

ALTHOUGH nothing definite has yet been determined by the President and his cabinet...

WOLFE tried to scare the House of Representatives one evening last week. He put on his hat and coat and left the hall...

MR. CHARLES DONNELLY has resigned his position as Vice President of the Connellville railroad...

HOS. JOHN CRESSA, Chairman of the State Central Committee, has issued a call for a meeting of that body at the Lehigh Hotel at Harrisburg...

PRESIDENT GARFIELD last week re-nominated Woodford and Payne, of New York, for the positions they now so ably fill...

In one of his fables Esop tells about the manner in which the frogs got up a reform movement...

The American Consul at Bern, Switzerland, has again given warning to the authorities at Washington...

The West Chester Village Record makes the following announcement: "The Committee of One Hundred, who were so strongly influential in securing the defeat of the Republican candidates in Philadelphia..."

THE West Chester Village Record makes the following announcement: "The Committee of One Hundred, who were so strongly influential in securing the defeat of the Republican candidates in Philadelphia..."

PRESIDENT GARFIELD'S views on the Mormon question are emphatic and unequivocal. He is reported to have said within a day or two to a Senator: "Polygamy must end—shall be stamped out. This plague spot on our institutions must be banished. I ask you, as my friend, to take your stand in the Senate and fight this evil until it is crushed out of existence..."

The President has concluded to make a change in the New York Custom House, which is always a great bone of contention. Hon. E. A. Merritt who was appointed Collector in 1878 by President Hayes...

ATTORNEY GENERAL PALMER has thrown a legal bomb-shell into the Legislature. He has given an opinion that the custom of paying members ten dollars per day for fifty days after the first hundred days have expired...

It is said also that the State Treasurer will adopt this opinion as his guide, and will refuse to pay more than one thousand dollars to each member...

MESSRS. KOONTZ, KOONTZ and Ogilvie, of this place, have been at Washington on a grand circular hunt, hoping to bring Collector Scull's official seal home as a trophy.

The Washington correspondent of the Pittsburgh Dispatch of Thursday last, communicates to that journal this piece of truthful information: "John O. Ogilvie from Somerset is urging his appointment as Collector of the sixteenth district..."

Why, I heard you were dead? "But" said an acquaintance to "Butch" Saylor, when meeting him on the street one day. "I heard so too," replied "Butch," "and I knew it was a d—d lie whenever I heard it." So with the allegation in the Dispatch, relative to the time Mr. Scull has been Collector...

THE West Chester Village Record makes the following announcement: "The Committee of One Hundred, who were so strongly influential in securing the defeat of the Republican candidates in Philadelphia..."

THE West Chester Village Record makes the following announcement: "The Committee of One Hundred, who were so strongly influential in securing the defeat of the Republican candidates in Philadelphia..."

PRESIDENT GARFIELD'S views on the Mormon question are emphatic and unequivocal. He is reported to have said within a day or two to a Senator: "Polygamy must end—shall be stamped out. This plague spot on our institutions must be banished. I ask you, as my friend, to take your stand in the Senate and fight this evil until it is crushed out of existence..."

PRESIDENT GARFIELD'S declaration of principles in regard to office-holding has the right ring about it. He announces the enlightenment and admiration of aspirants that no removals are to be made except for cause. That is civil service reform in a nutshell...

The Beaver Army and Radical says: "The United States Senate was organized on Friday by the Republicans. To Senator Don Cameron, who managed the affair, in due praise, and he was warmly congratulated by his fellow members over the happy issue of his labors..."

It is said also that the State Treasurer will adopt this opinion as his guide, and will refuse to pay more than one thousand dollars to each member...

MESSRS. KOONTZ, KOONTZ and Ogilvie, of this place, have been at Washington on a grand circular hunt, hoping to bring Collector Scull's official seal home as a trophy.

The Washington correspondent of the Pittsburgh Dispatch of Thursday last, communicates to that journal this piece of truthful information: "John O. Ogilvie from Somerset is urging his appointment as Collector of the sixteenth district..."

THE West Chester Village Record makes the following announcement: "The Committee of One Hundred, who were so strongly influential in securing the defeat of the Republican candidates in Philadelphia..."

THE West Chester Village Record makes the following announcement: "The Committee of One Hundred, who were so strongly influential in securing the defeat of the Republican candidates in Philadelphia..."

PRESIDENT GARFIELD'S views on the Mormon question are emphatic and unequivocal. He is reported to have said within a day or two to a Senator: "Polygamy must end—shall be stamped out. This plague spot on our institutions must be banished. I ask you, as my friend, to take your stand in the Senate and fight this evil until it is crushed out of existence..."

NEW YORK, March 21.—George Augustus Sala, formerly from St. Petersburg, regarding the funeral of the czar: "I have just been a spectator of one of the most magnificent, most impressive, most pathetic pageants which, in the course of a long career, I have witnessed..."

The Beaver Army and Radical says: "The United States Senate was organized on Friday by the Republicans. To Senator Don Cameron, who managed the affair, in due praise, and he was warmly congratulated by his fellow members over the happy issue of his labors..."

It is said also that the State Treasurer will adopt this opinion as his guide, and will refuse to pay more than one thousand dollars to each member...

MESSRS. KOONTZ, KOONTZ and Ogilvie, of this place, have been at Washington on a grand circular hunt, hoping to bring Collector Scull's official seal home as a trophy.

The Washington correspondent of the Pittsburgh Dispatch of Thursday last, communicates to that journal this piece of truthful information: "John O. Ogilvie from Somerset is urging his appointment as Collector of the sixteenth district..."

THE West Chester Village Record makes the following announcement: "The Committee of One Hundred, who were so strongly influential in securing the defeat of the Republican candidates in Philadelphia..."

THE West Chester Village Record makes the following announcement: "The Committee of One Hundred, who were so strongly influential in securing the defeat of the Republican candidates in Philadelphia..."

PRESIDENT GARFIELD'S views on the Mormon question are emphatic and unequivocal. He is reported to have said within a day or two to a Senator: "Polygamy must end—shall be stamped out. This plague spot on our institutions must be banished. I ask you, as my friend, to take your stand in the Senate and fight this evil until it is crushed out of existence..."

GENERAL GARDNER'S VISIT TO THE WORLD'S FAIR. Boston, Mass., March 21.—A reception to ex-Secretary Schurz took place at the Hotel Vendome at 6 o'clock this afternoon. Colonel Charles R. Colman presided, and speeches were made by Hon. James Freeman Clark, President Eliot, Howard, Mr. Schurz and others...

NEW YORK, March 23.—At a meeting of the executive committee of the World's Fair this afternoon, Vice President Stebbins in the chair, the following letter was read by the secretary: "New York City, March 23, 1881. Gentlemen—I have the honor very respectfully to tender my resignation as president of the World's Fair Commission of 1883..."

THE ROUTE TAKEN from the great plain front of the Winter Palace by Admiralty Quay and English Quay to Nicholasievsky bridge, crossing which the procession took the street leading to the Tootchakoff bridge and by Alexander Park to the fortress, entering the gate called Ivanekski.

NEW YORK, March 23.—A shocking and fatal calamity occurred this morning at Jersey City. The building where the disaster occurred has been in a dilapidated condition for many years. It is a three story structure, partly frame and partly brick and was formerly an ice factory, and was later used by a coal company.

NEW YORK, March 23.—One of the boldest attempts at bank robbery in the history of Missouri, occurred in this city at three o'clock this morning, which resulted in the death of the burglar, Pat Ebert. He was shot in the back by a man who was on a boat in a boarding-house near the National Bank of Rolla.

NEW YORK, March 23.—Rev. Father Mahoney, who is alleged to have passed Miss Quillian from the dead two months ago, has taken up his residence in Erie and is reported to be working miracles among the sick and the lame. His house is besieged with hundreds of the blind, blind, lame, and other afflicted people.

NEW YORK, March 23.—For some two or three days it has been the talk at the clubs that Colonel Thomas A. Scott has given away a fortune to prominent hospitals and charitable institutions, but no public acknowledgment has been made.

NEW YORK, March 23.—The notorious negro burglar of Elizabeth, N. J., named Moses Walker, alias Jim Walker, and who for the past two years has defied detectives, was arrested last evening by Chief of Police Vaux at Elizabeth. During the past year Walker has knocked down and robbed four ladies in the city and has been arrested several times.

NEW YORK, March 23.—At a meeting of the executive committee of the World's Fair this afternoon, Vice President Stebbins in the chair, the following letter was read by the secretary: "New York City, March 23, 1881. Gentlemen—I have the honor very respectfully to tender my resignation as president of the World's Fair Commission of 1883..."

THE ROUTE TAKEN from the great plain front of the Winter Palace by Admiralty Quay and English Quay to Nicholasievsky bridge, crossing which the procession took the street leading to the Tootchakoff bridge and by Alexander Park to the fortress, entering the gate called Ivanekski.

NEW YORK, March 23.—A shocking and fatal calamity occurred this morning at Jersey City. The building where the disaster occurred has been in a dilapidated condition for many years. It is a three story structure, partly frame and partly brick and was formerly an ice factory, and was later used by a coal company.

NEW YORK, March 23.—One of the boldest attempts at bank robbery in the history of Missouri, occurred in this city at three o'clock this morning, which resulted in the death of the burglar, Pat Ebert. He was shot in the back by a man who was on a boat in a boarding-house near the National Bank of Rolla.

NEW YORK, March 23.—Rev. Father Mahoney, who is alleged to have passed Miss Quillian from the dead two months ago, has taken up his residence in Erie and is reported to be working miracles among the sick and the lame. His house is besieged with hundreds of the blind, blind, lame, and other afflicted people.

NEW YORK, March 23.—For some two or three days it has been the talk at the clubs that Colonel Thomas A. Scott has given away a fortune to prominent hospitals and charitable institutions, but no public acknowledgment has been made.

NEW YORK, March 23.—The notorious negro burglar of Elizabeth, N. J., named Moses Walker, alias Jim Walker, and who for the past two years has defied detectives, was arrested last evening by Chief of Police Vaux at Elizabeth. During the past year Walker has knocked down and robbed four ladies in the city and has been arrested several times.

NEW YORK, March 23.—The notorious negro burglar of Elizabeth, N. J., named Moses Walker, alias Jim Walker, and who for the past two years has defied detectives, was arrested last evening by Chief of Police Vaux at Elizabeth. During the past year Walker has knocked down and robbed four ladies in the city and has been arrested several times.

NEW YORK, March 23.—At a meeting of the executive committee of the World's Fair this afternoon, Vice President Stebbins in the chair, the following letter was read by the secretary: "New York City, March 23, 1881. Gentlemen—I have the honor very respectfully to tender my resignation as president of the World's Fair Commission of 1883..."

THE ROUTE TAKEN from the great plain front of the Winter Palace by Admiralty Quay and English Quay to Nicholasievsky bridge, crossing which the procession took the street leading to the Tootchakoff bridge and by Alexander Park to the fortress, entering the gate called Ivanekski.

NEW YORK, March 23.—A shocking and fatal calamity occurred this morning at Jersey City. The building where the disaster occurred has been in a dilapidated condition for many years. It is a three story structure, partly frame and partly brick and was formerly an ice factory, and was later used by a coal company.

NEW YORK, March 23.—One of the boldest attempts at bank robbery in the history of Missouri, occurred in this city at three o'clock this morning, which resulted in the death of the burglar, Pat Ebert. He was shot in the back by a man who was on a boat in a boarding-house near the National Bank of Rolla.

NEW YORK, March 23.—Rev. Father Mahoney, who is alleged to have passed Miss Quillian from the dead two months ago, has taken up his residence in Erie and is reported to be working miracles among the sick and the lame. His house is besieged with hundreds of the blind, blind, lame, and other afflicted people.

NEW YORK, March 23.—For some two or three days it has been the talk at the clubs that Colonel Thomas A. Scott has given away a fortune to prominent hospitals and charitable institutions, but no public acknowledgment has been made.

NEW YORK, March 23.—The notorious negro burglar of Elizabeth, N. J., named Moses Walker, alias Jim Walker, and who for the past two years has defied detectives, was arrested last evening by Chief of Police Vaux at Elizabeth. During the past year Walker has knocked down and robbed four ladies in the city and has been arrested several times.

NEW YORK, March 23.—The notorious negro burglar of Elizabeth, N. J., named Moses Walker, alias Jim Walker, and who for the past two years has defied detectives, was arrested last evening by Chief of Police Vaux at Elizabeth. During the past year Walker has knocked down and robbed four ladies in the city and has been arrested several times.

NEW YORK, March 23.—At a meeting of the executive committee of the World's Fair this afternoon, Vice President Stebbins in the chair, the following letter was read by the secretary: "New York City, March 23, 1881. Gentlemen—I have the honor very respectfully to tender my resignation as president of the World's Fair Commission of 1883..."

THE ROUTE TAKEN from the great plain front of the Winter Palace by Admiralty Quay and English Quay to Nicholasievsky bridge, crossing which the procession took the street leading to the Tootchakoff bridge and by Alexander Park to the fortress, entering the gate called Ivanekski.

NEW YORK, March 23.—A shocking and fatal calamity occurred this morning at Jersey City. The building where the disaster occurred has been in a dilapidated condition for many years. It is a three story structure, partly frame and partly brick and was formerly an ice factory, and was later used by a coal company.

NEW YORK, March 23.—One of the boldest attempts at bank robbery in the history of Missouri, occurred in this city at three o'clock this morning, which resulted in the death of the burglar, Pat Ebert. He was shot in the back by a man who was on a boat in a boarding-house near the National Bank of Rolla.

NEW YORK, March 23.—Rev. Father Mahoney, who is alleged to have passed Miss Quillian from the dead two months ago, has taken up his residence in Erie and is reported to be working miracles among the sick and the lame. His house is besieged with hundreds of the blind, blind, lame, and other afflicted people.

NEW YORK, March 23.—For some two or three days it has been the talk at the clubs that Colonel Thomas A. Scott has given away a fortune to prominent hospitals and charitable institutions, but no public acknowledgment has been made.

NEW YORK, March 23.—The notorious negro burglar of Elizabeth, N. J., named Moses Walker, alias Jim Walker, and who for the past two years has defied detectives, was arrested last evening by Chief of Police Vaux at Elizabeth. During the past year Walker has knocked down and robbed four ladies in the city and has been arrested several times.

NEW YORK, March 23.—The notorious negro burglar of Elizabeth, N. J., named Moses Walker, alias Jim Walker, and who for the past two years has defied detectives, was arrested last evening by Chief of Police Vaux at Elizabeth. During the past year Walker has knocked down and robbed four ladies in the city and has been arrested several times.

NEW YORK, March 23.—At a meeting of the executive committee of the World's Fair this afternoon, Vice President Stebbins in the chair, the following letter was read by the secretary: "New York City, March 23, 1881. Gentlemen—I have the honor very respectfully to tender my resignation as president of the World's Fair Commission of 1883..."

THE ROUTE TAKEN from the great plain front of the Winter Palace by Admiralty Quay and English Quay to Nicholasievsky bridge, crossing which the procession took the street leading to the Tootchakoff bridge and by Alexander Park to the fortress, entering the gate called Ivanekski.

NEW YORK, March 23.—A shocking and fatal calamity occurred this morning at Jersey City. The building where the disaster occurred has been in a dilapidated condition for many years. It is a three story structure, partly frame and partly brick and was formerly an ice factory, and was later used by a coal company.

NEW YORK, March 23.—One of the boldest attempts at bank robbery in the history of Missouri, occurred in this city at three o'clock this morning, which resulted in the death of the burglar, Pat Ebert. He was shot in the back by a man who was on a boat in a boarding-house near the National Bank of Rolla.

NEW YORK, March 23.—Rev. Father Mahoney, who is alleged to have passed Miss Quillian from the dead two months ago, has taken up his residence in Erie and is reported to be working miracles among the sick and the lame. His house is besieged with hundreds of the blind, blind, lame, and other afflicted people.

NEW YORK, March 23.—For some two or three days it has been the talk at the clubs that Colonel Thomas A. Scott has given away a fortune to prominent hospitals and charitable institutions, but no public acknowledgment has been made.

NEW YORK, March 23.—The notorious negro burglar of Elizabeth, N. J., named Moses Walker, alias Jim Walker, and who for the past two years has defied detectives, was arrested last evening by Chief of Police Vaux at Elizabeth. During the past year Walker has knocked down and robbed four ladies in the city and has been arrested several times.

NEW YORK, March 23.—The notorious negro burglar of Elizabeth, N. J., named Moses Walker, alias Jim Walker, and who for the past two years has defied detectives, was arrested last evening by Chief of Police Vaux at Elizabeth. During the past year Walker has knocked down and robbed four ladies in the city and has been arrested several times.