

"They who lie down with the dogs will get up with fleas," has been verified in the case of General Ben Butler...

GENERAL GRANT is daily expected to arrive in San Francisco, and doubtless before this paper is received by its readers...

The Convention which met in the Court House, in Somerset on Tuesday, September 10th, to make certain changes in the system of nominating candidates...

Now that the rules have been amended, let all good Republicans set their faces like flint against every attempt to violate even the most trivial of them...

SPEAKING of the rent and torn condition of the Democratic party, upon principles, and sold only in the South, where the shot-gun and the tissue ballot suppresses all expression of opinion...

The Maine Legislature has a Republican majority of thirty-seven on joint ballot. The Senate has 19 Republicans to 12 Opposition, and in the House, 90 Republicans to 60 Opposition.

The Democrats are overburdened with family quarrels. In Ohio, Thurman, Ewing and Pendleton are cutting one another's throats.

WASHINGTON, September 19.—The following dispatch is from C. Hatch, at Santa Fe, N. M.: I have just received from Mr. Evers, near Hillsboro: We had a five hours' fight with 100 Indians. We have 10 killed and several wounded.

NEW YORK, September 19.—A dispatch has been received here from Havana to the effect that the slaves of Cienfuegos, Cinco Villas, Cuba, have risen in rebellion against the Spaniards...

Speaking of the trial, the Philadelphia Press, says: A base or more cowardly murder than that of Judge Chisholm of Mississippi, his daughter and son and other friends was never committed. It was brutal in the extreme, and attended with every aggravation which could lead horror to the real.

THE CITY WILD WITH EXCITEMENT. Scenes at the Landing and at the Palace Hotel.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 20.—The first tap of the bell and hoisting of the flag on the Merchants' Exchange, announcing the approach of the City of Tokio...

At the moment the alarm giving notice of the approach of the City of Tokio was given, the Executive Committee having charge of the demonstration were in session at the Palace Hotel, warmly discussing the question of carrying out the program...

NEARLY the whole amount of the gold imported, which, up to Saturday last reached $22,000,000 went direct to the hands of merchants. The bills for cotton are not included in these imports, and the calculation now is that when these are drawn for on Liverpool brokers, the imports of gold will reach the enormous sum of $50,000,000.

THIRTY-THREE papers in Mississippi applauded the murder of Dixon by Barksdale and a larger number glory in the acquittal of the murderer of Cornelius Chisholm as the vindication of an innocent man.

There is a nice little game going on in Ohio. Ewing trading off Thurman, and vice versa. This puts the Democratic fight in a shape like that of the Kilkenny cats. But what will it all matter in the end?

The Democrats are overburdened with family quarrels. In Ohio, Thurman, Ewing and Pendleton are cutting one another's throats. In New York Tilden and Kelly are clinched in a death struggle; and in Massachusetts, Butler is likely to capture bodily a large portion of the camp, leaving a small minority powerless to do anything except to make faces at him.

WASHINGTON, September 19.—The following dispatch is from C. Hatch, at Santa Fe, N. M.: I have just received from Mr. Evers, near Hillsboro: We had a five hours' fight with 100 Indians. We have 10 killed and several wounded.

NEW YORK, September 19.—A dispatch has been received here from Havana to the effect that the slaves of Cienfuegos, Cinco Villas, Cuba, have risen in rebellion against the Spaniards...

Speaking of the trial, the Philadelphia Press, says: A base or more cowardly murder

Arrival of General Grant at San Francisco.

San Francisco, Sept. 20. The first tap of the bell and hoisting of the flag on the Merchants' Exchange, announcing the approach of the City of Tokio...

At the moment the alarm giving notice of the approach of the City of Tokio was given, the Executive Committee having charge of the demonstration were in session at the Palace Hotel, warmly discussing the question of carrying out the program...

NEARLY the whole amount of the gold imported, which, up to Saturday last reached $22,000,000 went direct to the hands of merchants. The bills for cotton are not included in these imports, and the calculation now is that when these are drawn for on Liverpool brokers, the imports of gold will reach the enormous sum of $50,000,000.

THIRTY-THREE papers in Mississippi applauded the murder of Dixon by Barksdale and a larger number glory in the acquittal of the murderer of Cornelius Chisholm as the vindication of an innocent man.

There is a nice little game going on in Ohio. Ewing trading off Thurman, and vice versa. This puts the Democratic fight in a shape like that of the Kilkenny cats. But what will it all matter in the end?

The Democrats are overburdened with family quarrels. In Ohio, Thurman, Ewing and Pendleton are cutting one another's throats. In New York Tilden and Kelly are clinched in a death struggle; and in Massachusetts, Butler is likely to capture bodily a large portion of the camp, leaving a small minority powerless to do anything except to make faces at him.

WASHINGTON, September 19.—The following dispatch is from C. Hatch, at Santa Fe, N. M.: I have just received from Mr. Evers, near Hillsboro: We had a five hours' fight with 100 Indians. We have 10 killed and several wounded.

NEW YORK, September 19.—A dispatch has been received here from Havana to the effect that the slaves of Cienfuegos, Cinco Villas, Cuba, have risen in rebellion against the Spaniards...

Speaking of the trial, the Philadelphia Press, says: A base or more cowardly murder

Speaking of the trial, the Philadelphia Press, says: A base or more cowardly murder

Speaking of the trial, the Philadelphia Press, says: A base or more cowardly murder while the various committees and other good men in attendance repaired to their own carriages. The gates of the dock were then thrown open and the vehicles moved forward and took their places in the line.

Amid tremendous cheering of the crowd, discharges of cannon, ringing of bells and screaming of whistles, the procession started up Market street. Bonfires blazed at street corners, illuminations lit up every window, and the glare of roman candles and electric lights made the broad thoroughfares as bright as day.

Continuing through the procession, the crowd moved up Market street to Montgomery and turned down the latter street. Crowds blocked the sidewalk. Cheers after cheers rolled along the whole line of the procession.

At this point the carriage containing the General was drawn up, while the procession marched on. After a short delay, the General was driven to the Palace Hotel, where he was met by a large number of his friends.

At this point the carriage containing the General was drawn up, while the procession marched on. After a short delay, the General was driven to the Palace Hotel, where he was met by a large number of his friends.

At this point the carriage containing the General was drawn up, while the procession marched on. After a short delay, the General was driven to the Palace Hotel, where he was met by a large number of his friends.

At this point the carriage containing the General was drawn up, while the procession marched on. After a short delay, the General was driven to the Palace Hotel, where he was met by a large number of his friends.

At this point the carriage containing the General was drawn up, while the procession marched on. After a short delay, the General was driven to the Palace Hotel, where he was met by a large number of his friends.

At this point the carriage containing the General was drawn up, while the procession marched on. After a short delay, the General was driven to the Palace Hotel, where he was met by a large number of his friends.

At this point the carriage containing the General was drawn up, while the procession marched on. After a short delay, the General was driven to the Palace Hotel, where he was met by a large number of his friends.

At this point the carriage containing the General was drawn up, while the procession marched on. After a short delay, the General was driven to the Palace Hotel, where he was met by a large number of his friends.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20 1879. Everything here is now in motion, and next month the long talked of National Fair will be open, there is expected to catch many of Somerset county's lads and ladies on the wing and show them the city of magnificent distances.

Under that you may know what it is to see and how it will be to tell you what you can see in one week. On the first day you must scale the dome of the Capitol where all lovers go, examine and criticize the large oil paintings and other works of art in the rotunda.

On the second day you must visit the Senate Chamber, and if you are in the mood to see the old and young, invariably look back after passing to see what she has on. The old man want to add a word or two of advice on political management as they pass, and the young folks want to see what she has on.

On the third day you must visit the fair grounds at Ivy City. Get home about dark, boys to the theatre company, girls to boys.

On the fourth day visit the naval observatory and look at the heavens through the largest telescope in the world; see the old clock from which all the time in the United States is regulated, besides thousands of other curiosities.

On the fifth day visit the U. S. Arsenal early in the morning, then take the early o'clock boat for Mount Vernon, 18 miles down the river. Passing the old dilapidated town of Alexandria, which has declined to the ruins of the roof of which Col. Ellsworth was killed for tearing down the nasty dirty rag of the Confederacy in the early part of the war of the rebellion.

On the sixth and last day during the morning visit the Army and Navy Yard and Marine Barracks. Government Printing Office, then the fair and races in the afternoon. If you get back in time take a promenade to the President's mansion between five and six o'clock and see and hear the famous Marine Band. The President's Garden at night, then if your money is all it is time for you to go home.

Although the President is ready to receive callers at an early hour he has a few minutes to spare, by a few Members of Congress and the President's advisers walk past the doorkeepers without showing their cards. Other visitors must send their card in by the doorkeeper. Sometimes there are as many as twenty people waiting for the President to receive them.

Chicago, Sept. 19.—A special despatch from Quincy, Ill., to the Journal says: "An incoming passenger train on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad, at 9:40 last night, was wrecked seven miles from Quincy, Ill., by a heavy rain. A passenger car, in which some malicious person had bound across the track A. N. Pease, Freeman, was instantly killed, James McMillan badly hurt, and postal clerks Pierce and Gillis, severely injured. The postal and baggage cars were badly wrecked and overturned, and all their occupants more or less bruised. The passengers were considerably shaken up, but none seriously injured."

Turn into Fragments. WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—The Benwood and West Wheeling is closed today on account of the funeral of John A. Atomeyer, a fifteen year old son of Manager Jacob Atomeyer, who was killed yesterday afternoon by being caught in one of the wheels on the line of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. The train was going around at the rate of 80 revolutions per minute, and the death of the unfortunate lad must have been instantaneous. The first hint of the other workmen had of the accident was from the discordant action of the machinery. A boy was seen below and he came up with the machinery was instantly stopped and Atomeyer on going below was horror struck to find the body of the boy and a piece of an arm on the floor that his son was victim. Only a part of the remains could be recovered for burial.

UNIONTOWNS, Pa., Sept. 19.—I would state for the information of parents who have children in the Soldiers' Orphan School at Donnan Camp, on the mountain near here, that the fire there last night was confined to the barn. The quarters of the children were fortunately not touched, though for a while in imminent danger. The enormous barn, together with 250 tons of hay, 300 bushels of oats and 100 tons of agricultural implements was totally destroyed. Loss about $2,500; insured for $1,300 in the Fayette County Mutual.

remembering the time when he was a happy and fortunate groom. Another clear vision of the occasion was by the hundreds. These and large delegations are received in the East room. There are frequently as many as five hundred people in one of these excursions. The Member of Congress whose constituents they are, arrange with the President for their reception. He gets them in line, and as they file by the President, the member introduces each one and makes lots of votes for the next time.

There is something peculiar about this shaking hands with the President of the United States, and there are peculiar ways of going through the greeting. Some folks seize the President's hand in both of their hands; some grab him about the wrist, and then either shake the hand or they press the hand the greater is the honor they enjoy. The old ladies always stop to ask how Mrs. Hayes is, and when Mrs. Hayes asks the reception the ladies, both old and young, invariably look back after passing to see what she has on.

Now we will have dinner and after that a promenade on Pennsylvania avenue, closing the days labor by attending Ford's Opera House at night.

Third day. Visit the fair grounds at Ivy City. Get home about dark, boys to the theatre company, girls to boys.

Fourth day. Visit the naval observatory and look at the heavens through the largest telescope in the world; see the old clock from which all the time in the United States is regulated, besides thousands of other curiosities.

Fifth day. Visit the U. S. Arsenal early in the morning, then take the early o'clock boat for Mount Vernon, 18 miles down the river. Passing the old dilapidated town of Alexandria, which has declined to the ruins of the roof of which Col. Ellsworth was killed for tearing down the nasty dirty rag of the Confederacy in the early part of the war of the rebellion.

Sixth and last day. During the morning visit the Army and Navy Yard and Marine Barracks. Government Printing Office, then the fair and races in the afternoon. If you get back in time take a promenade to the President's mansion between five and six o'clock and see and hear the famous Marine Band. The President's Garden at night, then if your money is all it is time for you to go home.

Although the President is ready to receive callers at an early hour he has a few minutes to spare, by a few Members of Congress and the President's advisers walk past the doorkeepers without showing their cards. Other visitors must send their card in by the doorkeeper. Sometimes there are as many as twenty people waiting for the President to receive them.

Chicago, Sept. 19.—A special despatch from Quincy, Ill., to the Journal says: "An incoming passenger train on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad, at 9:40 last night, was wrecked seven miles from Quincy, Ill., by a heavy rain. A passenger car, in which some malicious person had bound across the track A. N. Pease, Freeman, was instantly killed, James McMillan badly hurt, and postal clerks Pierce and Gillis, severely injured. The postal and baggage cars were badly wrecked and overturned, and all their occupants more or less bruised. The passengers were considerably shaken up, but none seriously injured."

Turn into Fragments. WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—The Benwood and West Wheeling is closed today on account of the funeral of John A. Atomeyer, a fifteen year old son of Manager Jacob Atomeyer, who was killed yesterday afternoon by being caught in one of the wheels on the line of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. The train was going around at the rate of 80 revolutions per minute, and the death of the unfortunate lad must have been instantaneous. The first hint of the other workmen had of the accident was from the discordant action of the machinery. A boy was seen below and he came up with the machinery was instantly stopped and Atomeyer on going below was horror struck to find the body of the boy and a piece of an arm on the floor that his son was victim. Only a part of the remains could be recovered for burial.

UNIONTOWNS, Pa., Sept. 19.—I would state for the information of parents who have children in the Soldiers' Orphan School at Donnan Camp, on the mountain near here, that the fire there last night was confined to the barn. The quarters of the children were fortunately not touched, though for a while in imminent danger. The enormous barn, together with 250 tons of hay, 300 bushels of oats and 100 tons of agricultural implements was totally destroyed. Loss about $2,500; insured for $1,300 in the Fayette County Mutual.

COALBROOK, Va., September 20.—A double tragedy occurred at Paint Creek, Kanawha county, between seven and nine o'clock last night, the lawlessness of which is without parallel in the history of crimes in the Kanawha valley. Two men, named respectively Bob Moore (white) and John Thompson (colored), met in a saloon at the point above named, and after rubbing strong drink to an extent that destroyed their reason, they engaged in an exchange of insulting language, which resulted in a personal encounter, the scene of the conflict being a short distance from the grog-shop in which the quarrel originated. In the melee Thompson, who recently completed a term of two years in the West Virginia penitentiary for shooting and wounding a citizen of Charleston, drew his knife, and inflicted in Moore's neck a wound which resulted in instant death.

Escaping from the scene of his awful crime, he concealed himself under the guards of a small boat close to Moore's to the Paint creek bank of the Kanawha river. The citizens of the neighborhood, hearing of the commission of the act, collected together en masse and went in search of the offender. His whereabouts were soon discovered, and he was taken in custody, conducted a short distance from the point at which he had just taken the life of a fellow being, and there hanged by the neck until he was dead.

Sheriff Rosier, who was notified of the disturbance and probable general outbreak in the neighborhood of Paint creek, went only on the late train going east last night, and succeeded in quieting matters, returning to the city early this morning without, however, obtaining the names of any of the lynchers.

Boston, Sept. 18.—The list of dead taken from the tenement house on Gold street which was burned last night comprises five persons, which may be increased to seven or eight. The old couple who lived on the first floor made their escape in safety, and were not heard of during the night.

The Gillespie family escaped in safety, with the exception of the wife and mother, Mary, a woman fifty years old, who, when she might have been expected to escape, was found lying on the floor, apparently dead. She was taken out in an apparently dying condition, and removed to station No. 6, with the other victims of the fire.

Boston, Sept. 18.—Another body was found this morning at the scene of the Gold street horror. It was that of Rose Majrat, aged sixteen. She was found in one of the upper rooms and had died from suffocation.

The theory of the police regarding the origin of the fire is that it was caused by the overturning or explosion of a kerosene lamp used by Mrs. Gillespie. This woman was drunk last evening and is said to have left the house and called for about six feet, became bewildered and swooned in her room. She was taken out in an apparently dying condition, and removed to station No. 6, with the other victims of the fire.

St. Louis, September 16.—The body of Harry Merritt, a traveler for a soap manufacturer, at Buffalo, or Dayton, Ohio, was found dead, terribly mangled on the track of the Missouri Pacific railroad, near Connor station, Wyandotte county, Kansas. An examination of the body shows that the man had been murdered, he having a pistol ball in his head and a terrible stab in the left breast. He had also been robbed. His body had then been run over by a freight train and nearly torn to pieces.

Detroit, Sept. 18.—President Hayes and wife and two sons, Gen. Sherman, Col. Courteside, Col. Bacon, Maj. McKinley and wife, and Hon. A. Townsend arrived here this morning on the steamer North West, from Cleveland. They were greeted by a National salute, from the guns of the U. S. revenue cutter "Fessenden." The party were met by civic and military dignitaries. At 10 a. m. a formal presentation of the military escort to the President and party to the State Fair grounds, where band music by the assembled throng was again rendered, with a 2 1/2 p. m. the party goes on a trip up and down the river on Congressman Newbury's steam yacht. To-night the popular reception at City Hall will take place. The weather is very damp.

Burning of an Institute. MILWAUKEE, Wis., September 17. Yesterday morning a fire, which was in the upper dormitory of the main building of the Deaf and Dumb Institute, at Delavan, Wis. In less than an hour the whole eastern part of the building had fallen in and the building was entirely destroyed. Most of the furniture was saved, and were also the outbuildings and shops. There were 147 pupils in attendance, all of whom escaped with their baggage. The origin of the fire is not known. There is a $100,000 upon which there is no insurance.

President Hayes at Home. FREMONT, O., Sept. 20.—President Hayes and General Sherman, who were in Detroit. The President and wife and General Sherman gave a reception this afternoon at the residence of General Buckland. At 3 o'clock scholars of the public and Catholic schools numbering about 1,200 met at the High School, and headed by the School Board, Father Barry and Conlan, and the Light Guard Band, marched to General Buckland's residence, and after singing "America," General Buckland made a few remarks and introduced President Hayes and General Sherman, who made little addresses appropriate to the occasion. As the children filed out, the President and General shook hands with each one. There was a pleasant affair. General Sherman and his wife were accompanied by a staff of 100 men. The President and Mrs. Hayes were accompanied by a staff of 100 men. The President and Mrs. Hayes were accompanied by a staff of 100 men.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. DRESS GOOL DEPARTMENTS. STRAWBRIDGE & CLOTHIER.

NEW, CHOICE & REASONABLE FABRICS. IN FOREIGN NOVELTIES.

CASHMERE AND SHOODAS. WE NAME. FRENCH SHOODAS.

MEDIUM RICE FABRICS. WE SHALL ADHERE TO THE OLD FIGURES UNTIL ALL ARE SOLD.

SHIPPING BY MAIL. (MONEY! TIME! FATIGUE!)

STRAWBRIDGE & CLOTHIER. EIGHTH AND MARKET STREETS, PHILADELPHIA.

Send Your Butter TO James Newnes, COMMISSION MERCHANT, 60 South Street, Baltimore, Md.

Who will get you the highest prices and make the quickest sales. Cards at Stores and Express Office.

MISSIE & TEMPLE, BUTTER and PRODUCE COMMISSION MERCHANTS, 276 WEST PRATT STREET, BALTIMORE, MD.

SOLICIT LIBERAL SHIPMENTS OF BUTTER.

Death from Hydrophobia. LONDON, September 18.—Further particulars of the capture of King Cetewayo have been received. It was somewhat by accident that the capture was effected. A patrol of the King's Dragoon Guards, while scouting in the heart of the Njome forest, fell upon his trail and earthed it up, and ran him to the earth. Finding himself surrounded, and resistance being altogether impracticable, the African monarch advanced to the Captain of the patrol and tendered his surrender. He was in a greatly exhausted condition, and bore on his person evidence of much privation, suffering and mental disquietude, but he maintained a remarkable self-composure, and in offering his surrender said he had no doubt his captors would extend to him the rights of a royal prisoner of war. All the important Zulu chiefs were not surrendered or made their peace with Sir Garnet Wolseley, and the task remains of perfecting his middle finger was bitten every day. Last Saturday he fainted while on his march, and since then they have been developing an fever which are entertained that he cannot live.