platz, where we walked up and down MY GIRL-A MEMORY.

She met me at the parlor door-The darling whom I hoped to win-I cried, "My sweet,"ethereal love !" -She answered, smiling, "That's too thin !

A lovely Venus statuette I said, "What are such charms to thine;" racket?"

"O dearest maid ! to win thy love My body in the dust I'd humble ; Canst understand such love as mine "" She whispered bountifully, "I tumble !"

A yielding glance from her dark eyes Gave to my passion full excuse; I snatched her to my heart, and heard, "You're just too cute for any use!"

I pressed upon her willing lips A kiss that nearly drove me crazy ; And, us the osculation ceased, She murmured, gently, "That's just dalsy?"

But "O," she cried, "I hear my pa ! I fear he's bent on bouncing you, Just one more kiss, my dear, and then You'd better skip the tra-la-loo!"

WEARY OF LIFE.

of the vessels lying at anchor in the between us."

stream were beginning to be extin- "You have my word. Go to my A screen of olive velvet is worked pockets of one of guished, when two men hurried dwelling, to my daughter, and you with sunflowers in silk and crewel, knife that it wa from different directions towards the will find that I have told you but and is framed in mahogany.

the simple truth. My name is Wil- A curtain of sage green satin, men solem shore. The older of the two had already helm Salm. Here is my full ad- has a frieze of light blue satin over down to t reached the strand, and was prepar- dress." ing to make a leap, the designs of With these words he handed the matis, or virgin's bower. At the a spe which was not to be mistaken; but young man a paper, giving the ad- base is a mossy bank, worked in him at that instant the younger one sciz- dress of his house. It lay in a suburb chenille and silk, from which grow an ed him by the arm exclaiming, "Sir, inhabited by the poorer classes, at ferns and flowers. I believe you want to drown your-self!" "And my name is Carl Teodor," Holmes' realistic embrodiery have tenderly loved."

to believe. To-morrow I will ar- worked in sike.

exhibits.

which stray long trailers of the ele- fatal dr merits of this lady's work have been outline with flowers, ferns, and

"You have guessed it. What is said the young man. "Take this been retained to grace the present bank note; it will serve till my rethat to you ?" This was the answer spoken in turn."

Carl rang for the waiter, had the too recently discussed to need esne an angry tone: "Nothing I know. I would sim- landlord called, commended the old cial mention.

ply request you to wait a few min-man to his care in suitable terms Cases containing draw work on linen and outline work in silk, to utes-when, if you like, we will and left the house. make the journey together, arm in Hardly had the morning broke gether with other dainty morsels of when Carl found himself on the way needle work, attract numerous vis arm-the best way of dying." With these words, the younger ex-tended his hand to the elder, whose ter of the old man with whom he Italian dunto tirato, so framed dur was not witheld.

had become acquainted under such the seventeen century, are imitate The younger continued in a seem peculiar circumstances. It was a on the pulled threads of fine linen, ing tone of enthusiasm: "So be it! poor place. The young man knock- in some cases interwoven with Arm in arm! Truly, I did not think ed opened the door, and involuntari- strands of amber silk. Displays of a human heart would beat with mine in this last hour. I will not What did he see ! linen cambric are bordered with a lace grounded in this substantial

The young giri whose inconstancy fashion on the threads of the stuf seek to know who you are-an honest man or a villain. Come ?-let had made his life a burden unbeara- itseif. They are then worked in us begin the journey together!" ble stood before him !

The elder man held the younger She had grown pale-very pale; grasses in silks, incredibly fine. back, and fixing his dim, half ex- but he knew her at first glance; it The cover for a baby's carriage l tinguished eyes upon the counte- was Bertha, whom he had once of ivory satin, with an ou nance of his companion, exclaimed : hoped to call his own! cherub's heads, and a border

"Hold! You seem to me to be too At his appearance, the young girl ivory cashmere, with traceries young to end your life by suicide. sprang toward him, overcome with silk. A man of your years has still a bril-liant, alluring future in his grasp." "What have I to hope for in the ing. You did not expect to see border. midst of a world that is full of wick- me?"

edness, falsehood, treachery and un-happiness? Come! quick!" "You are still young. You must have had very sorrowful experien-ces to make life already thus insup-ungers?" asked the young man coldly together, passing many happy hours. One day my dear girl appeared with red cycs—she had been weeping— and told me we must part; confess-ing that her life belonged to another! With these words she tore herself A lovely Venus statuette Was standing on a corner bracket; (said, "What are such charms to thine;" She blushed and answered, "Cacese the the pleasures which so called "good dodo of rich crewel work. The murder occurred some time es in the matter. i ance a large the pleasures which so called "good society" has to offer, but found my lost peace of soul never, never! I then determined to bring my joy-less existence to a close." "Unhappy young man," said the during the latter part of 1862, the such hense a large during the latter part of 1862, the who was found dead in his store. As was then supposed, his money the border of a summer brook. A "Unhappy young man," said the during the latter part of 1862, the such hense as any farmer would keep, and I try to keep them well, but all my suggestions, wishes, and elder wiping his eyes; from my second Strephon, with fishing rod suspicion rested upon two colored even positive orders avail nothing to whole heart I pity you. I must acknowledge that I was more fortunate envenomed dart from Cupid on the the murder was perpetrated, but no exclusively upon sloppy food. The than you: for I at least was by two women-my wife and daughter- cade of a chateau, with two sentinel sion and none could be found about poultry get in the habit of feeding enderly loved." peacocks, conventionally drawn, the premises of Dougherty. It was young chickens soft food and as "Will you give me your address, in a thicket of roses another love generally supposed that some other they grow to maturity follow up the kind sir, that I may convince my-self of the truth of your story? It is work is canvas covered with close the crime, but time failed to unravel chickens are young, indeed, when not exactly mistrust, but I must see crewel stiches, the figures partly the mystery and the men accested they cannot consume some solid food were soon placed on trial for mur- such as the smaller grains. It is range my affairs as I have already told you. You will remain at this tains is suggested by those made of to be hanged.

A Death-Bed Confession.

Some Pretty Suggestions.

Dougherty.

-Emies Advertiser, will return. Give me your word of vine of autumn leaves applique in were convicted was purely circum- should be increased as the chickens honor that you will not leave this house until I come back, and that you will not, in the meantime speak coral and seaweed, embroidered on "Norway," of that they committed the crime hav-that all kinds of poultry, both young and old, devour all kinds of sloppy

Midnight was past, and the lights to any one of what has taken place onve satin, is among the noticeable connecting them with the mur said to have been the inn to night, and in the morning I green-brown canton flannel, with a The evidence upon which they food, but the proportion of solid food the country.

A Mistake in Feeding Poultry.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S

OF LYNN. MASS.

VEGETABLE COMPOUND. The Positive Cure For all Female Complaints.

This preparation, as its name signifies, consists of Vegetable Properties that are harmless to the most deficate invalid. Upon one trial the merits of this Compound will be recognized, as relief is immediate; and when its use is continued, in ninety-sime cases in a bin, dred, a permanent curvis effected, as thousands will ter-tify. On account of its proven merits, it is to day re-commended and preactibed by the best physicians in the context.

It will cure entirely the worst

WHY DOES MRS. LYDIA E. PINKHAM. The Somerset Herald ! a woman's health often heated from the hot sh that comes from scalin skin, and his health too (ESTABLISHED 1807.) A WOMAN the hot work, a those not at w ing that it fin-tomed to the 1 One of the leading Papers of Western LOOK ULD Pennsylvania. while yet young in yes strongly to the injuriou scalding or boiling to gr

IS STALWART BEPUBLICAN

SOONER A MAN

portable to you. good effect. after a pause. "I despise mankind." "I am," answered the maiden Some of the designs submitted "Without exception ?" competition are full of spirit, am timedly. "And who, and where is that other, them three dancing figures, suitab "Without exception." "Well, then, you have now, per- to whom, as you told me at parting, for the panels of a screen. Frieze haps, found a man whom you will your lite belonged ?" curtain borders, etc., line the p necessarily despise. I have, believe ""That other is my father," answer- sage way leading to the rare an me during my whole life, lived an ed the young girl, looking up to the beautiful exhibition of antique e broideries of this loan collection. "Really ! that is highly interesting. spoke the tenderest of love. It is a pity I had not earlier made With lightning quickness the truth dawned upon him, the scales Elephants Playing 'Pos your acquaintance." "Leave me to die alone, young fell from his eyes. "There are some very cunning man. Live on. Believe me, time Speechlessly he rushed to Bertha lows among our twenty elephant heals all wounds, and there are men took her in his arms, and pressed said Mr. Durand, Barnum's age the otherday. Not long ago Chi of honor yet to be found." her to his breast, "Now, if you take this view, why "Come to your father !' he falter- tain and Maudrie, top mounters are you hurrying so fast from the ed. the pyramid, and the most cunni "My father! Oh heaven! I forgot ; of the flock, suddenly took a ch world!" said the young man. "Oh, I'm an old sickly man, una- where is he? He has been out all ling spell at rehersal. The keep ble to make a livelihood ; a man who night. I have watched for him in sent out and bought four gallons cannot, will not see his only child, tears the long night through." whiskey, which the monsters devou "Your father is saved. He is with ed rapidly and with great relish and laboring night and day to sup- me," was Carl's answer, as he hur- The bill came to Mr. Barnum whos ried the young girl out, and through strong temperance predelections vot Now, sir, have you a daughter who the streets to the arms of her father. know. After paying the bill Mr. does this for you?" asked the young A fortnight later, in the midst of Barnum insisted that no one in his A fortnight later, in the midst of employ, not even his elephants, employ, not even his elephants, employ, not even his elephants, should drink whiskey under any circumstances. In a little while the what love, does she sacrifice herself | Bertha Salms, took place. elephants, when the effects of the liquor had died away, commenced shivering again, and apparently had by another chill. They looked long he

"And you want to commit suicide ? Jeff. Davis's Account of His Capture. are you mad!" "Shall I murder my daughter?

The life which she is now leading is certain death," answered the old man, in a despairing voice.

his daughter, blighting her youth

port him.

for me.

man, surprised.

My horse and those of my party much as to say, 'Give us another "Good sir, come with me to the proper were saddled preparatory to drink.' The keeper shook his head nearest inn that is yet open, and let a start, when one of my staff, who and told them positively, 'No.' In us drink a bottle of wine together. had ridden into a neighboring vil- five minutes every appearance o You will relate to me your history, lage, returned and told me, that he ague had vanished, and the animals that so and, if you like, I will let you hear had heard that a marauding party were quietly eating hay as usual, and one mine. So much, however, will I say intended to attack the camp that They have evidently been 'playing Some di to you beforehand; chase all thoughts night. This decided me to wait possom. o self-murder out of your mind, I long enough to see whether there am rich, and, if things beas you say, was any truth in the rumor, which from henceforth you and your daugh- I supposed would be ascertained in ter shall lead a pleasant life." a few hours. My horse remained

The old man followed the young- saddled and my pistols in the hol- "tired" when they are only poison- for caution. er without opposition. A few min- sters, and I lay down, fully dressed, ed. They labor in factories, breathe or 20 feet utes later, over full glasses, the elder to rest. Nothing occurred to arouse air without oxygen, and live in an and seizing a me until just before dawn, when my atmosphere of death. They are, too with three

"My history is soon told. I was a coachman, a free colored man, who often, allowed to smoke, and thus he poises it merchant's clerk, but always unlucky. faithfully clung to our fortunes, add fuel to the flame which is con- air, and then h As I had nothing by inheritance, came and told me there was firing suming them. They knock of work aim at the dev and the young girl I married was over the branch, just behind our en- "tired" and listless, when they are with a sharpe poor, I was never able to commence campment. I stepped out of my merely weakened by foul air and in the centre of business on my own account, and wife's tent and saw some borsemen, made dull and heavy by an atmosremained to an old age in a depend-ent subordinate position. Finally, cavalry, deploying around the en-I was discharged on account of my campment. I turned back and told the door on health, while they lift and game at his years, and then began a struggle my wife these were not the expect- the grating of the tomb by breathing for subsistence. My wife died of ed marauders, but regular troopers. and rebreathing the poison from trouble, and now my poor child is She implored me to leave her at their own lungs, and the floating wearied to gain my support. I can- once. I hesitated from unwilling- particles of matter about them. not bear to see her work herself to ness to do so, and lost a few pre-death for me-therefore it is better cious moments before yielding to shine and the breeze, stop smoking, born, of this city, I go. Now you know all."

FROM HIS BOOK.

go. Now you know all." her importunity. My horse and and you will soon find that it is the was found lying "Friend," exclaimed the young arms were near the road on which I poison of confinement, and not labor, her residence in man, "you are the most fortunate expected to leave, and down which that wearies and tires. man I ever encountered in my life. the cavalry approached. It was It is insane to call that misfortune, therefore impracticable to reach Nobody is easier to help than you, them. I was compelled to start in To-morrow I will make my will, and an opposite direction.

you shall be no resistance in ity here. The coming night is my last. I picked up what was supposed to be my "raglin"—a waterproof, light daughter, out of mere curiosity. I overcoat without sleeves. It was when dry the wood is about as hard dead. They notified you shall be-no resistance! my As it was quite dark in the tent. would for once see how one looks subsequently found to be my wife's, as boxwood, and of a very fine grain. authorities. It is supp

READING, June

of decomposition. sided alone, and as ticed about the dw Mountain Mahogany. days two of the ne search of the premi

with

This wood is indigenous to the the woman lying on and the second second second second second How to Save.

come up a just where them; but Lack of Air. the hunter Some workmen think themselves the necessit another chill. They looked longingly at the keeper, and attempted his to caress him with their trunks, as

