lird songs out of the sunlit oak Bird songs out of the sunlit eak
Fall rippling through the shadow,
Like a spear of fiame the cardinal flower
Burned out along the meadow.
Into our hearts the blithe winds blew,
Its own free gladness giving,
And all things lengthed in the happy earth,
For the pure sweet joy of living. Two roused on with their eyes nilght,

Two in a revel of golden life,
Looked spither before nor after.
One went dreaming with downcast face
Through the hush of the woolland cover.
But one praised God from a trembling heart That the shadow of pale was over. -Soudey After

TOINETTE.
