

CAUGHT.

There had been strange times in the Roseville Summary. Two or three of the girls in the junior class, and a few in the senior, had been in open revolt, though the cause of this singular behavior was not generally known among the scholars.

They were so disgraced by their water-proof caps and hoods that Kitty could hardly have recognized one of their number. Suddenly it flashed upon her that this was the evening of Miss Fessenden's party, and that these girls had attended it.

Then the leader, whom Kitty strongly suspected was Laura Cary, opened the door. It was found afterward that they had bribed the cook and obtained her pass-key. As they all crowded into the hall, still as they stood, Kitty, bringing up the rear, they all looked at her.

They were seven in this group, and three of the number were so fringed or so conscience-stricken, that they began to cry. Then the professor's eyes fell upon Kitty.

"Miss Bache!" he exclaimed looking like a man who had been struck and starting forward a step or two, as if to make sure his eyes had not deceived him.

For a moment Kitty's self-possession entirely deserted her, and she looked the guiltiest one of the party. She was so completely tired out that she could not stand up for a trial, and her heart sunk within her as she found—probably for the first time in her life—that she was actually unable to speak a word.

She leaned against the door for support. One of the girls, who saw her pale and weak she was struck and starting forward a step or two, as if to make sure his eyes had not deceived him.

"Yes, and nurse," said another girl, "and lady-carriages and blankets and blue-quilted beds. Prof. Montrose had just said he is, said another, "a perfect fossil. He's so old he can't enjoy anything himself, and he thinks nobody else can. I mean to go, anyhow."

"I think you might have said something, Kitty," put in Carry Pickett, who had been leaning a little, and promised that we should all have behaved ourselves. I'm sure she would have consented. He just acted as if he expected you to speak."

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10, 1881. Hon. Daniel J. Morrill, of Johnston, N. H., the recipient of a short visit last week, and during his stay here was the recipient of unusual attention by Government Officials, Senators and Representatives.

At Ogden he met his cousin Ed. Coffroth, formerly of Winchester, Va., who is the agent of Wells Fargo-Express there.

The Doctor is in robust health, and highly pleased with the new north-west and would like to return again. The expenses of living out there he reports as extremely high, turkeys five dollars a piece, oysters two dollars a can, and in summer time strawberries one dollar a quart.

MRS. LYDIA E. PINKHAM.

At Ogden he met his cousin Ed. Coffroth, formerly of Winchester, Va., who is the agent of Wells Fargo-Express there. The Doctor is in robust health, and highly pleased with the new north-west and would like to return again.

THE WATER-OCEAN FOR 1881.

In presenting the prospectus of the WATER-OCEAN for the year 1881, it is scarcely necessary to remind the people of the Northwest that the paper has been the date of its establishment, present as an exponent of stalwart Republicanism, and in advance of the party.

JOHN F. BLYMYER.

DEALER IN Hardware, Iron, Nails, Glass, P. OILS, & C. The following is a partial list of Goods in Stock: Carpenters' Tools, Hammers, Axes, Saw, Blacksmith's Goods, Blows, Files, Planes, etc.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10, 1881. Hon. Daniel J. Morrill, of Johnston, N. H., the recipient of a short visit last week, and during his stay here was the recipient of unusual attention by Government Officials, Senators and Representatives.

At Ogden he met his cousin Ed. Coffroth, formerly of Winchester, Va., who is the agent of Wells Fargo-Express there.

The Doctor is in robust health, and highly pleased with the new north-west and would like to return again. The expenses of living out there he reports as extremely high, turkeys five dollars a piece, oysters two dollars a can, and in summer time strawberries one dollar a quart.

MRS. LYDIA E. PINKHAM.

At Ogden he met his cousin Ed. Coffroth, formerly of Winchester, Va., who is the agent of Wells Fargo-Express there. The Doctor is in robust health, and highly pleased with the new north-west and would like to return again.

THE WATER-OCEAN FOR 1881.

In presenting the prospectus of the WATER-OCEAN for the year 1881, it is scarcely necessary to remind the people of the Northwest that the paper has been the date of its establishment, present as an exponent of stalwart Republicanism, and in advance of the party.

JOHN F. BLYMYER.

DEALER IN Hardware, Iron, Nails, Glass, P. OILS, & C. The following is a partial list of Goods in Stock: Carpenters' Tools, Hammers, Axes, Saw, Blacksmith's Goods, Blows, Files, Planes, etc.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10, 1881. Hon. Daniel J. Morrill, of Johnston, N. H., the recipient of a short visit last week, and during his stay here was the recipient of unusual attention by Government Officials, Senators and Representatives.

At Ogden he met his cousin Ed. Coffroth, formerly of Winchester, Va., who is the agent of Wells Fargo-Express there.

The Doctor is in robust health, and highly pleased with the new north-west and would like to return again. The expenses of living out there he reports as extremely high, turkeys five dollars a piece, oysters two dollars a can, and in summer time strawberries one dollar a quart.

MRS. LYDIA E. PINKHAM.

At Ogden he met his cousin Ed. Coffroth, formerly of Winchester, Va., who is the agent of Wells Fargo-Express there. The Doctor is in robust health, and highly pleased with the new north-west and would like to return again.

THE WATER-OCEAN FOR 1881.

In presenting the prospectus of the WATER-OCEAN for the year 1881, it is scarcely necessary to remind the people of the Northwest that the paper has been the date of its establishment, present as an exponent of stalwart Republicanism, and in advance of the party.

JOHN F. BLYMYER.

DEALER IN Hardware, Iron, Nails, Glass, P. OILS, & C. The following is a partial list of Goods in Stock: Carpenters' Tools, Hammers, Axes, Saw, Blacksmith's Goods, Blows, Files, Planes, etc.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10, 1881. Hon. Daniel J. Morrill, of Johnston, N. H., the recipient of a short visit last week, and during his stay here was the recipient of unusual attention by Government Officials, Senators and Representatives.

At Ogden he met his cousin Ed. Coffroth, formerly of Winchester, Va., who is the agent of Wells Fargo-Express there.

The Doctor is in robust health, and highly pleased with the new north-west and would like to return again. The expenses of living out there he reports as extremely high, turkeys five dollars a piece, oysters two dollars a can, and in summer time strawberries one dollar a quart.

MRS. LYDIA E. PINKHAM.

At Ogden he met his cousin Ed. Coffroth, formerly of Winchester, Va., who is the agent of Wells Fargo-Express there. The Doctor is in robust health, and highly pleased with the new north-west and would like to return again.

THE WATER-OCEAN FOR 1881.

In presenting the prospectus of the WATER-OCEAN for the year 1881, it is scarcely necessary to remind the people of the Northwest that the paper has been the date of its establishment, present as an exponent of stalwart Republicanism, and in advance of the party.

JOHN F. BLYMYER.

DEALER IN Hardware, Iron, Nails, Glass, P. OILS, & C. The following is a partial list of Goods in Stock: Carpenters' Tools, Hammers, Axes, Saw, Blacksmith's Goods, Blows, Files, Planes, etc.