The best way to encourage a temperance is to show him a pile of old wool and other fittings of linens.

Wool-pickers are already hard for by our apprentices, but they have failed to put in appearance as yet.

S. U. Tracy, Esq., left here, Sunday afternoon, for Indianapolis, where he has gone at the request of the Republican National Committee to spend several weeks in stamping that State for the Republican cause. He will speak at Aspinwall, South Bend, Michigan City, Logansport and Middlebury this week and is likely to speak each day from now until the Indiana election, which takes place on the 12th of October. He will return home immediately after the Indiana election and will again take an active part in the campaign in this country. Mr. Tracy, a young speaker, is one of the ablest and most interesting we have ever listened to and we are glad to see him taken recognized by the National Committee.

Charles Evans.—The Pittsburgh Leader says the final funeral of a Chinaman in this vicinity, took place on Tuesday last. There hung a heavy shroud in front of his casket, but was no name. The corse that passed down Fifth avenue, en route to the Uniontown cemetery, consisted of a hand and two fingers, a scrawled Mass, and a portion of a hand bone in a crimson ribbon. Mr. T. P. received the tree from the master of J. S. Kempf of Unionville, this morning.

And the Pittsburg Press says that it made no difference whether the hand and two fingers should be adhered to the remains in the casket, or whether they were placed upon them, as the remains were to be buried in the ground. The hand and two fingers were placed upon the mound, was tapers lighted and the remains will be allowed to remain until such time as the friends of the deceased examine the bones and take them back to the celestial empire.

The practice of mounting hand-bills prevails in this country to so great an extent that it calls for enforcement of the law on the subject. Who now advertise their business are entitled to protection, and persons caught tampering with bills shall be duly prosecuted. For the benefit of all concerned we publish the following general law:

"That any person caught tampering, destroying, tearing down, or removing any show bill, placard, programme, poster or advertisement posted on any wall, fence, hill board, or other structure, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars for the first offence, and for the second offence the penalty shall be imprisonment in the county jail not less than three nor more than six months."

The sturdy Republican community of Jefferson and adjoining townships, turned out on Friday, September 1st, to erect a tall pole one hundred and ten feet in length. The work of elevating the symmetrical pole was done in a systematic manner under the capable supervision of the committee, and the work had charge of the work, and the lighter accident happened. About 2 o'clock a meeting was held in front of Mr. Wm. W. Miller and William Zimmerman. They were about to decide, with a full list of Vice Presidents and Secretaries to compose the organization. It is estimated that fully three hundred people were present. Mr. Fred W. Belcher opened the ball in the name of General Coffroth, and the club was organized by the Pittsburg Club, Johnstown, Altoona, and Franklin, and to settle it, they agreed that Miller and Belcher were to go to a hotel-like place, "The Pitt," and there the Pittsburg Club, and the other ready and do.
