Will spring never come, gentle Vennor?

The trout fishing season opens on Friday of this week.

Vennor, though he falls far short of winning affection, compels respect.

The Normal Schools each received ten thousand dollars yearly from the state.

The reputation of the ground hog is as good as that of Vennor in this community.

Notwithstanding the six weeks are up, the ground hog seems to be still in his hole.

"What are you going to do about a house?" is still the question with many of our people.

The average small boy is now studiously meditating on all-fool's-day tactics—"strategy and lies."

Mr. S. S. Fell, a former resident of this place, has opened a ready-made clothing store in Greensburg.

The wife of Uncle Jacob Zeigler, editor of the Butler Herald, died on the 15th inst., at the age of sixty-nine years.

There has been but a small quantity of maple sugar and molasses brought to town thus far the present season.

We had the pleasure of a call last Thursday, from Dr. W. C. Hicks, the efficient and gentlemanly postmaster of Meyersdale.

Somerset still claims to be the champion moral county in the State. The county jail hasn't a single inmate.—Philadelphia Times.

On application to the State Fish Hatchery at Corry, residents of this State can procure fish for stocking streams or ponds free of expense.

Write your name with kindness, love and mercy on the hearts of the people you meet from day to day, and you will never be forgotten.

The gypsies have taken the road for the summer, and soon caravans of these saffron-colored people will be moving through the country.

Ed. B. Scull, Esq., who has been lying seriously ill in Baltimore for the past three weeks, is expected home to-day, Wednesday, if he is able to travel.

Dr. A. P. Benbaker was unexpectedly summoned to return to Philadelphia, Monday, thus cutting short by several days his visit to his friends in this place.

A. J. Casebeer, of the firm of A. J. Casebeer & Co., returned from Philadelphia, Thursday, where he had been for the past week purchasing a spring stock of goods.

The annual "get up and git" will be ordered along the lines and a general movement begin among the villagers. It is said that a great many of our citizens will move to-morrow.

Now that it is safe to say the snow is gone, do not allow the unsightly ash piles and other rubbish to remain upon our streets any longer than necessary, but begin their removal at once.

Judging from the earnest manner in which candidates for the several county offices have already entered into the canvass, the contest promises to be quite warm before the campaign is over.

The West Chester Village Record has learned of the purchase of fifty acres of ground near Wayne Station, on the Pennsylvania Railroad, by General Grant, upon which he will build a handsome residence.

Although the weather out-look is rather on the wintry order, the old saying promises us that, as March came in like a lion, it will go out like a lamb. Only two more days remain for the lamb business.

A bill has been introduced in the Legislature at Harrisburg, prohibiting political committees from paying the taxes that are imposed in accordance with the constitution of this State as a qualification for voting.

Easter Sunday occurs on the 17th of April. If the weather keeps fair so that the hens can get in their ordinary work, the egg appetite will be somewhat appeased before the celebration of the Lenten eggs-it comes off.

The bill introduced by Hon. A. J. Colborn to enact a law to prevent bribery and fraud at primary elections and nominating conventions is worthy the serious consideration of our representative at Harrisburg.

A bill was introduced into the House of Representatives at Harrisburg, recently authorizing Notaries Public to perform marriage ceremonies. A matrimonial aspirant quietly remarked in our hearing, that "Julius" should say the "party" words in his.

A schedule for passenger trains on the S. & C. railroad was made out and sent to the office at this place Saturday, to go into effect Monday. Monday morning the schedule was abandoned and it is not now definitely known just when passenger trains will be placed on the road.

The country roads are now in that deplorable condition which spring break-ups always give them, and as a consequence of which locomotion is rendered disagreeable and even dangerous. Deep ruts are in the wagon tracks, and broken springs are quite the fashion.

Senator Don Cameron has invited a party to accompany him to California in his special car. His wife will go, and also Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fitzgerald Beale and their daughter, Mr. Hutchison and Mr. Walker Blaine. They are to start about the first of next week it is said.

Health, the poor man's riches, and the rich man's bliss is maintained by the judicious use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla which strengthens and invigorates the system by purifying the blood. It is so highly concentrated that it is the most economical medicine for this purpose that can be used.

The McCabe brothers, who did such splendid work in grading the S. & C. railroad, have now a contract for clearing all the cuts and steep places along the line of the road. They went to work with a force of seventy negroes last week, and by the time they are through such a thing as a land slide on the S. & C. will be unheard of.

Harry C. Horne, of Bedford, who has been visiting his uncle, Wash. Meadam, for the past two weeks, took his departure on Monday, for an extended trip through Virginia and the West. His many friends regret that his visit has been so short, but hope that he will return again in a more pleasant season of the year.

The recent statistics of the census totals by sex and race show that as between sexes the male population has grown faster in the last ten years than the female, and as between the races the black race faster than the white; but in the last twenty years the white population has grown faster than the colored, and women more rapidly than men.

We understand that Judge Hall offers to dispose of the Chorpening lots, which he recently purchased from Hon. John Cessna, at a very reasonable figure and upon easy terms. He will sell them either in whole or in part. Here is a rare chance for any of our citizens who may wish to build, to secure a most desirable site for that purpose.

Mr. C. C. Orton, our popular tobacconist, is having the room in the Mammoth Block now occupied by S. U. Trent and R. P. Patterson, Esq's., fitted up in a very convenient manner. The front room will be filled with all such articles as are generally found in a first-class tobacco and cigar store. Mr. Orton will take possession of his new quarters on the 1st of April. Messrs. Trent and Patterson will occupy rooms in Cook & Beerits' block, above the News Depot, and Mr. Ed. McDowell will move his jewelry store into the room formerly occupied by Mr. Orton.

A Baltimore man is under arrest charged with saturating his wife's clothing with kerosene while she lay asleep on the lounge and then setting her on fire. The flames were extinguished before the woman was fatally burned. The brute intended to make it hot for his wife, and she now proposes to make it hot for him.

Brady McCollough, who shot and killed Tom Clark, a negro, on the morning of the general election, 1879, at Greensburg, was pardoned and set at liberty last week. He had been sentenced to the penitentiary for seven years, but had been retained in the Greensburg jail for the past seventeen months awaiting the action of the Supreme Court in an application for a new trial.

Hon. John Cessna, Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, has issued a notice that a meeting of the Committee will be held at the Lochiel Hotel, in Harrisburg, on Thursday, the 14th day of April, 1881, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of fixing the time and place for the meeting of the Republican State Convention of 1881, and transacting such other business as may be presented for the consideration of the Committee.

In another column will be found the dissolution notice of the firm of M. A. Ross & Sons, doing business in Addison and Confluence. After fifty-three years of an active and successful business life General Ross retires and leaves the business to be conducted in the future by his three sons, all of whom he carefully educated in the business school of which he was so masterly a scholar. That they may be as successful as was their father is the wish of the HERALD.

Some statistical genius has figured out that only about 25 per cent. of the brakemen of freight trains die a natural death and the average life of a brakeman after he assumes the duties of his position is but ten years and a fraction over. It is estimated that at least ten brakemen are killed in the United States every day, or 3,650 during the year. Twice that number are set down as injured while on duty.

HURRAH FOR OUR SIDE.—Many people have lost their interest in politics and in announcements because they are so out of sorts and run down that they can not enjoy anything. If such persons were only wise enough to try that celebrated remedy Kidney-Wort and experience its tonic and renovating effects they would soon be hurrahing with the loudest. In either dry or liquid form it is a perfect remedy for torpid liver, kidneys or bowels.—Ex.

For the reason that the winter has been an unusually long and severe one—speaking from a weather point of view—it is the impression with many prognosticators that the coming summer will be marked by almost continuous sweltering days, and that much sickness will prevail. Vennor, the Canadian prophet, leans most decidedly to this opinion, and people who place confidence in his predictions will not take much comfort from the outlook announced.

The conviction of James Allison, in Indiana County, this week, of the crime of murder in the first degree, is the first time within the history of that county that a verdict of the kind has been rendered, although a number of homicides have been perpetrated in it since it was originally organized. Unless some unforseen circumstances prevent the fiat of the law being carried out, the murderer named will in due course of time pay the penalty of his offense on the gallows.

NOTICE.—Notice is hereby given that from and after May 1st, 1881, the Poor Directors of Somerset county, will refuse to pay all bills presented to them for services rendered by Physicians, unless arrangements have previously been made with the Board of Directors for the payment of such bills.

By order of the Poor Directors.

The Public School Exhibition at Shanksville, on Tuesday evening, March 22, was a grand success. Before closing, Rev. Pershing was called for and he delivered a pointed speech in his usual forcible manner, at the close of which he read the following paper, calling for a vote of thanks, which was given.

WHEREAS, Prof. J. C. Speicher has faithfully discharged his duties as a teacher of the Shanksville public school, and

WHEREAS, We the parents in said school district highly appreciate his services, knowing them to have been beneficial to our children, therefore be it

Resolved, That we hereby return him a vote of thanks. A.

A short time ago Rev. Risinger, of the Evangelical Association, residing in Morgan county, West Virginia, was traveling in the cars with Colonel Robert Ingersoll. The latter discovered by the former's ticket that he was a minister of the Gospel, and, observing that he was a plain old gentleman, determined to have some fun at his expense. For that purpose he commenced quizzing him. Soon Ingersoll quoted from his Illinois speech, in which he said that "all men sprung from the lower order of animals; but he was glad that his mother was not a cow." To which Rev. Risinger replied, not knowing that he was Colonel Ingersoll, that "if the theory were true, and that if the Colonel's mother was a cow, he would be glad if Mrs. Cow would have kept her calf from bellowing all over the country." This closed up the conversation, and brought a burst of uproarious laughter from the passengers.—Telescope.

On the 1st of May next the Johnstown school authorities will surrender possession of the school property on Washington street, Third Ward, to the Somerset & Cambria Railroad Company, and the latter will at once commence remodeling it for the purposes of a ticket office and waiting rooms on the lower floor, and despatcher's and telegraph offices on the second floor, besides the dividing off of two rooms as general offices, to be occupied by the Superintendent and clerks for this end of the line. The interior will undergo a complete transformation, and the plans have already been made out for its arrangement. The freight depot will be located on the old "lumber yard" lot, corner Clinton and Washington streets, fronting on the latter, and will run back only one-half of the width of said lot, as the rear portion will be utilized for the main track to be run down to the passenger station, and for the siding necessary for unloading purposes. The plans and specifications for the latter have also been prepared by the architect of the Company, and the erection of the structure will be commenced in the course of a few weeks. A temporary building for freight and passenger traffic will be put up to answer all practical purposes until the contemplated improvements can be made.—Johnstown Tribune.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.—The following resolutions were adopted by the I. O. O. F., of Hiawatha Lodge, No. 448, of Addison, Pa., on Saturday evening, March 19, 1881,

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God to remove from our midst, by death, our faithful and much respected sister, the wife of P. G. A. J. Colborn; therefore be it Resolved, 1st. That we deeply deplore the death of our friend and sister, Mrs. Mary Colborn, who, in her professional and private life, always evinced the character of a true Christian lady.

2nd. That by her death the family has lost a dear friend, and the community an honored and trusted member.

3rd. That we tender to her sorrowing family and relatives, our warmest sympathy in this hour of their bereavement.

4th. That these resolutions be published in the county papers and a copy transmitted to the bereaved family.

Respectfully submitted.

ROBT. E. ROSS, Committee.

It is a matter of some moment to the business men and tax-payers of the county, that the laws requiring certain matters and things to be advertised by our public officials in one or more newspapers of the county should be observed according to the spirit, and not the mere letter of the law. The object of advertising is to give the general public notice of the matter or thing advertised, and of course this can be best accomplished by inserting the advertisement in the paper or papers having the widest and largest circulation. We are led to these remarks by the fact, of which frequent complaint has been made to us, that the County Commissioners, and the Appraiser of Mercantile taxes—all servants of the people, have for the past two years published the Mercantile Appraisers list in the Somerset Democrat and the Meyersdale Commercial, while it has not been inserted in this paper, which has a larger circulation than both the others combined.

On inquiry at the Commissioners' office, all responsibility for this violation of the spirit of the law was disclaimed, and the declaration made that the Mercantile Appriser was alone responsible. While it is true that, legally, he alone is the responsible party, yet when it is remembered that in turn, the Commissioners have each appointed a near relative as Appraiser, the moving cause of this clear evasion of the object and spirit of the law, is easily traced home to them. The truth is, and we may as well state it now as again, that the present board of Commissioners for some reason best known to themselves, have undertaken to "punish" the HERALD, by withdrawing from it all the job work, and so much of the advertising as they can, and the tax-payers for whose information this official advertising is done, and a large portion of whom are readers of this paper, are deprived of the benefit of that information for which they pay. Although this ostracism of the HERALD has been pursued—even to sending work out of the county which it had hitherto done—ever since this present Board has been in power, we have preferred to suffer in pocket rather than call public attention to it, but we have been forced to the conclusion that we alone are not the sufferers, and that the tax-payers suffer equally with us, in the mismanagement and extravagance that has crept into that office. We believe that its administration needs a thorough overhauling and ventilation, and in matters of business a radical change.

CONFLUENCE, March 23, 1881.

ED. HERALD:—During the past eleven years twelve new church buildings have been erected in Addison and Lower Turkeyfoot townships. Four by the M. E. church, north; one by the M. E. church, south; two by the Ev. Lutheran; two by the Church of God, usually called Winebarians; one by the Evangelical Association; one by the Baptists; one by the Disciples. The greatest distance between any of these churches is not over nine miles. The average cost is about $2,000. When we are occasionally told from some of these pulpits that the world is continually growing worse and that every setting sun finds the human family steeped deeper in sin and iniquity, we feel a sense of relief when we remember that we have built more churches than our daddies before us, and so we have.

A Greenbacker, who professes to understand all about the national finance, has been staying here for a few months past, and he has given his ideas a good airing on the subject of finance, but more to the amusement than the edification of his auditors. He hoots at the idea that the country is in a prosperous condition, that business confidence has been restored, and that specie resumption is a success. He pretends to believe that the present financial policy of the government only tends to make the rich richer and the poor poorer, and advocates the issuing of an unlimited amount of greenbacks; the payment of the government bonds in greenbacks; the destruction of banks; the hanging of bankers; and an act of Congress making it a criminal offence for anyone to discriminate between the value of the gold and the paper dollar. This he contends would not only relieve the nation of a large debt and the accruing interest thereof, but would make the people rich and the country prosperous. We understand him, he wants cheap money to pay honest debts. X.

JENNERTOWN, March 23, 1881.

ED. HERALD:—I was forcibly impressed upon reading, a short time ago, in your paper "A Card," from "A Mother."

The insult hurled at her daughter and servant girl while returning from church was doubtless sufficient to call forth the card referred to. But where do these youths receive their lessons in blasphemy and obscenity? Do they not hear fathers and mothers use vulgar and profane terms? It cannot be denied that in very many homes, in the country and in the cities, parents by their own wicked lives are exerting a most baneful influence over their children. In the training of children parents sow for eternity; and "what shall the harvest be?" "Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he reap."

Another place where boys are made bad is in county towns and rural villages, where those who pretend to be young gentlemen collect themselves into groups, in barber shops, saloons, bar-rooms, carpenter shops and into stables for the purpose of playing cards, etc. Boys will stand and look on and listen to the phrases used in these miserable dens of iniquity, and when they go into the street they practice what the bad young men have preached. Under such influences, and with ungodly parents there would have to be a stupendous miracle wrought if those boys did not develope into very bad boys and end in very bad men.

Are there places in this county where the game of cards, as above described, is indulged in? Yes, sir. A few months ago while in the town of Somerset, I had occasion to solicit the services of a barber to dress my hair. The first shop I entered was half full of young men, both white and colored, engaged in playing cards. I turned away, and upon entering another shop I found it full to its utmost capacity with young men, mixed as before, engaged in playing cards. I said, "is there no barber shop in town where they do not play cards?" In length found one where the cards were absent, at least for the time being.

But here in our quiet little village a certain minister of the gospel, not long since, called upon a neighbor in his carpenter shop and found the disciples of the card table dexterously engaged in killing time by playing cards.

Is it the object of these persons engaged in these wicked nuisances to qualify themselves for gambling with shovmen and highwaymen in the future, and to be swindled to the tune of $800, more or less, as was a certain man in this county not a year ago? Is this nuisance practiced behind the curtains, yet in the presence of our boys, to train them, the boys, in the vice of gambling, and for habits of idleness? Go slow young men, there are breakers ahead! C. K.

KIDNEY-WORT

This Great Remedy

is either Liquid or Dry Form acts at the same time on the diseases of the Liver, Bowels and Kidneys,

This combined action gives it wonderful power to cure all diseases.

WHY ARE WE SICK?

Because we allow these great organs to become clogged or torpid, and poisonous humors are therefore forced into the blood that should be expelled naturally.

KIDNEY-WORT WILL CURE

BILIOUSNESS, PILES, CONSTIPATION, KIDNEY COMPLAINTS, URINARY DISEASES, FEMALE WEAKNESS, AND NERVOUS DISORDERS, by causing free action of these organs and restoring their power to throw off disease.

Why Suffer Bilious pains and aches?
Why tormented with Piles, Constipation?
Why frightened over disordered Kidneys?
Why endure nervous or sick headaches?
Why have sleepless nights?

Use KIDNEY-WORT and rejoice in health.

It is put up in Dry Vegetable Form, in tin cans one package of which makes six quarts of medicine.

Also in Liquid Form, very Concentrated, for the convenience of those that cannot readily prepare it. Roots with equal efficiency in either form.
