HYMN ON THE NATIVITY

It was the winter wild, While the heaven-born Child All meanly wrapt in the rude manger lies. Nature in awe to him Had deffed her gaudy trim, With ber great Master so to sympath isc. It was no reason then for her To wanton with the sun, her lusty paramour.

Only with speeches fair She woos the gentle air To hide ber guilty front with inno cent snow; And on her naked shame, collute with sinful blame, The salutly vell of maiden white to throw ; Confounded, that her Maker's eyes

Should look so near upon her foul deformities.

But he her fears to cease. Sent down the meek-eyed Peace : She, crowned with olive green, came softly Sliding Down through the turning sphere, His ready harbinger, With turtle wing the amorous clouds dividing And, waving wide her myrtle wand,

She strikes a universal peace through sea and Land. No war, or battle's sound, Was heard the world around : The idle spear and shield were high up hung ; The hooked charlot stood Unstained with hostile blood; The trumpet spake not to the armed throng And kings sat still with awful eye,

But peaceful was the night, Wherein the Prince of Light His reign of peace upon the earth began ; The winds, with wonder whist, Smoothly the waters kist, Whispering new joys to the mild ocean, Who now hath quite forgot to rave, While birds of calm sit brooking on the cha
