

It is evident that two of the three causes of difference between the parties were, on the side of the Democrats, clauy pretexts. All the solemn commonplaces in regard to the military power at elections, and the necessity of binding it by a specific provision in the Army Appropriation bill, are lumber.

It is not without cause that the Democrats insist that there shall be no more Federal Supervisors. Under the advocacy of "free elections" they want to be assured that they may with impunity perpetrate the frauds which have again and again made New York a Democratic State...

When during the war of the rebellion, every soldier by used to sing "We'll hang Jeff Davis on a sour apple tree" no sane man thought he would ever live to see the crime of this chief traitor condoned...

It is not without cause that the Democrats insist that there shall be no more Federal Supervisors. Under the advocacy of "free elections" they want to be assured that they may with impunity perpetrate the frauds which have again and again made New York a Democratic State...

We hope the President will positively refuse to trade or palter with these men. Let them attempt their building process if they please. Every day they maintain this attitude adds to the certainty of a solid North, which will soon sink the party responsible for the revolution beyond the reach of lead or plummet.

We are painfully aware that what was formerly held to be the well defined and separate duties of the Executive, Legislative, and Judicial branches of the Government, State and National—are becoming inextricably mixed and confused in the minds of latter day statesmen.

Thus the Brookhaven (Miss.) Lady.

A Quadrangular Duel.

In the annals of deadly affairs in this State we know of no occasion so fatal in its results as that which occurred on board of the steamer Sandlower, while lying at Johnsonville, the county seat of Sandlower County.

As the law now stands, the counties of Philadelphia and Allegheny are amenable for damages occasioned by reason of riots within their limits.

We pray the Republican Legislature of Pennsylvania not to make an ass of itself (financially) as did the Democratic Congress just adjourned.

We live in a world of changes, and no man knows what a day may bring forth. The pertinent inquiry of the hour is, will the Republican party quietly admit that all the costs of the late war were incurred in vain.

Little importance can be attached to the mild remonstrances of prominent Democrats against the Rev. Mr. Washburn's tactics of the majority in the late House of Representatives.

The railroad has a large and active lobby at Harrisburg, urging the passage of the bill appropriating four millions of dollars to pay it for alleged losses by the Pittsburgh riots...

It is contempered, may, determined on, to vote four millions to the Pennsylvania road to pay riot losses, to be followed—and justly so, if the precedent be established—by the payment of at least four millions more...

So far as it is possible now to judge, the worst elements of the party will be relatively stronger in the new House than in the one which inaugurated the contest.

It is evident that two of the three causes of difference between the parties were, on the side of the Democrats, clauy pretexts. All the solemn commonplaces in regard to the military power at elections, and the necessity of binding it by a specific provision in the Army Appropriation bill, are lumber.

It is not without cause that the Democrats insist that there shall be no more Federal Supervisors. Under the advocacy of "free elections" they want to be assured that they may with impunity perpetrate the frauds which have again and again made New York a Democratic State...

When during the war of the rebellion, every soldier by used to sing "We'll hang Jeff Davis on a sour apple tree" no sane man thought he would ever live to see the crime of this chief traitor condoned...

It is not without cause that the Democrats insist that there shall be no more Federal Supervisors. Under the advocacy of "free elections" they want to be assured that they may with impunity perpetrate the frauds which have again and again made New York a Democratic State...

We hope the President will positively refuse to trade or palter with these men. Let them attempt their building process if they please. Every day they maintain this attitude adds to the certainty of a solid North, which will soon sink the party responsible for the revolution beyond the reach of lead or plummet.

We are painfully aware that what was formerly held to be the well defined and separate duties of the Executive, Legislative, and Judicial branches of the Government, State and National—are becoming inextricably mixed and confused in the minds of latter day statesmen.

Thus the Brookhaven (Miss.) Lady.

THE PRESIDENT DIRECTS THE FORTY-SIXTH CONGRESS TO ASSEMBLE ON THE 18TH INSTANT.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The following is the proclamation of the President, convening Congress in extra session on the 18th instant: By the President of the United States of America.

As the law now stands, the counties of Philadelphia and Allegheny are amenable for damages occasioned by reason of riots within their limits.

We pray the Republican Legislature of Pennsylvania not to make an ass of itself (financially) as did the Democratic Congress just adjourned.

We live in a world of changes, and no man knows what a day may bring forth. The pertinent inquiry of the hour is, will the Republican party quietly admit that all the costs of the late war were incurred in vain.

Little importance can be attached to the mild remonstrances of prominent Democrats against the Rev. Mr. Washburn's tactics of the majority in the late House of Representatives.

The railroad has a large and active lobby at Harrisburg, urging the passage of the bill appropriating four millions of dollars to pay it for alleged losses by the Pittsburgh riots...

It is contempered, may, determined on, to vote four millions to the Pennsylvania road to pay riot losses, to be followed—and justly so, if the precedent be established—by the payment of at least four millions more...

So far as it is possible now to judge, the worst elements of the party will be relatively stronger in the new House than in the one which inaugurated the contest.

It is evident that two of the three causes of difference between the parties were, on the side of the Democrats, clauy pretexts. All the solemn commonplaces in regard to the military power at elections, and the necessity of binding it by a specific provision in the Army Appropriation bill, are lumber.

It is not without cause that the Democrats insist that there shall be no more Federal Supervisors. Under the advocacy of "free elections" they want to be assured that they may with impunity perpetrate the frauds which have again and again made New York a Democratic State...

When during the war of the rebellion, every soldier by used to sing "We'll hang Jeff Davis on a sour apple tree" no sane man thought he would ever live to see the crime of this chief traitor condoned...

It is not without cause that the Democrats insist that there shall be no more Federal Supervisors. Under the advocacy of "free elections" they want to be assured that they may with impunity perpetrate the frauds which have again and again made New York a Democratic State...

We hope the President will positively refuse to trade or palter with these men. Let them attempt their building process if they please. Every day they maintain this attitude adds to the certainty of a solid North, which will soon sink the party responsible for the revolution beyond the reach of lead or plummet.

We are painfully aware that what was formerly held to be the well defined and separate duties of the Executive, Legislative, and Judicial branches of the Government, State and National—are becoming inextricably mixed and confused in the minds of latter day statesmen.

Thus the Brookhaven (Miss.) Lady.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

THE CHEAPEST HARDWARE STORE WEST OF THE ALLEGHENY MOUNTAINS.

BYERS & BARNETT, SUCCESSORS TO JOHN F. BRYMER, SOMERSET, PA.

We take pleasure in announcing to the public that we have JUST RECEIVED a large and complete stock of Hardware, which we intend to sell at PRICES TO SUIT THE TIMES! Our stock is complete in all respects, and comprises every article usually kept in Hardware Stores.

Blacksmiths' tools and supplies, such as Iron, Norway Nail Rod, Vulcan Horse-nails, Taper Taps, Horse Shoes, Fine Sleigh-shoes and Cast Steel, A full line of Best Norway Iron, Carriage and Tire Bolts, and Axle Clips.

BUILDERS' HARDWARE, comprising a full line of Rim and Mortise Locks, Cast and Wrought Butts, acorned and plain, a complete stock of Nails always on hand, also a full assortment of Glass.

CARPENTERS' TOOLS. We have always on hand a complete stock of Saws both Hand and Cross-cut, Axes, Hatchets, Hammers Steel and Try Squares, Compasses, Bench and Fancy Planes etc.

We always keep a full line of Revolvers, Pistols, Shot-guns Powder-flasks, Shot-pouches, Cartridges, Caps, Wads, Rifle and Shot-gun Powder, and a full line of Gun Repairs.

We have a complete line of Lamps, Lanterns, and supplies A full line of Saddlery Hardware, comprising Saddle-tree Buckles, Rings, Harness-pads, Ornaments, etc.

In the Agricultural Department we have a full stock of Forks, Shovels, Rope, Chains, Mane and Carry-Combs, Horse-brushes, etc.

We make a specialty of Pocket and Table Cutlery. Also Silver Plated Table Ware, Plated and Britannia Spoons.

We also make a specialty of Paints, Oils, and Varnishes, and also Painters' Tools, etc.

We keep constantly on hand the Celebrated Cucumber Pump, (porcelain lined) and a cheaper quality that are not lined. This Pump has taken the lead of all others wherever introduced.

All goods warranted to be as represented. Our principles are Fair Dealing, Quick Sales, and Small Profits. We challenge competition. Call and examine goods, and ascertain prices before purchasing elsewhere.

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED. BYERS & BARNETT, SHRIVER BROTHERS, BUTTER COMMISSION MERCHANTS, No. 63 South Street, BALTIMORE, MD.

KEEPER BY PERMISSION TO FIRST NATIONAL BANK, and WESTERN NATIONAL BANK, of Baltimore, and CHEMICAL NATIONAL BANK, New York. Cards can be had at the EXPRESS OFFICE, Somerset, Pa.