

LAST DAY'S PROCEEDINGS OF THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION.

Last week we were able to give a brief summary of the last day's proceedings at the Chicago Convention. We now place a detailed account before our readers.

CHICAGO, June 8.—The delegates and others were up 2 1/2 hours this morning. It was evident from the general appearance of things that the anti-Grant forces were in a somewhat demoralized state. The Blaine men gave clearer evidences of depression.

CHICAGO, June 8.—The sixty-third day of the proceedings of the National Republican Convention began, as usual, about a half an hour later than the time fixed at the adjournment last evening.

EVERYTHING WAS IN A FEVERISH condition. The Grant men and anti-Grant men were in caucus last night, the latter until after four o'clock, but without reaching a common basis of action.

EVERYTHING WAS IN A FEVERISH condition. The Grant men and anti-Grant men were in caucus last night, the latter until after four o'clock, but without reaching a common basis of action.

EVERYTHING WAS IN A FEVERISH condition. The Grant men and anti-Grant men were in caucus last night, the latter until after four o'clock, but without reaching a common basis of action.

EVERYTHING WAS IN A FEVERISH condition. The Grant men and anti-Grant men were in caucus last night, the latter until after four o'clock, but without reaching a common basis of action.

to the decay; we have not got soldier in time to nominate, but stately man in whom we have profound faith and confidence.

Secretary Roberts announced a meeting of Republicans in the Exposition building to-morrow evening for the purpose of forming a Garfield club.

The thirty-sixth ballot was taken and met with great excitement. It was seen reconstruing with delegates, when the whole audience rose and shouted "Garfield, Garfield."

The thirty-seventh ballot was taken and met with great excitement. It was seen reconstruing with delegates, when the whole audience rose and shouted "Garfield, Garfield."

The thirty-eighth ballot was taken and met with great excitement. It was seen reconstruing with delegates, when the whole audience rose and shouted "Garfield, Garfield."

The thirty-ninth ballot was taken and met with great excitement. It was seen reconstruing with delegates, when the whole audience rose and shouted "Garfield, Garfield."

The fortieth ballot was taken and met with great excitement. It was seen reconstruing with delegates, when the whole audience rose and shouted "Garfield, Garfield."

THE VOTE TAKEN.

Table with 5 columns: State, Grant, Blaine, Sherman, Garfield. Lists votes for each candidate across various states.

Woodford and Settle got one vote each from Indiana, Alcorn got four from Mississippi, and Davis two from Louisiana.

Mr. Conger stated that when Michigan was called the state delegation, with singular unanimity, agreed to present the name of Thomas W. Ferry, but they had received a letter from him declining to permit his name to be used.

Mr. Hoock, of Tennessee, nominated Hon. Horace Maynard in a few eloquent remarks. Hon. Stewart L. Woodford declared there would be no more faithful supporter of Sherman.

Mr. Lynch, of Mississippi, said the delegation from Mississippi had intended when they came here to present the name of Senator Bruce for Vice President, but in the interest of harmony and peace he desired to say on behalf of Mr. Bruce and his friends that he desired to second the nomination of Chester A. Arthur.

Mr. Harris, of Maryland, also seconded the nomination. Mr. Filley, on behalf of his delegation, said Missouri would give thirty votes in favor of the nomination of Arthur.

Mr. Chambers, of Texas, put in nomination ex-Governor E. J. Davis and pronounced a eulogy upon the services of that native-born soldier-citizen in the Union army and on his patriotic conduct since the war.

JOHN F. BLYMYER, DEALER IN Hardware, Iron, Nails, Glass, Paints, OILS, & C., & C. HERALD 1880!

MENTOR. Save Your Children. THE ONLY HORSE IN THE CITY THAT KEEPS FULL LINE OF THE CELEBRATED Garden Grower TEA.

BONNIE PRINCE I. Out of Old Bonnie Prince, Imported from England. BATES: $3.00 to Insure a Peal.

SELLERS' LIVER PILLS. RED-HOT REPUBLICAN!!! STEALWART OF STEALWARTS! IF YOU WANT POLITICS, BUY CHEAP.

THE HERALD. IS A BEAN'S DUEL. The following story is told of Fighting Fitzgerald, a celebrated bear, gambler, horseman and duelist.

THE HERALD. LOCAL NEWS, COUNTY PAPER, FINANCIAL STATEMENT OF SOMERSET BOROUGH, FOR THE YEAR ENDING MARCH 31, 1880.

OLD TEA HOUSE. FANCY and STAPLE GROCERIES, FINE TEAS, RARE and CHOICE COFFEES. J. R. JENKINS, 28 Fifth Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa.