LOOK UP

Life, to some, is full of sorrow --Half is real and half we borrow-Full or rocks and tull of ledges, Corners sharp and outting edges Through the joy bells may be ringing. Not a song you'll hear them singing--Seeing never makes them wise, Looking out from downcast eyes.

All in vain the sun is shining. Waters sparkling, blossoms twining. They but see, through these same sorrows, Sad to-days and worse to morrows. See the clouds that must pass over See the weeds among the clover; Everything and anything, But the golden sunbeams bring.

Drinking from the bitter fountain. Lo! your mole bill seems a mountain. Drops of dew and drops of rain Swell into the mighty main. All in vain the blessings shower, And the mercles fall with power, Gathering chaff we tread the wheat, Rien and royal, 'neath our feet. Let it not be so, my neighbor. Look up as you love and labor, Not for one alone woe's vials; Every man his cares and trials Joy and pain are linked together, Like the fair and cloudy weather, May we have, oh, let us proy,
