

When off to war hestarted; Eut what is that compared to you -For you are lion-hearted. You promised, Alec, don't forget, To introduce that bill, sir, And have resumption squelched at once Do shove your potent quill, sir. We're waiting patiently, you know, And hope to see you trying: For abolitioners all say That you were only lying. And, Alec, keep those scums away, The soldiers Mayes created, For if they're here on 'lection day We'll all be 'timidated. The tarnal rogues, we know them well, They sport upon big bounties; And then they'll run the country o'cr. Full one for seven counties Tis awful just to contemplate; We're getting pockets in our pants, And bolts to bar our houses. For if they come, you know full well-These lines are not affected-They'll shut us up in prison pens, And you can't be elected. Do keep your documents at home, It is too horrifying, To read about the best of men, In Fed'ral prisons dying! When the so-called Rebellion was We had such awful trouble, And now, if Hayes's soldiers come, We know we shall have double. at Alexander Hamilton Dear sir, and mighty esquire, When you get home from Washington, We'll raise you one round higher. -Cade We take the following from the Cumberland News, of the 29th inst. A few minutes after twelve o'clock yes-pants, meet me by moonlight alone, water-melons, excursions, files, gnats, mosquitoes, toads, spiders, and garden truck generally is at hand.
