READ THIS:
I have purchased for the season, at a large price, the Draft Staillon Clyesdale, well known throughout Westmoreland County as "SAMSON" or the "Bott horse," and will stand him for service at the stable of David Lavan, in Lavansville, Somerset County, during the fall season. Season to commence about the 6th of July. Fifteen dellars to insure a mare with foal.

Discontitue, "SAMSON" is a handsome chestnut bay, about fifteen hands high, and weighs about sixteen hundred pounds, with fine limbs, heavy boned and beautiful in symmetry.
He is a sure colf-getter, as can be shown. Farmers should see this horse, as he is certain to piesare

MENTOR. OHIO CREAM CHEESE.

I hereby give notice that I will stand my lack Stallion MENTOR, full three qua-lood, at the stable of Josiah Brant, in Somerset Borough during the day throughout the season. Morning and evening of each day his services can be had on my farm one and a half miles northeast of Somer-set. set.

MENTOR is a black horse sired by Heilley's Imported English Drait Horse "NIGGER." He is a horse of fine style, with immense strength of bone, and will weigh 1800 to 1800 pounds. There are a number of his colts in this neighborhood for which $75 were offered while they were still classed as sucking colts.
