NOT ALL IN THE BRINGING UP.

It isn't all in bringing up,
Let folks say what they will;
You silver-wash a pewter cup—
It will be pewter still.
Even he of old, wise Solomon,
Who said "train up a child,"
If I mistake not, raised a son,
Gee, rattle-brained and wild.

A man of mark, who fain would raise
For lord of sea and land,
May have the training of an ass,
And before him up full grand:
May give him all the wealth of love,
Of college and of school,
Yet after all make him no more
Than but a decent fool.

Another, raised by penury
Upon her bitter bread,
Whose road to knowledge is like that
The good for heaven must tread,
Has got a spark of Nature's light,
He'll fan it to a flame,
Till in the burning letters bright
The world may read his name.
