HOLIDAY PRESENTS!

TWO JOURNEYS.

Two journeys, as they appear from time to time in one of the Pittsburgh daily and religious newspapers.

A LIFE FOR A LIFE.

Bertrude Dodge was blue. It was August weather, but there was no stirring from one arid noon until the next, and the insects hissed maliciously all day long in the parched grasses.

How the Pashas Dine in Egypt.

You enter a square room with bare, whitewashed walls; a few texts of the Koran framed in wood-panels hanging here and there.

Circus Clowns.

A reporter of a Cincinnati paper entered the dressing-room of a circus tent, the other day, and interviewed Lowlow the celebrated clown.

Pins, Fast and Present.

To the young lady whose intricate overskirt is held in innumerable folds by many pins it may seem a hardship that her yearly allowance of pins is only about 150.

Frederick Tells His Love.

"And you really love me dearly?" he asked as he gazed his arms around her.

A Good Deed.

There is nothing so noble and touching as a really spontaneous act of generosity.

Information for Tenants.

The courts at one time were dispossessed of the law as between tenants and owners in favor of the latter.

A Good Foundation.

One of the greatest troubles of our people is weakness of the stomach.

Bald Heads never dye.

There was joy on the farm when Ben, the oldest boy, came back from college in his sophomore year.

A Resolute Hero.

Point Jervis, N. Y., June 8.—This forenoon Miss Blandine Elting captured a burglar named Charles L. Wright.
