

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

STATE.

STATE TREASURER, SAMUEL BUTLER, OF CHESTER.

COUNTY.

POOR HOUSE DIRECTOR, RUDOLPH FERNER, OF SOMERSET TWP.

JURY COMMISSIONER, JOHN WINTERS, OF SOMERSET TWP.

The Baltimore American speaks of the "Whig element in Maryland."

Iowa votes to-day, (Tuesday), but the Democrats take no interest in the result.

The shameless fraud perpetrated by the Democrats in Congress, in giving Patterson the seat to which Judge Belford was elected, has just been passed upon by the people of Colorado.

The total coinage of silver dollars, under the new act, up to the first of this month, was a little over forty-two and three-quarter millions.

The store of gold and silver has so accumulated in the National Treasury that hereafter twenty per cent. of salaries and other Government obligations are to be paid in coin.

The Supreme Court has decided that the city of Pittsburgh and county of Allegheny are solely liable for the losses incurred by the riots two years since.

Isn't it just a little singular, that while the country has been raked for Democratic speakers to help stump Ohio and New York, not a single brigadier has been invited to open his mouth for the instruction of Northern Democrats?

The kid-glove and white neck-tie Democrats of Massachusetts, who couldn't swallow the parvenu Butler, as their candidate for Governor, have nominated John Quincy Adams for that office.

The official figures furnished by the Land Office at Washington, show that for the year ending 30th of June, 8,600,000 acres of government land were taken up.

There was withdrawn from the bank of England, last week, for shipment to this country, almost four millions of gold, to say nothing of the enormous amount shipped here from France.

Postmaster General Key, did a brave thing the other day, when he stood up in Tennessee, and in a public speech, rebuked the repudiating Democracy as beggars cursing the bond-holders.

The stock of silver in the Treasury continues to accumulate, despite the large amounts paid out.

The only hope of the Democracy lies in a solid South, and a divided North.

The Harrisburg Patriot laboriously argues to prove that Abraham Lincoln was not an abolitionist.

The election which is being held in Ohio to-day, (14th), is felt to be of national interest, as it will have important influences on the next Presidential contest.

The election in this State will occur in three weeks from Tuesday last. It is time for the Republicans of this county to commence earnest work.

The officers of the Somerset Theological Seminary, which arrived at her wharf this morning, report a murder which occurred on Sunday last near Herban, Middlesex county, Va.

On Monday last sixty-one Indian boys and twenty-three girls arrived at the Carlisle Barracks, Pa.

There are five whose ages range from 8 to 12, and the rest are between 12 and 18 years of age.

Tilden's funny assertion that he has taken no steps to secure a nomination, and intends to take none, reminds the New York Tribune of the venerable New York who discovered lifting a fine pellet from his neighbor's hen-roost at midnight.

The Little Rock Gazette, in an article on the exodus question, expresses the opinion that the negroes in Mississippi, South Carolina, and Louisiana should be encouraged to emigrate.

Many, if not all, of the social and political troubles growing out of a conflict of the two races in Mississippi, Louisiana, and South Carolina are due to the fact that in those States there are too many negroes; or, rather, it would be better to say, the number of negroes bears too large a proportion to the number of whites.

The Democratic people concede that the States named are not Democratic on a fair vote. They are Democratic simply because "the whites have determined that the negroes shall not rule."

Denver, Oct. 8.—The election in this State, yesterday, was for supreme judge and county officers.

After this they left Merritt's camp and returned to the canyon. Gen. Merritt then pushed forward with all haste and joined Payne with the remainder of Thorburn's command.

Colonel Merritt, in his report, adds: "On Monday morning, the Indians attacked our camp, and we were obliged to fight a desperate battle."

RESCUED AT LAST.

Merritt's Forces Reach Captain Payne's Command in Safety.

TERRIBLE SITUATION OF THE DELEAGUED BAND—THRILLING INCIDENTS OF THEIR SIEGE—A BATTLE WITH THE REDSKINS—CAPTAIN DODGE AND THE COLORED TROOPS.

RAWLINS, Oct. 9.—The mail carrier from Snake river Tuesday morning is just in. He reports that Merritt's forces reached Payne's command Monday afternoon, after a severe fight, which cost the lives of several men.

After a brief consultation, all the chiefs agreed to a common answer, which was that, if the United States soldiers invaded their reservation, they would fight them.

UNTIL THE LAST OF THE UTE LAY DEAD. After this they left Merritt's camp and returned to the canyon.

Colonel Merritt, in his report, adds: "On Monday morning, the Indians attacked our camp, and we were obliged to fight a desperate battle."

with the exception of an occasional shot to make us scatter or our pits. The Indians have been shot out of hand or our dead animals every night, otherwise the stench would be intolerable.

THE FIRST BATTLE. In regard to Major Thorburn's fight he says: "The first of battle was fought on the 21st of October, by the Indians, and had it not been for Major Thorburn's advance guard, commanded by Lieutenant Cherry, discovering the ambush the entire command would have been annihilated."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10, 1879. The amateur "go as you please" twenty-six hour walking contest between a dozen or so Government clerks at Odd Fellow's Hall, closed on Saturday night with young Post winner, having made it in less than the time allowed 108 miles, nearly as far as from Somerset to Pittsburgh and return.

As the time for the National Fair draws near the outlook for its success becomes more encouraging. The directors are holding nightly meetings and completing all the arrangements as rapidly as possible.

fact: in fact the forty men in line were more like so many figures controlled by mechanical power than like human beings.

THE PRESIDENT will not return until the middle of the month if being his intention to cast a vote for the Republican ticket in Ohio on Tuesday. Secretary Sherman has been to Ohio, to remain until after the election.

THE CHIEFS OF BUREAUS and heads of the different departments are now busily engaged preparing their reports to be submitted to Congress by the President in December.
