HUNDRED THOUSAND STRONG.—In the last few months there has been more than a hundred thousand bottles of Shiloh's Cure sold. Out of this number of people who have used it, more than 2,000 cases of Consumption have been cured. All Coughs, Croup, Asthma and Bronchitis, yield at once, hence it is everybody speaks in its praise. To those who have not used it, let us say, if you have a Cough, or your child the Croup, and value life, don't fail to try it. For lame Back Side or Chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster.

Dr. Chas. Beacom, of Allegheny City, is spending a few days with his friends and relatives in this place.

Hon. D. Watson Rowe, formerly President Judge of this district, and his father, spent several days of last week in town.

All the barns in Pennsylvania are groaning with their ingathered wheat crop, one of the largest ever harvested in the State.

Rev. Beacom, of Allegheny City, preached a very excellent sermon to a large audience in the M. E. Church of this place, Sunday evening.

Quite a number of Pittsburghers came up on the Mountain Express, Saturday evening, spent Sunday in town, and returned home on Monday morning.

A sub-contractor under the employ of Booth & Flynn, on the S. & C. railroad, is said to have drawn the money due his hands and then skipped off with it.

Among the passengers on the Mountain Express, Saturday evening was Mr. John P. Knable, who expects to spend the next three or four weeks at his old home.

On account of the wetness of the weather for the past week or two our farmers have experienced much difficulty in getting their wheat and hay crops under roof.

An exchange says that cramp has been cured frequently by putting blocks under the head posts of the bed, so as to keep the sleeper's head considerably higher than his feet.

It seems remarkable that a nice easy chair at home is much less comfortable to a man than the hard side of a dry goods box on a street corner, with a crowd of loafers around.

All the county officials in the State have received invitations, dated from Clarion, for an official love-feast or union of all county officials in the State, to be held at Bedford Springs on the 4th of next month.

We are indebted to Mr. Oliver Critchfield, one of the HERALD's old subscribers, for copies of the Merced Star, published in Merced county, California, and of the Sacramento Union, published in Sacramento, California.

There are ninety-three prisoners in the Westmoreland county jail at the present time. Sixty-six of the number are attaches of Boyd & Peters' circus, who are accused of complicity in the Somerset county abduction case.

A committee of the Disciple brethren are endeavoring to raise funds sufficient to have a steeple placed on their church building. It would add very much to the appearance of the structure, and we hope they will be successful.

It is stated that a re-union of old stage drivers yet living, is talked of, Bellefonte to be the place of the meeting. Such a gathering would bring together a great many of the old-timers, and a very interesting time would be had no doubt.

James Allison, the oldest Postmaster in the State, has thrown up his commission on account of his old age. He was appointed Postmaster at Searight's, Fayette County, during President Polk's administration, and held the office ever since.

Mothers, before giving your little babe cough or croup medicines, remember that Sines Syrup of Tar, Horehound and Wild Cherry, is the only cough preparation that contains no opium, morphine, nor any other narcotic. Sold only by G. W. Benford.

We notice a number of the soldiers' orphans on the street who have just returned from the Uniontown school. The little fellows appear improved in every way, and speak highly of the kind treatment they received at the hands of the State authorities.

The manner of the crop-croaker trails in the dirt. The rust rustled the rye, the grasshopper gobbled the grass, the heat hurt the hay and the army worm went for the wheat; but, after all, the harvest looms up beautifully, and the croaker he croaketh in vain.

It is said there is a fourteen foot vein of nickel ore in Barr township, Cambria county, so near the surface of the earth that it has been found by different citizens of that township while digging foundations for buildings. We understand that specimens have been sent to the mint in Philadelphia to be assayed.

Our genial friend Sam Harrison the irrepressible junster of Wheeling, W. Va., spent several days of last week among his many Somerset friends. As usual when the "infant" visit us a serenading party was organized. Modesty forbids us to speak of the music, but the ladies all admired the ten-or a deen.

The third annual pic-nic of the Juniata Valley Printers' Association will be held at Roaring Spring, Blair county, on Saturday, September 4th. All persons who are editors, publishers, compositors, pressmen, or are in any wise way connected with the fraternity of printers are eligible to membership in the society.

In view of the fact that the clerical work of the County Committee will be very great during the coming campaign, Chairman Keller requies us to say that "S. U. Trent Esq., has been appointed additional secretary and together with the present secretary, Ed B. Scull, will assist with the committee work during the campaign."

SINES' DYSENTERY COMPOUND.—There are no diseases the will so quickly bring incidents of a person's past life and make him think of home and his mother, as Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Cramps, Colic, and all their kindred diseases. And to be without Sines Dysentery Compound when overtaken with the above disease is to be almost without hope. For sale only by Geo. W. Benford.

This is the season for sickness, among children especially, and not a few of them are now suffering from the ailments incident to the season. One physician informs us that he has quite a number of cases of cholera infantum under his charge, the majority of which have been brought on by the eating of unripe fruits. Too much care cannot be exercised in regard to the little ones during the heated term.

The people of Blairstown, this county, had a good shake-up on Tuesday evening last. During a severe thunder storm, lightning struck the telegraph wires and splintered the pole in front of Daniel Wagner's store. A number of other poles, in both directions, were also more or less split. Mr. Wagner was standing within two paces of a pole torn to pieces, and, singularly enough, felt the shock very slightly.

It is estimated that there is a fraction over six thousand coke ovens in Western Pennsylvania; and that, averaging one man to each oven, exclusive of those who dig the coal for the ovens, would give an aggregate of that many employes. The product of each oven is estimated at 350 bushels per week. This would give an aggregate daily yield of 351,538 bushels, or more than one hundred millions yearly.

If persons were as careful of their health as they are of their wealth the death rate would be much smaller from that dreadful scourge—consumption. It carries off in the United States in one year ten times more persons than succumbed to the yellow fever in the South. Thousands of valuable lives would have been saved from consumption had they used Sines' Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Horehound in time. In all cases of whooping cough, croup, asthma and lung affections it has proved to be a certain cure when taken in time. Sold only by George W. Benford. Price 25 cents; extra large bottle 50c.

Now that the campaign is opening up in earnest, will not every Republican reader recommend his home county paper to his neighbors. A good word or two would be in season.

Chairman Keller asks us to say that in accordance with the wishes of a large majority of the Committeemen he has placed the name of Dr. W. H. Meyers, of Meyersdale, on the County ticket for Coroner, there having been no nomination made for that office at the late primary election.

The Republicans of Friedens and vicinity are preparing to organize a rousing Garfield and Arthur Club, and desire us to state that a meeting has been called for that purpose, to be held in the Friedens school-house, on Saturday evening, August 7. Over fifty names have already been placed on the rolls, and it is thought that there will be no difficulty in doubling that number. A full turnout of all Republicans, whether members of the club or not, is earnestly requested for the meeting on the 7th. Speakers will be in attendance.

The Buffalo Valley Railroad (from Garrett to Berlin) and its rolling stock has been sold to the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company for the sum of $25,000. The title papers for the property have not yet been placed on record. The owners of the road were John O. Stoner, Samuel Philson, Samuel A. Philson, Daniel A. Brubaker, Peter Bueghley and Edward Kimmel, all of Berlin and vicinity. These gentlemen made a nice little speculation, having scoured the ownership of the road at Sheriff's sale for a small consideration.

HOW TO MAKE ICED TEA.—Iced tea is a nice as well as a fashionable drink for summer meals, but it is not so generally understood that the best iced tea is not steeped in hot water. Just try "steeping it a few hours in cold water, using a little more tea than for the hot beverage, and having it strong enough to be weakened with ice water when it is served. The flavor and effect are much better than by the hot water method. And, by the way, the same plan is coming to be recognized as the best preparation of the herb teas used for medical purposes, especially such as thoroughwort (boneset) and others, which, steeped in hot water, produces an unpleasant and undesirable nausea. This effect is obviated by steeping in cold water, and the tea can be made much stronger, and used to better advantage.

John J. Kaufman, eldest son of Isaac Kaufman, died very unexpectedly at his home near Davidsville, last Thursday evening.

He had not been complaining of feeling ill until Wednesday evening, having worked all day in the harvest-field, but that night he was attacked with an ailment which produced severe pains in the region of his abdomen. Yesterday forenoon the symptoms grew worse and he dispatched one of his children for a physician, but before the latter arrived at his bedside the sufferings of the gentleman terminated in death. The deceased was aged about forty-five years, and was the father of six or seven children. He was a progressive farmer, and the fine condition of his land bears evidence of his thrift, energy, and industry. The many friends of Mr. Kaufman in this vicinity will learn with sincere sorrow of his sudden demise, as he was well liked by his acquaintances. The sympathies of all who knew him will be extended to the bereaved wife and children in their affliction.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE GARFIELD & ARTHUR CLUB.—We are requested to say that the regular time of meeting of the Garfield and Arthur Club of Somerset, is the first and third Saturday evenings of each month, at 8 o'clock. Arrangements will be made to have one or more speeches from prominent persons each evening. Republicans, especially those living in the suburbs and township, will please bear this in mind. The club now consists of over two hundred members and it is desired that its membership be increased to 350 before the campaign actually opens.

At a meeting of the club last Saturday evening the committee appointed to draft a constitution and by laws submitted their report, which was adopted. Geo. R. Scull, Edgar Kyle and H. G. Cunningham were appointed by the Chair to solicit members for a marching club and to procure uniforms and equipments for said club. The Chair also appointed a committee on finance, consisting of A. C. Davis, Ed B. Scull and Jonas M. Cook. Wm. H. Koontz, Esq., then addressed the club, after which, on motion of Col. John R. Edie, the meeting adjourned. The club starts under the most favorable auspices, and if the temper and tone of the meeting on Saturday night are indications, the Republicans of this section mean hard, earnest, effective work during the campaign.

We take the following particulars of a very sad accident that befell a former Somerset boy, one day of last week, from the South Bend (Ind.) Record:

Shortly after 11 o'clock this morning word came by telephone from Mishawaka that a son of Dr. A. G. Miller had been run over by the cars, at the Lake Shore depot, at that place, and both of his legs severed. At about the same time Dr. Miller received a telegram from Mishawaka confirming the sad intelligence.

Young Miller attempted to board the freight train for South Bend while it was in motion. Having a valise in his left hand, he tried to swing himself upon the platform with his right hand, but failed, and, swinging around in front of the car, fell across the track with his body under the car and his legs outside the track. His left leg was severed just below the knee and his right just above the ankle joint, so that the loss of both was certain. The unfortunate young man was carried into the passenger house and at once received medical attention.

Dr. Miller, who started for Mishawaka as soon as the telegram was received, was seen by a Register reporter before his departure. The victim of this sad accident is his second son, Elmer Ellsworth Miller, aged seventeen years. He was a painter by trade and had been away from home several days visiting friends in the country, near Mishawaka. He came in from the country this morning, and was taking the train for home when the accident occurred.

The boy is still alive and will be brought home on the local freight this afternoon.

HOTEL ARRIVALS.—Among others, the following named persons registered at the Somerset House during the past week:

Charles Ankenhell, W. H. Ehrhart, T. J. Mahone, W. S. Scott, Fred Disque, Mrs. J. B. Lanawin, A. W. Day, George Blair, wife and child, H. S. Bergesser and wife, W. T. Normentt, J. S. Vincent, Tom H. Sloan, Walter Anderson and son, Mrs. Dr. L. Ehrhart, Pittsburgh; Morwin McKaig, Cumberland; Mrs. M. C. Baylor, Miss Mary Shirley, West Virginia; D. J. Slanker, Canton, O.; A. P. Pew, ; M. C. Zahniser, Pinkerton; Jacob Kautz, Jenner; Hon. D. Watson Rowe, John Rowe, Greencastle; Miss Cust, Joliet, Ills.; W. W. Wilkinson, Hartford, Conn.; H. Frank, Lewistown; D. Nesbit, Philadelphia; C. E. Gore, Boston; S. S. Miller, Bedford; M. H. Hartzell, Glade; S. Philson, C. Kriesinger, J. O. Stoner, Berlin; C. B. Moore, New Lexington; J. S. Cummings, Williamsport.

GLADE HOUSE.

Thomas Conigan, Dr. G. B. Fundenberg, Cumberland; Miss Shaw, McKeesport; Jas. R. Sipe, J. D. Callery, Pittsburgh; John Cole, Allegheny City; L. Risling and family, Joplin, Mo.; J. S. Patterson, Kansas; Henry Hilton, Theophilis Heiple, Jos. Boyer, J. E. Caten, Wm. Ward, M. Falver, Ligonier; Isaac Ferner, Pearson Miller, Rev. J. S. Wagoner, Stoystown; James A. Cook, Pinkerton; P. Dumbold and wife, Kingwood; John Brewster, Herman Umberger, Sol. Bowman, A. S. Walker, Fred Troxel, Henry Shaffer, Dr. Jos. Covode, Daniel Stuffl, Jenner; C. Shank, J. J. Walker, W. M. Schrock, John F. Suhrie, Shanksville; Daniel Weaver and wife, Davidsville; B. J. Vought, New Centreville; E. J. Meyers, D. J. Cover, Dr. H. Gary, Berlin; J. K. Little, Saxton, Pa.

BE ASSESSED!—The Constitution of Pennsylvania prescribes the qualifications of voters. Section I of Article VIII reads as follows:

Every male citizen twenty-one years of age possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections: First. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month. Second. He shall have resided in the State one year (or if, having previously been a qualified elector or native born citizen of the state, he shall have removed therefrom and returned, then six months) immediately preceding the election. Third. He shall have resided in the election district where he shall offer to vote at least two months immediately preceding the election. Fourth. If twenty-one years of age or upwards he shall have paid within two years a State or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before the election.

We earnestly entreat each Republican voter in Somerset county to see that his name is on the Assessor's list before the 1st day of September, and then make sure that his taxes are paid before the 1st day of October next. Young men who have passed their twenty-second birthday since the last November election are more apt to be found wanting in the matter of assessment than any others. In the large township of Somerset we have seen more than a dozen such persons deprived of their votes in a single year.

For the information of the voting public the names of the assessors and tax-collectors in the several districts of the county are appended:

We have started early to mention this very important matter, so that clubs, candidates, and all other persons interested can have ample time to examine and rectify the assessors' registration lists and the duplicates of the collectors. The work should be attended to at once. Let no man lose his vote through carelessness or ignorance of the law.

SHADE NEWS.—

Rains have been unusually "numerous" of late.

Bob P. Lohr's wife has been very ill for several weeks; she is improving.

Chas. A. Wagner thinks he can measure rye with any man in the township.

Haying is the order now; and some indications of "hay-fever" have been observed. Oil of hickory is good for it.

James McGregor was buried at the Graeff Church on Tuesday the 20th. He died suddenly, at the age of 67 years. Isaac Resm buried his youngest child on Saturday at the same place.

Whatever was done inside, the outside performance was a success. One chap got his face considerably spoiled; but it is said they double-teamed him, and he is going to get even with them.

Rev. Shoup of Buckstown, brought home, a few weeks ago, a five-year-old bay mare, bought of John Mitchell, of Addison. She is as "pretty as a picture," and the smartest piece of horse-flesh in Shade.

A striking illustration of how "evil consorts with good," was witnessed last Saturday evening at Specht's saw-mill. On that evening the River-brethren, Seventh-dayers, et al. assembled in the mill for worship, and certain roughs assembled with them, for a fight.

"Dot" is very doubtful about the propriety of holding religious services in all kinds of odd places. Bullies will fight, but religious people should be careful about furnishing them the occasion.

DOT.

SALISBURY LETTER.—Not having seen anything in your paper about Salisbury and vicinity, I therefore propose to write about the Garfield and Arthur Club.

We have effected an organization and have elected the following officers:

President, W. H. Boucher; Vice Presidents, A. F. Welshonse, H. Delozier; Secretary, Otis W. Smith; Corresponding Secretary, J. Cal. Lowry; Treasurer, Jer. J. Livengood.

We are having splendid meetings and are talking up the interests of the "Statesman, Warrior and Hero"—Garfield.

Our political friends of Elklick township are going to organize a club also. We propose by the fall election to give a handsome Republican majority.

The Democrats have organized a club, as they call it, for the "superb," and the "hero of Gettysburg." Now, any person who has ever read history can say that Meade was the hero of Gettysburg, and the people must not be deceived by the fancy names they give their candidate.

REPUBLICAN.

AN ASTONISHING FACT.—A large proportion of the American people are to-day dying from the effects of Dyspepsia or disordered liver. The result of these diseases upon the masses of intelligent and valuable people is most alarming, making life actually a burden instead of a pleasant existence of enjoyment and usefulness as it ought to be. There is no good reason for this, if you will only throw aside prejudice and skepticism, take the advice of Druggists and your friends, and try one bottle of Green's August Flower. Your speedy relief is certain. Millions of bottles of this medicine have been given away to try its virtues, with satisfactory results in every case. You can buy a sample bottle for 10 cents to try. Three doses will relieve the worst case. Positively sold by all Druggists on the Western Continent.

THE OUTRAGE ON THE BURKET GIRL.—We were in error last week in stating that all connected with Boyd & Peters' circus had been arrested for abducting and outraging Salome Burket, of Stonycreek township, and committed to the Greensburg jail. A half dozen or more showmen had been imprisoned, and all the balance that could be caught (some seventy) were arrested at Leechburg, Armstrong county, on the 23d instant and brought to the Westmoreland jail. These parties were not all guilty of the offence, only three or four of them having been identified by the girl. The proprietors and several others of the parties implicated appear to be aiding the authorities in ferreting out the guilty parties. A hearing was held at Greensburg on Monday afternoon, at which it was proposed to sift the crowd, release those who are proved not to have been concerned in the deed, and commit the others to the Somerset county jail for trial. At this writing we have not heard the result of the hearing. Congressman Coffroth, Sheriff Kyle, District Attorney Scott, John H. Uhl, Miss Burket, her father and other interested parties started for Greensburg on Sunday.

The Pittsburgh Dispatch of the 22d instant has a lengthy account of the affair, which is sensational and untrue in many particulars. The excitement here is represented as having been intense. If it was, we failed to perceive it. There are two sides to the question, some asserting that the girl went with the show willingly, against the advice of persons older than herself, who pointed out the peril she was in, and that her previous reputation for chastity was not as good as St. Ursula's.

A dispatch from Sheriff Kyle, dated Monday evening, states that he will be at Somerset with sixteen prisoners on Tuesday in the afternoon train.

SOMERSET COUNTY TROUT.—MR. EDITOR: Your jolly correspondent, "Mac," of Ursina, has, I think slightly misapprehended "Uncle Jay Bee," and his first chapter on Somerset County Trout. "Mac" no doubt knows by this time that I am not a professional sportsman, much less a "jug" fisherman? I am a plain, old-fashioned Lutheran preacher, fond of a trout, I admit, and not less of the sport of catching him. I think that if this "Mac," of Ursina, would invite me to spend a day or two with him next season, in one of the favorite angling streams of his end of the county, he would afterwards have respect enough for "Uncle Jay Bee's" sentiments on trout to treat them with a measure of respect.

"Mac" need not longer distress himself about my desire to have "trout" talked over; I have been "talking it over," more or less, for as much as ten years—and not in vain, always. I am a friend of the trout and the enemy of his destroyer. It is perhaps true that I have caught as many trout as any other man in the county of my age; but three in four of all my catching were saved alive for the purpose of propagation. And if all anglers would limit their summer's catch as I do, our streams would populate rapidly, in place of annually becoming more and more depleted. Indeed, that "Mac" may know how much I am interested in the preservation and increase of this noble species of fish, I here invite him to join me in an effort to secure an act from our Legislature that shall prohibit all trout-fishing in Somerset county for a period of five years. Such a measure I have seriously thought of proposing to our people. I am very certain that if left alone for five years, all our trout-bearing streams would be well stocked again. The experiment would at least be well worth trying.

I want to say to "Mac" that I have no quarrel with my grandfathers; they were not a people much given to offending in the way spoken of, and they angled, for the most part, in streams that flowed from the snowy sides of old Mt. Blanc, or the hills of the Schwartz-Wald, in the Fatherland. There, for the most part, they also sleep; and I shall not likely "stumble" much over them so long as I confine my rambles to the brooks and hills of Old Somerset. I am inclined to think that somebody's grandfather did sin in this matter, however; and maybe "Mac" might find room for reflection nearer home. Certainly, if his "nom" fits him well, he belongs to a race who were not strangers to this "neck o' woods" even a hundred years ago. There was a McPherson "along o' Billy Braddock," and sundry other Mac's, no doubt, who, for aught I know to the contrary, may have pitched their tents among these Somerset hills, to angle for trout, and fatten a steer to trade on "a bushel and a half of shore salt." The agricultural Mac is not usually a very sharp trader, and it may be that some of our Ursina "Mac's" ancestors were so imposed upon. But, supposing that even to have been so, the fact would not correct our "Mac's" bad reasoning. He made a sorry parallel between trout-catching and tree-cutting. I fancy it will require a good many newspaper articles from his pen to convince his readers that it was as necessary to take the trout from the streams as the trees from the forest, in order to make dairy farms and meadows. No, friend "Mac," you shot wild there. Why, I should not wonder if some Somerset farms might even be larger and better, if the "grandfathers" had spent less time in the trout streams! The gun and rod are poor help to an agricultural out-come.

"But, if "Mac" reckons the depletion of our streams the necessary result of the destruction of timber in opening out farms, his logic is not so bad, as a process; but the premises would be wrong. The cutting of timber has not mainly destroyed our trout. Indeed, we might add thousands of acres to our farms still, and then have the best trout county east of the Rockies.

Friend "Mac" is behind on the subject of brain-food. That old fiction is exploded. Brain, to be worth anything, must be constructed of something rather more solid than mere phosphorus.

It may be that my estimate of the quality of trout in Somerset county streams one hundred years ago was somewhat too high, but I am not mistaken in my opinion and assertion that our streams could now sustain from one to two hundred thousand pounds of marketable fish, of this superior variety. And I claim that this is a matter that calls for serious consideration. Fish culture has come to be one of the civilized world's great industries, and the main reason why Somerset county people have not a good supply of fish-food, is that they don't care.

True, Mr. "Mac," of Ursina, the farmers of Somerset county do not, as a rule, destroy the trout; and honor enough for you and me, my friend, if we do not belong to your "fine-haired" fraternity of the keys and bottles.

Try it again, friend "Mac"; we are not done with this interesting and important subject. I think there is no danger of the subject becoming "sour" on our quills. Uncle Jay Bee is very amiable in such matters, as a lover of trout should be.

UNCLE JAY BEE.

ROBERTS' EMBROCATION.—Rheumatics or sufferers with sprains, cuts, bruises, old or fresh wounds, swellings, burns, etc., will find it to their advantage to use M. E. Roberts' celebrated Embrocation. It has been in use over 40 years, and is the most reliable and efficacious remedy known. It does not blister the skin and can therefore be used with much better results than any liniment in the market. It is also good for horses where an outward application is desired, and should be found in every household, and well regulated stable. Price 25 cents per bottle. For sale only by G. W. Benford.

ATTENTION, DEALERS!—Tobaccos! Tobaccos!! Tobaccos!!! We respectfully call your attention to the fact that we have in stock and offer for sale, by the box or caddy, at list prices, less freight from the city, 1,500 pounds of Tobacco, composed of Lorillard's, Climax, Bullion, Army and Catawaba Navies, together with Vinco, Horse Shoe, Horse Head, Spun Roll, Flat Plug and Twist Smoking. Also, a fine selection of Fine Cut Chewing and Smoking Tobaccos, and Cigars.

A life of torture is often endured by the rheumatic—their pangs may, however, be relieved by the use of the old reliable remedy, Roberts' Embrocation. Sold over 50 years. No mushroom growth—its reputation excels all other remedies. Price 25 cents per bottle. Try it just once. For sale only by G. W. Benford.

MARRIED.

MORROW—EICHER.—At the M. E. parsonage, Addison, Pa., July 1st, 1880 by Rev. J. B. Taylor, Mr. A. G. Morrow, of Harnedsville, to Miss Virginia Eicher, of Turkeyfoot.

DIED.

FRANK.—July 17, 1880, Milliard, infant son of Charles and Mary E. Frank, aged 3 months and 26 days.

BEEGHLEY.—At his home, in Somerset township, of diphtheria, on the 23d day of July, Tobias Beeghley, in the 48th year of his age.

REAM.—In Jenner township, June 9th, 1880, Mary Malinda Ream, only daughter of Josiah Glessner, aged 22 years, 3 months and 3 days.

She was a firm and substantial member of Calvary Reformed Church. In her Christian deportment she labored not to be observed. Her Christian demeanor was of the quiet and unobtrusive kind. She was wont to lead the congregation in its hymns of praise ever since an organ has been in the church.

Sleep in peace until the Resurrection morn, when may you awake to swell the chorus of the heavenly assembly.

B——.

PERSHING.—At her home in Westmoreland county, July 13, 1880, Frances Pershing, mother of Rev. J. H. Pershing, in her 77th year.

Mrs. Pershing was born in 1803, near Lebanon, Lebanon county, Pa., where the first United Brethren society was formed. She was converted shortly after and near by where the first General Conference was held. She was of the family of Rev. A. Truxel, one of the founders of the church, and related to Revs. John and Abram Hershey, and John and Martin Crider, who were among the early fathers. She was endowed with large Christian liberality, giving dollars to the church and missionary cause while others gave cents. She was a church member nearly 65 years. Her Bethel of Prayer was always occupied. Her death was the death of the Christian.
