"I'm afraid I shall have to be content with the name of my father," said the young lady, here took up the conversation.

"My daughter," said the Judge, with emotion, "I shall value you in proportion to the good before you do."

WASHINGTON LETTER. (FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.) WASHINGTON, Nov. 25, 1879.

During the last week Washington has released into Summer, malaria and mosquitoes. Think of that for the middle of November!

"Now, I hardly agree with you pastor, in your assertion that ministers are paid less for their work than any other class of professional men."

Zachariah Chandler, whose sudden death has brought sorrow to many hearts, was a typical American.

The repeal of the Missouri compromise brought a political revolution in the West, and Zachariah Chandler was one of the founders of the new Republican party of Michigan.

Mr. Chandler came into the United States Senate during the stormy period which immediately preceded secession and rebellion.
