A Battle With Buffaloes. CHICAGO, July 17 .- An officer of ogh, Montana, ten days ago, arrived in the city on Thursday evening, and is a guest of friends living on Prairie avenue. The officer traveled by "buckboard" from the Yellowstone river to the end of the Northern Pacific Railroad, near the Little Couriers had arrived at the posdians, who were then absent from the camp, or agency, upon a grand buffalo hunt. The news brought in by the couriers was very exciting They related that after riding over mountains for two days the Crows came upon a fine herd of buffaloes in a narrow valley near by the Yel lowstone. There were four hundred Indians and four thousand buffaloes. The Crows had been forced by fear of starvation to take to the chase, and the keen hunger they were suffering only sharpened their eagerness for a tilt with their old fellow nomads, the noble bison. The game day; and now Captain East of her stampeded down the valley in the direction of the Yellowstone. The chase was hotly followed, half a hundred buffaloes biting the dust before the river was reached.
